BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

The town school will begin Sept. 20. Hot and cold baths at the barber shop. Mr. S. R. Reeves left for Baker City Tuesday. Seven dollars for lumber. See Dr. Brosius' ad. T. C. Dallas made a trip to Portland last Sunday. Horse and wagon for sale. Apply to E. E. Savage. Saturday is grinding day at the Harbison mills. Kansas whole or cracked corn at the Racket Store. Wood for sale and delivered by the Columbia Packing Co. Grant Evans' barber shop will hereafter be closed on Sundays. The Columbia Packing Co. is paying cash for calves and yearlings. Save the wrappers of Hoe Cake soap; they are worth 1c each. W. & B. Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals. Van Johnson remembered the printers with samples of his large Fall Butter pears. Willie Middleton, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Bone, returned to Portland Monday. Chas. Elrey offers some bargains in land—10 acres, $150; 20 acres, $275; 40 acres, $425. See his ad. We presume you use soap, and if so the best is cheapest. Hoe Cake is strictly pure, with no free alkali. Mrs. Woodward of Portland visited her aunt, Mrs. Henderson, for several days, returning home Monday. The Misses Bertha Rutherford and Amy Phillips of Portland are visiting Mrs. A. E. Curtis at Curly Top farm. A juvenile bicycle, Crawford make, in first class condition. At a bargain. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS. Mr. F. R. Absten of Indian Gardens ranch presented the GLACIER force with a basket of his delicious peaches. A washing powder that is yellow will make clothes the same color. Avoid this by using Soap Foam. Wolfard & Bone. Lye packed in sifting top can is pure granulated potash. All others contain a large portion of salt. Ask for Red Seal. Don't let the cat lick the dishes, but make nice soft soap with Soap Foam. Directions on the package. W. & B. Miss Lillian B. Cople and Charles W. Reed were granted certificates from Skamania county by the state board of examiners at Olympia. Polk Mays and A. M. Kelsay, with their wives, from The Dalles, were in Hood River Sunday. Mr. Mays was looking over the town and valley with a view to making his home with us. W. C. Stranahan and Clarence English have received notice that their claim for a patent on their wrench has been allowed. The wrench is very simple in its construction and ought to make the patentees rich. Dr. Sellers, from Mt. Moriah, Mo., who has been visiting L. Blount and T. J. Cunniff, went to Oregon City Monday. The Dr. likes Hood River and hopes some day in the near future to make his home with us. Write to Davenport Bros' Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere. Prospectors and miners will note the ad of Mr. C. M. Cook, the mineral assayer at Stevenson, Wash. Mr. Cook is a resident of Hood River and has established a fine reputation for reliable assay work, securing an extensive patronage in Skamania, Klickitat and Wasco counties. Mr. J. P. Hillstrom of the East Side has a bed of clay on his place that is first class for fire brick. Several years ago he placed a couple of bricks made from this clay in the back of his stove, and they remained there until recently as sound as the day they were put in. A sample of the clay can be seen at the GLACIER office. M. A. Cook writes us that he has the Klondike fever, bad, and offers his fruit ranch near town for sale in order to raise the wind to sail for Alaska. He says he will be ready to start the 1st of February. He thinks goats would be more serviceable than dogs in drawing sleds over the Chilkoot pass, and suggests that the many fraternal lodges of Hood River might form a joint "stock" company and utilize their goats by making up a goat team for Klondike. "My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or preparation equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25c and 50c sizes for sale by Williams & Brosius.

