Mr. T. Bishop sprayed his cherry trees with London purple for the slug, last spring, and it proved effective. His trees were entirely free from this pest, the foliage a healthy color and the fruit larger than usual.
The O. R. N. Co.'s timetable for Hood River is as follows: Westbound overland, 5:50 a. m.; eastbound overland, 9:45 p. m.; local passenger eastbound, 11:12 a. m.; local passenger westbound, 8:23 p. m.
Write to Davenport Bros., Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.
Hon. E. L. Smith, nominee for presidential elector, started last Monday night on his canvass in Eastern Oregon. He delivered his first address at Elgin, Union county, Tuesday evening, and is advertised to speak at Cove, LaGrande, Union, North Powder, Milton, Weston, Helix, Pendleton and Pilot Rock.
Charles Wallace has bought ten acres of land of F. C. Sherrieb and is building a house. The land lies along the Wallace lane, in the southeastern part of Mr. Sherrieb's farm. The way that buildings are going up along this lane it will soon deserve to be called a street, and the collection of dwellings now presents the appearance of a village.
Grandpa Eastman had a tussle with the family cow, one day last week, and came out second best. While trying to prevent the cow from going through the stable door he was thrown against the door casing and fractured a rib. He has since been laid up at his home, and may not come to town before election day, when he will be sure to show up and put in a ballot for McKinley. A little thing like a broken rib will not keep him from the polls.
Joseph A. Wilson has been shipping a good many prunes and plums through the State union, and prices received in the East have been quite satisfactory. Mr. Wilson complains that some shippers do poor packing. We thought every one at Hood River had learned by this time that it pays to pack fruit well. If any one has not yet learned to pack prunes for shipment, he should go around to his neighbors and see how it is done. Poorly packed fruit is always shipped at a loss to the grower.
In a recent letter to the manufacturers of the Spectator, Rushford, New York, says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not, she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism; Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit and are unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by Williams & Brosius, druggists.

At the M. E. church, Sunday evening, a local advisory board, auxiliary to the Oregon Children's Home Society, was organized with the following persons as officers: President, Mrs. P. G. Barrett; vice president, Rev. J. L. Hershner; secretary, Mrs. S. E. Bartness; treasurer, Mrs. O. L. Stranahan. Several are contemplating taking children into their homes for adoption. About $80 were subscribed Wednesday by the friends of the children. Any information concerning homeless children may be sent to Rev. I. F. Tobey, 500 Marquam building, Portland, and will receive prompt attention.
Mr. Albert I. Mason came up from Portland last Saturday and went out to his ranch on the East Side. While here he let the contract to N. C. Sears for clearing, plowing and preparing 20 acres for orchard. He is also having his entire farm fenced. Mr. Mason returned to Portland Monday and took with him a sample of Hood River fruit in the shape of a cluster of about a dozen Hungarian prunes on a single branch from the orchards of Campbell Bros., East Side.
Mr. M. V. Rand shipped some of his large and handsome Hungarian prunes to the Portland exposition. They were the largest specimens of this fruit we think we ever saw. Mr. W. T. Hainsbury brought in some for the exposition which, though not quite so large as Mr. Rand's, were more highly colored and were a handsome lot. Mr. L. N. Blowers attended to shipping the fruit.
Two young men from the valley went hunting grouse up on the mountains of the East Side during one of those windy days last week. They complained that great clouds of dust were constantly rolling up from the valley and blowing into their eyes. Upon their return they found that three farmers had been utilizing the good breeze to blow their barns.
A fire set out on Warren Miller's place, Thursday of last week, to burn an old pine stump, escaped its bounds during the high winds on the afternoon of that day and threatened considerable damage to his neighbor's property, but Jack Luckey discovered the flames before they had done any material damage beyond burning up about six rods of his fence.
Fishermen have again commenced seining for salmon in the Columbia near the Morton place. McKelish & Dunning's crew caught two tons of fish last Saturday and did about as well again on Monday. Tuesday they cast their big seine in a new place and got four of a submerged tree top, and the seine was badly torn.
Mr. R. E. Copple left last Saturday for Eugene, where he will enter the State university. Mr. Copple has earned the money by hard labor to pay his way through college, and we predict he will make good use of his time while at his studies. His kind generally succeed in obtaining an education.
Davenport Bros. saw mill, at the head of the ditch, commenced cutting lumber last Monday. Frank Davenport says he will have one mile of flume completed by November 1st. Persons wishing to work for stock should apply to him at once.
