BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Lincoln's birthday.
Fresh oysters at the bakery.
Gen. Rordan has a couple of fresh ones for sale.
Mr. A. B. Jones left Sunday night for Grand Forks, B. C.
Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
A brick house given away with every 10c tablet sold at the Racket Store.
The Misses Lillie and Cora Cottle went to The Dalles on Tuesday's local.
Mr. M. V. Harrison left Monday on the Regulator for his home in Eugene.
Tillett has Lambert cherry trees at 25 cents each. Also, Bing cherry trees at 10 cents.
Six persons have recently united with the Congregational church on confession of faith.
Cherry trees are the most profitable trees to plant in Hood River. Buy the best; Tillett has 'em.
The Travers Literary club will meet at Mrs. S. E. Bartow's next Monday evening, February 15th.
To lease, for a term of years—a farm in the Baldwin settlement, 12 miles from town. Apply to Jas. Langille.
Miss Laura Wilson went to Portland last week, where she is helping to care for an invalid cousin of her mother's, Mrs. Castle.
The three children of Mr. Fuller, living on the Harn place, who were quite sick last week with pneumonia, are reported better.
Supervisor J. P. Watson is at work on the streets. Tuesday he had a force of men at work grading in front of the Mt. Hood hotel.
Mr. Starnes has rented his place at White Salmon to Mr. Thomas, the merchant, and last Sunday left with his family for Texas.
Mr. F. Sloper expects to leave in a week or two for the mines of British Columbia. He is selling off his furniture at very low prices.
Mr. G. D. Woodworth has purchased the remaining five acres of the Frazier tract at Belmont. He expects to plant the same to strawberries next fall.
If you would do the handsome by yourself, plant Yakima, Lawyer and Black Twig apple trees from the Columbia Nursery. You will never regret it.
The case of the Oregon Lumber Co. vs. Levi and Burns Jones, argued and submitted at last term of court, was decided by Judge Bradshaw, a judgment being rendered in favor of the plaintiff.
Write to Davenport Bros., Lumber Co., for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.
Campers who intend going to Sandy Flat this coming season will find it necessary to leave their teams at Winans, as not only is the old bridge on the East Fork unsafe, but the road near there has mostly slid into the river and is not apt to be repaired.
Circuit court convened at The Dalles Monday. The grand jurors drawn were D. A. Turner, Wm. McCorkle, S. F. Bennett, A. Canfield, Henry Prigge, J. S. Hunter and I. J. Butler. D. A. Turner was appointed foreman of the grand jury and J. Doherty bailiff; J. B. Crossen and J. H. Jackson were appointed general bailiffs of the court.
James Cooper of Mt. Hood has an orchard of 1,058 young apple trees, which he bought of Tillett last spring. They made a fine growth last season, and the loss was but 13 trees, most of which were destroyed by gophers. He will set 1,000 trees this spring. Mr. Cooper has been very successful in poisoning gophers with strychnine inserted in carrots.
I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for cough that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it frequently. Any cold my children contract I give very readily to this medicine. I conscientiously recommend it for all colds in children.—Geo. E. Fink, clerk of the circuit court, Ferina, Fla. Sold by Williams & Bus.

Canby Post, G. A. R., and the W. R. C. will celebrate today Lincoln's birthday. A program will be rendered at the M. E. church at 2 o'clock. Dr. Hines has consented to deliver the address, and the Revs. Rigby, Hershner and Merrill will also assist in the services. All comrades of the Grand Army and others who ever saw Lincoln will be given a chance to speak of the great man whose memory we honor today. Business houses and private residences are expected to hang out the flag.

The "Reminiscences of the Cayuse War," by Mr. Amos Underwood, concluded in last week's GLACIER, were read with interest. The GLACIER extends an invitation to other Indian war veterans to furnish their reminiscences for publication. Also, to veterans of the late war who might like to write up some of their experiences of war times. There are many members of Canby post who can tell good war stories that would read well in print.
Rev. J. T. Merrill of the U. B. church desires to thank his friends for the generous donation made him last Monday. It is especially gratifying from the fact that it was made without solicitation on the part of any one. The announcement was responded to by persons both in and out of the church alike. Many useful gifts came from persons not identified with any church. The amount of the donation was $25.
Wolfard & Bone are branching out and preparing for the good times that every one is predicting for Hood River. This firm is now running two general merchandise stores, one in Hood River, the other at White Salmon. They are now building a large ware house adjoining their store here, and will enlarge the present store room by extending it 20 feet. Bishop & Cox and Bert Graham are doing the carpenter work.

The sick throughout the valley are all reported getting better. Among the convalescents, we learn, are Mrs. H. Pugh, Mrs. S. A. Hutton, Mrs. John Keyser, W. J. Baker and R. B. Lindsey. Mr. W. T. Hubbard, who has been sick for about six weeks, is still confined to the house with not much improvement in his case.
We will have a show of our own, next Friday evening, February 19th. Home talent in the "Good Tempers" order will render the play, "The Last Leaf," for the benefit of the Lodge. Popular prices for admission will be charged, and the armory ought to be filled. See the cast of the play in another column.

Still in the business, with the finest lot of trees in this valley. If you want the best trees, I have them. My advice to planters is, see all the trees in the valley before purchasing, and then you will buy of me. See the testimonials in my ad, ask the parties who plant my trees, and they will tell you to come and do likewise.

Mrs. R. S. Howells desires to return thanks to the many friends and neighbors who rendered assistance to her in her late illness. The many acts of kindness will never be forgotten, and she also fully appreciates the donation of provisions, etc.