Canby post, G. A. R., held a good meeting last Saturday. The rain that fell all day did not prevent a good attendance from the country. J. W. Rigby was admitted to membership in the post. Comrade Reeves, who is not likely to meet with the post soon again, as he goes to Baker City, being present was called upon and responded in a short address. A committee was appointed to call upon Comrade B. R. Tucker and see upon what terms the heavy wagon wheels in his possession, suitable for mounting the howitzer, could be procured. After adjournment Comrade Cunniff introduced two large watermelons and gave the boys a treat that was appreciated by all. A break in the Improvement Co.'s ditch Wednesday of last week gave Joe Purser more than his share of water. It filled his well and overflowed his premises surrounding his house. Mr. Purser notified several of the officers of the company but failed to notify Mr. Bishop, the company's gauger, who, being up at the other end of the ditch, did not know of the break till Saturday. In the meantime the flume was cut and the water turned into Ash swale. The flume being cut on the upper side, several bents were washed out before repairs could be made. The patrons of the company below the break were without water for their stock until Monday. Mr. J. N. McCoy has seven acres of land on his home place three miles from town. He has 3 1/2 acres in clover. From this 3 1/2 acres he cut and stored in his barn this season 8 tons of hay from the first crop. The second crop turned off 7 tons, which he sold for $10 a ton in the field. The third crop, now coming on, will be ready to cut the latter part of this month, and if the weather is favorable he will make 5 or 6 tons more of good hay. On the balance of his seven acres he has his residence, barn and other buildings, and with an excellent garden and his own fruit, lives in comfort in one of the most delightful homes in Hood River. Mr. H. C. Hengst, one of the most prosperous farmers and fruit growers of Hood River, comes from York county, Pa., where they know how to farm. Mr. Hengst never fails to raise a good crop of wheat hay by sowing on corn ground in the fall as soon as the first rains have wet the earth sufficient. He plows his land in the spring and plants corn, leaving the ground in the rough, with no further cultivation. The corn makes a good lot of fodder, and after it is taken off the field he harrows in the wheat. Hold-ups among the paid-off harvest hands are not uncommon. A number of Hood River boys working on the Sherman county railroad were each relieved of a small amount of change recently. J. W. Wallace, L. Neff and S. W. Arnold were bunking in a cabin, which was entered during their absence by tramps and their Sunday overalls relieved of all their money. Supervisor Watson has put in a new trough in the spring run by Dr. Adams' place, and teamsters now go by way of the Adams hill to get to water their horses. These watering troughs should be more frequent. With plenty of the best of water throughout the valley, there is no reason why there should not be more conveniences for watering teams. Jack Binns came home from Sherman county, Wednesdays, where he is running a traction engine. His wife telegraphed for him to come home on account of the sickness of one of the children. The child was found to be not seriously sick, and he went back Wednesday night. Prof. P. A. Snyder recently made a requisition on the United States fish commission for 2,000 brook trout, and Monday received a letter from Commissioner Price stating that arrangements had been made to have the fish delivered at Hood River within 40 days. Bob Wright and Pete Nesson were engaged last week in Ditch creek cutting out stringers for a bridge being built by P. A. Snyder across Hood river on his place. The timbers are 12 x 14 inches and 126 feet long, the longest that ever spanned Hood river. Henry Phirman of the Columbia Packing Co., while in Hood River last week, purchased 20 head of beef cattle. The cattle were bought of John Hinrichs, Henry Prigge, John Lenz and others and were taken to The Dalles. Eugene Bush announces himself as being in the hands of his friends for the nomination for the office of marshal at the coming city election. Eugene has been a resident of Hood River for 20 years and has grown up with the country. The O. R. & N. have made a rate of one fare for the round trip to the state fair, the lowest rate ever announced for a state fair. They give the same rate from Portland and The Dalles to the Hood River fair. Mr. E. Locke is building a fruit dryer, to be finished in time for his prune crop. The dryer will have a capacity of 2,500 pounds and is patterned after ideas originated by E. Locke. Ellsworth Hanna is the proud possessor of a diminutive pony that was brought from Sherman county by Mr. O. G. Chamberlain and sold to Mr. Hanna for $10. Mr. Geo. Booth of the East Side has the finest and best flavored Early Crawford peaches we have sampled this season. They are grown without irrigation. Capt. M. A. Hackett and two daughters came up from Portland Wednesday on a visit to Mrs. Hackett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Crapper. Mr. and Mrs. Antone Wise are running a boarding house at Chenoweth, and G. W. Williams has rented their ranch for a year. J. H. Shoemaker will commence picking prunes today and start his dryer Monday. He will have about 25 tons of prunes from his own orchards. The Columbia Packing Co. pays cash for fat cattle of all kinds. They also deal in wood and can deliver it to any part of town. A special meeting of Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C., is called for tomorrow (Saturday), at 2 o'clock. Parties from Mt. Hood report the first frost of the season at that place Tuesday morning. Jas. Lyons came down from The Dalles Tuesday and spent the day in Hood River. Mr. J. W. Morton is building a fruit dryer, to hold about 2,000 pounds of prunes.