J. C. Markley picked two crates of strawberries last week and sold them to a neighbor at 12 cents a box. It is a common thing to find strawberries in all stages of growth on plants that have been allowed to retain their runners for sets.
The petition of E. C. Rogers and others for a county road to the new settlement on Neal creek, was granted by the county court. J. B. Golt was appointed surveyor and C. J. Hayes, J. Henriehs and V. Winchell viewers.
Two-year-old fruit trees are preferred by some of our fruit growers for replanting old orchards because of their larger size. At least a dozen varieties can be found for sale at Columbia Nursery.
Look out for the announcement of a "ghost" social before long. The pupils of the Frankton school contemplate getting up an entertainment to raise funds for the purchase of an encyclopedia for the school.
Last Friday afternoon Rev. Chris Nickelson and his brother J. R. went fishing in Hood river. They caught 11 fish, one trout weighing 9 1/2 pounds, the largest ever caught in Hood river.
Blackberry shipments are about closed. Prices have been very satisfactory this season, netting from $1.25 to $1.75 per crate, most of them being sent to Montana and Utah.
The camp fire, which was postponed last week on account of the funeral of J. K. Stranahan, will be held tomorrow, in the grove at Parkhurst, commencing at 10 o'clock.
The sons of J. B. Rand are settling three or four acres in strawberries on J. J. Luckey's place. Mr. Luckey's place, by spring, will have about ten acres in strawberries.
Mr. A. A. Boynton of Canas Prairie, Umatilla county, who has been making quite an extended visit with the family of his son-in-law, J. H. Shoemaker, left for his home Tuesday.
George Slocum finished setting three acres of strawberries, last week, on E. L. Smith's place, on the East Side. He will set three acres more in the spring.
Lumber is being hauled for a new building on the Smith block, to be occupied by Hanna & Hartley in the butcher business.
The rain last Saturday and Saturday night put out the fires in the mountains and cleared the atmosphere of smoke.
James Wishart went up to Sherman county last Friday to purchase or trade for a team of heavy work horses.
Tom Pierce was taken down again with rheumatism, last week, and has been seriously sick.
Mr. Ed Williams has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, but is getting better.
Rev. William G. Elliot preached at the Unitarian church in Portland last Sunday.
Quite a good many pears are being shipped from here and prices are good.
S. E. Bartness received a carload of shingles and laths Monday.
The daily attendance at the Frankton school is now about 60.
Attorney Cradlebaugh was in town last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Coe went to Portland Sunday.
Plenty of harness oil at the harness shop now.

Hon. T. R. Coon has returned with his family from Mosier, and they are at present occupying their former home. Mr. Coon's youngest child was taken sick at Mosier and died and was buried at Hood River last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Price are both quite feeble, especially Mr. Price, who is confined to the house with a severe attack of dysentery, which disease has been chronic with him for years. The family will remain at Hood River.
The O. R. & N. Co. will sell excursion tickets to Portland and return, including two admission coupons to the Oregon Industrial Exposition, at $3.60. Tickets will be sold for train 1, leaving Hood River on Wednesday, September 23rd and 30th, October 7th and 14th. Good for return 3 days from date of sale. On Friday, September 25th, same tickets will be sold for morning and afternoon trains at $2.40.
The social at the Congregational parsonage, last Friday evening, was largely attended and cleared $11 for the church. The ice failed to come from The Dalles, as ordered, so the ice cream could not be served, as was intended, but there was no want of refreshments. Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Millersage several duets in a masterly manner.
The Congregational church will give a conundrum social at the home of Mr. J. F. Armor, on next Thursday evening, September 24th. Ice cream will be served this time without fail. Free transportation will be furnished for those in town who wish to attend. Price for refreshments, 15 cents, for benefit of the church.
Our public schools opened last Monday with a very good attendance. In the three rooms there were about one hundred pupils enrolled the first day. The school is better prepared than ever to give instruction in the higher branches. Outside pupils, up to any number, will be accepted.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will give dinner at the Champlin house on election day. Pay will be taken in either silver or gold.
Genuine Lambert cherry trees can be had this year at Columbia Nursery for 50 cents each. Less than half last year's price.
Mrs. Dr. Watt and Mrs. Elmer Rand and children will spend tonight and tomorrow with the family of H. L. Crapper.