A well-known lady of Hood River, not long since from the East, says, "One I ever gets tired of seeing Mrs. Jarley's wax works." Will be given at the armory hall on the evening of Washington's birthday.

We have made arrangements with Mr. Frank Davenport whereby we can take ditch stock on subscription to the GLACIER. Any one wishing to pay his subscription in work should apply to Frank Davenport.

The county commissioners, after examining the plans for a bridge across Hood river, decided to advertise for bids for a Howe truss, a bow string bridge and a steel bridge.

Dr. Martin Jones of Mountain Home, Idaho, with his wife and twin babies, is at the residence of Mr. J. N. McCoy. They will spend the balance of the winter in Hood River.

Judge L. Henry, who has been laid up for two or three weeks with the grip, is improving, and the first warm, sunshiny day will probably see him on the streets.

Dallas has received a full line of pruning tools, hoes, rakes, forks and other implements that will be needed soon by fruit growers and farmers.

School in the Barrett district was closed Wednesday, for the balance of the week, on account of the sickness of the teacher, Prof. Ellery.

The Hadwin Swain Mfg. company of San Francisco has our thanks for remembering us in their yearly distribution of their calendars.

There has been a steady downpour of rain since Wednesday evening, consequently Hood river and the winter streams are becoming.

Mrs. Freeland of Tacoma, a niece of Mr. L. Blount, arrived here Wednesday, with her three children, and will visit for a few days.

Frank Blaker has moved into his new house, just opposite H. Hibbard's, on the land recently purchased of Davidson & Bone.

Mr. W. H. Pugh of Wasco came down last Saturday and spent several days visiting his parents at this place.

Doug Langille is up at Cloud Gap in on a trapping expedition.

See D. E. Rand in "The Last Leaf," assisted by an able company.

Council Proceedings.
Council met Tuesday and adjourned to Wednesday evening. Resignation of L. E. Morse was read and accepted. C. A. Bell was elected to fill the unexpired term.
Bills were ordered paid as follows: M. H. Nickelsen, fees for 1896, $3.75; George T. Prather, fees for 1896-96, $4; city marshal's fees, for killing four dogs, $4.
Ordinance No. 16, on second reading, was amended to place license on livery stables and barns—$10 for one term; $15 for two terms; $25 for three terms or more; passed.
Ordinance No. 17, to do away with licenses; defeated.
Ordinance No. 18, to do away with the stock law, was amended on second reading to allow stock to run at large day and night, from March 1st to Nov. 30th; passed.
Ordinance No. 19, to amend ordinance licensing shows was introduced. Adjourned.

G. A. R.

Canby post, G. A. R., held an interesting and profitable meeting last Saturday. There was a good attendance and the best of feeling prevailed. An old soldier who was conscripted into the Confederate service and afterwards served in the "Lincoln army," was reported to be in need of assistance and was voted relief. Several members testified to their knowledge of his worthiness, and Comrade Isenberg grew eloquent in his tribute to the brave men of the South who periled their lives to reach the Union armies and fight for the old flag. A motion to celebrate Lincoln's birthday, February 12th, was adopted, and an invitation was extended to the W. R. C. to assist in the celebration. Committees from both orders made arrangements to hold the exercises at the M. E. church today, at 2 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Church Notices.

W. R. C.

An enthusiastic meeting was held by Canby W. R. C. on last Saturday, though some of the new officers were absent on account of sickness. The following committees were appointed for the ensuing year:
Relief Committee—Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. Carrie Bailey, Mrs. Lillie Isenberg.
Finance Committee—Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Dukes, Mrs. Wolfard.
Executive Committee—Mrs. Mary E. Reeves, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Adelia Struhsberg.
Home and Employment Committee—Mrs. Flagg, Miss Carrie Crowell, Mrs. Frazier.
Conference Committee—Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Fanny Bailey, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Mattie Markham.
Committees were also appointed to visit the schools, to impress the importance of love of country and the flag upon the pupils, and to urge the use of the flag and to honor it by an appropriate salute.

A Hold-Up.

As hold ups have become quite fashionable all over the country, Hood River, not to be behind in affairs of this kind, had had one, too. Last Saturday night, Thos. Lacey, track walker on the O. R. & N., while returning from the east end of his beat, was halted at bridge 129 and ordered to throw up his hands. The robber was concealed under the bridge and fired a shot over Lacey's head, at the same time ordering him to throw up his hands. Lacey could see the man's hand holding a gun pointed at him only about five steps away, and very promptly obeyed the command. The robber then asked him if he had any money, and he replied not a cent. He was then told to lay down his watch and chain and be quick about it. The robber, who was out of sight under the bridge, seemed to be quite nervous, and Mr. Lacey, fearing the man might shoot and seeing no chance to run, laid down his $28 watch and $9 chain. He was then told to move on, and when he started towards Hood River, the robber told him to go the other way. Lacey went on to Mosier, where he reported the robbery and started back with a hand car, accompanied by the section boss and several of his men, but could find no trace of the robber. Mr. Lacey says the robber was very careful not to let himself be seen and seemed to be trying to disguise his voice, and it is likely the hold up was the work of home talent. Doc Silliman, track walker on the west end of the section, below town, reported being fired at and ordered to hold up his hands, the same night, but he took to the woods and made his escape. Mr. Lacey had decided to resign as track walker, and intended to go out for only a few nights more. Monday he threw up his job, and out of the numerous applicants for the place not one wanted it then as bad as he did last week.
