Business is suffering from labor-saving inventions and consequent overproducpurchasers for their goods. Houses are vacant that should be occupied. They can neither be rented nor sold. The laboring man's condition is getting worse and the country is going to the dogs." This is the picture drawn by Kellogg in his description of affairs in the United States nearly half a century ago. And, what may interest our free-silver friends of today, he attributed tion. Shopkeepers are unable to find dress on Tuesday evening on Christian silver friends of today, he attributed the evils complained of mostly to the River. 16 to 1 bimetallic currency of the country. He wanted the standard of values changed. The people needed more money and cheaper money. If the held with the Christian church of Hood government would only increase the River. The delegates were hospitably entertained in the houses of Dufur volume of currency, business would be revived, wages would be increased and everybody would be happy. But Mr. Kellogg's remedy was not adopted by the government, and the country did not go to the dogs. On the other hand, it has tripled in population and grown to be the wealthiest country on the globe.

Secretary of State Kincaid has overridden the advice of the attorney general in the matter of certifying to the candidates for presidential electors. The national democrats served an intary had already registered and mailed from printing the word "democratic" after the names of the fusion candidates. If this "enjoining" business can succeed, at least one half the voters of Oregon will be disfranchised. But it is not likely to succeed If populists and free-silver republicans wish to call themselves democrats there is no law to prevent them from doing so.

Political Pointers.

I, W. J. Campbell, secretary of the Hood River Union Bryan club, hereby certify that there is 166 names attached to our roll of membership.

Dated at Hood River, October 8,1896.

W. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary. discuss the question, "Why am I sup-porting McKinley?" at regular meet-ing of the club Saturday, October 17th, at 3 p. m. All members are requested to be in attendance and enjoy the fun. G. J. GESSLING, Pres't.

The Union Bryan club will meet at Rand's hail tomorrow, at 3 o'clock, W. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary.