H. L. Crapper picked 188 pounds of Hungarian crab apples from three five-year-old trees, and sold the fruit for $3.75.
An Afflicted Family.
Mr. J. P. Smith of Trout Lake brought his family, consisting of wife and two children, to Hood River last week for medical treatment. The mother and two children were sick with flux. The family stopped for a day or two at the Mt. Hood hotel and afterwards engaged rooms at Mrs. Mercer's. Mrs. Smith soon got better, but the children continued to grow worse, and on Friday night the youngest, aged 19 months, died, and Sunday the other child, about 4 years old, died, and both were buried Monday at White Salmon. Mr. Smith was also taken sick with the same disease, and for a few days was hardly expected to recover. The family had lately returned from Sherman county, where Mr. Smith had been at work in the harvest fields and the family camped out. They have a homestead at Trout Lake.
McKinley Club.
A McKinley and Hobart sound-money club was organized in Hood River last Saturday, with a membership of 130. The meeting was called to order by Mayor L. N. Blowers, who, in a few well chosen words, stated the object of the meeting. Hon. M. P. Isenberg was unanimously elected temporary chairman and made an eloquent speech, which elicited hearty applause. G. J. Gessling was elected president of the club; W. M. Yates, secretary; Wm. Potter, vice president, and Frank Jones, assistant secretary. L. N. Blowers, J. W. Morton and W. J. Smith were appointed a committee on rules and order of business, to report at the next meeting. Hon. E. L. Smith called for three cheers for McKinley and Hobart, which were given with a will, and the meeting then adjourned. All the officers of the club were elected without a contest.
A Disappointment.
Fossil Journal.
The pastor assigned to Fossil has been at Hood River during the past conference year. For some time it has been understood here that Mr. Johns was to be placed at Fossil. The retiring minister, Mr. Barnhart, is greatly disappointed in being located at Arlington, as he had set his heart upon attending the church university at Portland for the next year or two. The retiring P. E. favored letting Mr. Barnhart off to attend school, but the bishop, who is all-powerful in these matters, said nay. It seems to us that it would be better policy for the church to encourage a young preacher who is eager for higher education, instead of retaining him. Five young men, T. D. Gregory, being one of them, were left without appointment that they might attend school.

Obituary.
J. K. Stranahan was born in Chesterfield, Essex county, New York, September 17, 1809; died in Hood River, Oregon, September 10, 1896. Was married in Essex, Essex county, in 1830, to Miss Pamela Reynolds of Burlington, Vermont. They settled in Stockholm, New York, where both united with the Christian church. After living many years in Stockholm, they moved to Southern Michigan, where they resided six years. They then moved to Minnesota while it was yet a territory. Here he spent two years teaching school and was county school superintendent. Also was a teacher of vocal music. He came to Oregon with his wife in 1883, and survived her five years. They had seven children, four sons and three daughters, all of whom are living. Deceased lived a useful, Christian life, exerting a wonderful influence for good. He was an educated man and read and spoke French as readily as his mother tongue. He was a great reader, and books were a comfort to him in his old age. Not twenty minutes before his death he had been reading the "Lives of McKinley and Hobart" and laid the book down with the leaves marked showing that he lacked only a few pages of completing it. He was a student of the Bible, and for the last three years of his life this book was his constant companion. He made a practice of reading it through once a year.
Council Proceedings.
An adjourned meeting of the common council was held last Tuesday evening. The resignation of H. F. Davidson as councilman was read and accepted. W. N. West was elected by the council to fill the unexpired term of H. F. Davidson. Report of the treasurer was read, showing $12.55 in the city treasury. Ordinance No. 16, relating to license on livery stables, was called up for second reading and defeated.
A Card of Thanks.
We desire to tender our thanks to the many friends for their kindness and assistance during the long suffering of our beloved little Ada and for their untiring assistance and sympathies, and all other friends who offered their assistance we will forever remember. Many thanks to those who so nicely decorated the grave with flowers.

The Time to Subscribe.
The old newspaper saying, "Now is the time to subscribe," was never more true than at present. The times are so full of incident, so many important national and state affairs are shaping themselves for a change, that one can afford to be without a metropolitan daily or weekly. The St. Louis Republic, the greatest democratic newspaper, is making a special offer of its daily and Sunday paper for three months at $1.50. It is $1 a year by mail. The Twice-a-Week Republic is sent two times a week—104 papers—for only one dollar a year. In addition to all the political news, it prints every day a spread of general news and features not equaled by any other paper.
