We Will Have No Fair.

The meeting called for last Saturday to consider the question of holding a fair this season was not largely attend- had no faith in banks, placed the ed. However, the meeting was called money in a stove which had been un-to order and it was decided to hold a used for the summer. His wife, who to order and it was decided to hold a fair, J. W. Morton was elected permanent president and H. C. Bateham destroyed. permanent secretary. C. A. Markham was selected for fruit secretary and Milton Wheeler his assistant. The different committees were provided for and October 2d and 3d set as the time for holding the fair.

Mr. Morton and others interviewed our merchants and numerous fruit growers on Monday and found so much izens in the fair. It seems to be the prevailing opinion that a fair this year would not be a success; that the fruit is not as plentiful nor as good as usual. and we could not make as good an exhibit as in former years; that what fruit we have is late and would not be matured in time to get our exhibit to the Portland exposition after holding our fair. Some growers were so much opposed to holding a fair that they refused to have anything to do with it. Politics are absorbing the attention of the people to such an extent nowadays that many will not talk of anything else. In talking to a man about holding a fair it wouldn't be two minutes till he would get onto the silver ques- ing each individual who was indebted tion, and those opposed to a fair were found to be about 16 to 1.

It is much to be regretted that this opposition to holding a fair exists. W have the fruit and could get up an ex hibit that would compare favorabl with our exhibits of former years, and a display of our fruit this year at th Portland exposition would be worth more to Hood River than it may b again for twenty years. It is next t impossible to get fruit for exhibition a Portland without first holding an ex hibit of our own and offering premiums to induce fruit growers to compete for them. No other section of the T. R. Coon, salary .. state has apples this year that can compare with Hood River. The managers of the Portland exposition have been W. L. Clark, salary ... sending our people word all along that H. F. Davidson and wife, salary ...... they were depending on Hood River for their display of fruit.

Those who attended the meeting Lumber for bracing berries in cars ..... Saturday earnestly endeavored to in- Mimcograph ... terest their neighbors and show them the advantages of holding a fruit exhibit, but all to no purpose. A dozen persons could not be expected to go ahead and do all the work in so short a time that would be required to inaugurate and carry on the fair. United action is necessary in an affair of this kind, and we will have to wait till average to shippers of $1.81. next year, when it is hoped there will be no politics to interfere and that in the meantime a scheme may be devised whereby every exhibitor can get first

Buried Three Days.

One of the most remarkable performances in the history of hypnotism was completed at Lexington, Kentucky, ply to September 18th. Edwin Boone, a boy, hypnotised John Lawrence Douglass before a committee of citizens and buried him, with the aid of Undertaker Milward, in the Lexington base ball park. After the third day the subject was taken up in the presence of 2,000 persons. When the lid was taken off the coffin there were no signs of any movement having been made. His arms were just as left, the impressions showing that the body had not moved in the least. The face of the subject was warm, the extremities almost cold. The heart beat very slowly and the pulse was weak. Boone claimed that Douglass was in the sixth stage of hypnotism, and quickly changed him into the cataleptic state, when he was dressed and taken to the street car on the coffin top. When the city was reached physicians examined Doug-lass. Boone ran his heart beat down to 45, and then up to 120. He left him at 5 o'clock, 1} hours after taken up, m what he termed the fourth stage of hypnotism. The muscles would move, but still the subject was unconscious. At 8 o'clock he awakened the subject in the presence of a large audience. Boone says he will bury Douglass seven days in Cincinnati, and if successful, will try a ten days' burial in New York. Douglass said be remembered nothing.
