FRANK DAVENPORT.
All members and others desirous of becoming members of "The Girls' Book and Essay Club" and of the museum will find books to read at Miss Smith's. Library open from 10 to 11 a. m. each Saturday. Girls from 12 to 18 years of age desiring to compete in the essay department will find the following list of books to be read: "The Autobiography of a Scandal," by Edna Lyall; "Home Influence," Grace Agula; "The Princess," Tennyson; "David Copperfield," Dickens.
ANNE C. SMITH, President.
Mrs. W. G. Clelland received a letter, dated at Illicitlawet, B. C. December 20th, from Mrs. Charles Berger. She states that nothing was ever found of the remains of her husband, who, with another man, was killed by an explosion of dynamite at that place November 11th. It is now generally supposed that Mr. Berger was not immediately killed by the explosion, but wandered off in a dazed condition and perished in the snow. Further search will be made for his body after the snow is gone.

Canby post and the W. R. C. held a joint installation of officers last Saturday. Capt. A. S. Blowers was the installing officer for the post and Mrs. E. L. Smith acted in that capacity for the Relief Corps. An excellent lunch, with coffee, was served after the installation. The following officers were installed by the W. R. C.: Mrs. Agnes Canning, president; Mrs. Fannie Bailey, senior vice president; Mrs. Carrie Bailey, junior vice president; Mrs. Mattie Markham, secretary; Mrs. Adelia Stranahan, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Flagg, chaplain; Mrs. Marybeth Crowell, conductor. Miss Carrie Crowell, guard.
The installation of officers of Waucoma lodge, K. of P., took place Tuesday night at the Congregational church. The exercises were public, and there was a large assemblage. G. T. Prather, D. G. C., installed the new officers. Judge Bradshaw and C. L. Gilbert attended from The Dalles. Judge Bradshaw delivered an address, which is said to have been excellent. After the installation, the members and invited guests repaired to A. O. U. W. hall, where a fine supper was served.
A large number of parishioners and friends took possession of the Congregational parsonage on New Year's day, having with them a variety of good things for dinner. Tables were spread for forty persons, who partook of an elegant New Year's dinner. For many days there will be substantial tokens of kindness of the people in the larder and kitchen of the Congregational parsonage, for which the pastor and his family hereby extend sincere thanks.
We have flour at $4.50 per bbl; every sack warranted. We have New Orleans molasses, the best in town, at 60c per gal. We have graham flour in 25 lb. sacks at 55c. We have a full line of Schilling's coffees, teas, spices and extracts. We have best Costa Rica roast coffee at 30c per pound. We have American Sugar Refinery D. G. sugar at 5c per pound.
WOLFARD & BONE.
Joe Wilson yesterday received a letter from Portland, stating that there were 1,400 barrels of Eastern apples in cold storage in Portland. Besides there are two carloads on the side track the railroad company are trying to sell for $2 a barrel to pay freight, the consignees refusing to receive them.
Hon. E. L. Smith, president of the state board of horticulture, left yesterday to attend the session that meets in Portland today. Monday he will go to Salem, where, as one of the presidential electors, he will help cast the vote of Oregon for McKinley and Hobart.
The subject of Dr. Hines' lecture Sunday evening at the M. E. church will be "The Art of Life." Mrs. J. M. C. Miller will sing a solo. All who are not attending these lectures are missing an opportunity that does not come often to a small place like Hood River.
Mr. Milton Wheeler informs us that it is not true that the Good Templars dispensed with Prof. Tripp because he made speeches for Bryan and free silver. His time of service with the Good Templars had expired before the campaign opened.
Wolfard & Bone are negotiating for the purchase of the stock of goods of Mr. Lauterbach at White Salmon. If the trade is consummated, L. E. Morse will take charge of the store and manage it for Wolfard & Bone.
Mrs. Dr. E. J. Thomas arrived here Tuesday night in time to attend the installation of officers of the K. of P. She is on her way to LaGrande, where Dr. Thomas will open a drug store.
The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church appointed to meet at the residence of Mrs. Crowell on Friday, will meet Saturday of this week at 2 p. m. at the parsonage.
Robt. L. Herren, a young man recently from Portland, was injured by a heavy timber rolling from a skid, at Viento on Tuesday. His leg was crushed below the knee.
The bridge across Hood river, to carry the flume of the Improvement Co., was completed yesterday. The flume will reach the bridge on the East Side in a few days.
Mrs. Mathews, living in L. Neff's house, is quite sick with inflammatory rheumatism. Her husband, who is working on the flume, was sent for yesterday.
Commissioners court is in session at The Dalles. In the absence of Judge Mays, who is in California, sick, Capt. Blowers is acting as chairman of the board.
Mr. A. P. Bateham set a good example, the other day, by cleaning up the street and trimming the trees in front of his residence on Waucoma avenue.
At next week's meeting of the Wednesday dancing club, the dancers are expected to personate characters from "Mother Goose."
Miss Eliza Stevens, who has been visiting her parents at Canby for the past month, returned to Hood River Wednesday.
F. S. Clark of Stevenson, son of our townsman, T. H. Clark, visited his relatives in Hood River Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Chas. Early returned to Viento on yesterday's local, after a couple of days' visit with relatives in Hood River.
Some of our citizens have been prospecting for gold in Indian creek, during the week, and found many colors.
Mrs. A. K. Isenberg, who suffered a light stroke of paralysis two or three months ago, is again quite feeble.
The week of prayer is being observed at the Congregational church. The attendance and interest are good.
The robins have come, lawns are being raked and cleaned, and other indications of spring are at hand.
Mr. W. J. Baker went to Portland this morning to attend the meeting of the state board of horticulture.
Health is wealth. If your trees are procured from the Columbia nursery you will have both.
Mr. H. Pugh is having a neat paling fence built around his lots on the west of his residence.
Thos. McDonald is visiting at Arlington, where he went the day before Christmas.
A. K. Isenberg lost 30 bushels of apples by the freeze in November.
Ripans Tabules cure torpid liver.
Ripans Tabules: gentle cathartic.
Ripans Tabules cure constipation.
Ripans Tabules: for sour stomach.
Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.
Ripans Tabules cure liver troubles.

Frankton Notes.

It was at first thought that fruit trees were badly damaged by the severe frosts in November, but later examinations of the orchards allay the fears of the fruit growers.
School opened Monday in the upper room of the Frankton school, after the usual holiday recess. The attendance this winter is larger than usual, there being about 35 pupils enrolled. Owing to a scarcity of funds, the school will continue but five weeks longer.
The Frankton literary held a rousing meeting last Saturday night. The literary programme was good, nearly every one present taking part. The debaters decided that it was England's duty to use her best endeavors in interfering in behalf of the suffering Armenians. The meeting was the time for the regular monthly election of officers, and when nominations were in order, the house was precipitated into a parliamentary sparring contest. Nominations were submitted, motions put and calls for recognition made, until an outsider would have thought the society was trying to rival a session of congress. The rules provided for by the constitution and by-laws, regulating the election of officers, were temporarily suspended and Luther Miller was unanimously declared president. The next question for debate is: "Resolved, That football is more brutal than prize-fighting." Thos. Calkins leads the affirmative and Walter Hull the negative.
Valley Center Happenings.
Mr. John Gregory has moved to Belmont.
Mr. Harwood will go to the hospital in a few days.
Miss Helen White was a visitor at Mr. David Sears' for a few days.
A good many acres of land have been plowed during the past few weeks.
Miss Mary Mohr and Miss Lenz have gone to The Dalles to attend school.
Albert Henigan, Ike McDonald and Charles Boardman spent the holidays at Mr. David Boardman's.
Mr. Myers of Portland purchased a tract of land of Mr. John Leuz, upon which he will make his home.
Miss Helen White of Portland has purchased 25 acres of Mr. Boswell and will make improvements on the same in the near future.
Considerable interest is being shown in the proposed road up Hood river, with branch roads to tap it from the east. This road is of vital importance to every one in the valley east of Hood river.
Mr. Steed, an old gentleman who lived on the mountain, east of Peter Mohr's place, died suddenly, of heart failure, last Monday. He was buried on Wednesday, funeral services being held at the Pine Grove school house.
The young folks of this part of the valley are getting all the gal they can out of this life; parties are the order of the day. The taffy pull at Mr. Gregory's, Christmas night, was well attended and an enjoyable time reported. A party was also given at Mr. Turner's on New Year's night.
Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors through the GLACIER for their assistance and kindness to us in our late trouble and loss of our dear boy Carlos. Mr. and Mrs. ALFRED WOOD.
Editor GLACIER: Please allow me, through the columns of your paper, to express my heart-felt thanks to the many friends and neighbors, who so kindly assisted me through the late sickness and death of my beloved child. Kind friends, let me assure you that your kindness will ever be remembered. Although, almost an entire stranger amongst you, yet your kindness and devotion were such that it will be impossible for me to ever repay you.
B. F. MILLER.