W. C. T. U. Following is the programme for a meeting to be given Sunday evening at the Congregational church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come: 1. Song by congregation from church hymnals. 2. Scripture reading, Mrs. Dukes. 3. Prayer, Mrs. Armor. 4. Male quartette, Messrs. Nickelsen, Bartmess, Haynes and Rand. 5. Reading, "The W. C. T. U.," Mrs. Bishop. 6. Recitation, "The Years to Come," Grace Howell. 7. Song. 8. Reading, "Miss Kearney in Alaska," Mrs. Hershner. 9. Reading, An Open Letter to Christians, Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen. 10. Recitation, "Go Kneel as I Have Kneel," Agnes Dukes. 11. Song. 12. A paper, "Keep thy Innocence," Mrs. E. L. Smith. 13. State song, "A Thousand Years of Sober People." There will be religious services at the White Salmon church on Sunday, September 12th, at 11 a. m., conducted by Rev. T. L. Elliot, to which the general public is cordially invited. Mrs. Montgomery, mother of M. E. Montgomery, from Rochester, New York, was visiting Mrs. J. P. Watson during the week. She was delighted with Hood River. Mrs. E. Snow met her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Snow, on the west-bound Spokane express, Thursday morning, and continued to Portland with her, where she will visit for a month or more. Frank Ellis and family left by the D. P. & N. Co.'s line Thursday morning for their home in Portland, after a month's visit among relatives in the valley. The forty-ninth annual association of Congregational churches and ministers will meet with Riverside Congregational church, Hood River, Sept. 25-30. About one hundred and fifty delegates and ministers are entitled to membership in the association, but probably not more than seventy-five will be present. Letters from John McIntyre, who went with Joseph A. Wilson and W. A. Langille to Alaska, dated August 29th and 30th, are published in Tuesday's Oregonian. He reports his party all in good health and in the van of the immense throng striving to cross the Skagway trail. McIntyre had come down to Skagway to get their horses shod, where it cost $8 a head for shoeing. He says it is a hard trail, but they are making it all right. With one or two exceptions they lead the Elder crowd. They had everything over the summit except their camp outfit and horse feed, and expected to reach Lake Bennett in eight days and Dawson in four weeks. He thinks not more than one in eighty will get over the trail this fall. J. J. Luckey returned from Chenoweth Monday. The Frankton school opened last Monday with 13 pupils in Mr. Neff's room and 32 in Miss Foss' room. The school opened at least one month too early for the upper room. The older pupils are needed at home to help gather the fruit crop. But it was necessary for the school to start when it did to get in six months before the annual meeting in March. This district never employs teachers for a term longer than that of the existing school board. The Misses Bess and Ella Isenberg left Tuesday morning on the boat for Portland. They expect to go from there to the hop fields near Salem. Ensign Walter Hayes and Captain Waud of The Dalles' Salvation army held a meeting Thursday night in the U. B. church, and tonight will hold at the Belmont M. E. church. C. M. Wolfard and family returned last Saturday from their camp at Trout Lake. J. G. Fisher of Mt. Hood, for whom a warrant was issued last week, on the charge of assault and battery with a dangerous weapon upon P. F. Fouts, came in Tuesday and reported to Constable Olinger. His trial was had Wednesday in Justice Prather's court, when he was bound over to the grand jury on the sum of $250 bonds. Failing to get bondsmen, he was taken to the county jail Wednesday evening by Constable Olinger. John Michell appeared as prosecuting attorney and Judge Frost for the defendant. A white frost at the Davenport mill yesterday morning. Dallas has lumber on the ground to build a residence at the rear of his lot. Grass is springing up and growing nicely since the rains.

Delayed Locals. The following items were written for last week's paper but got misplaced and were not found till after we went to press: C. D. Nickelsen was ordained at conference at Pendleton, passing the highest examination in his class. Master Rollin Spaulding will leave today for his home at Wasco. Mr. R. O. Evans has resigned as night watchman and made his last collection for his services on the 1st of September. Born. In Hood River valley, August 29, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Disbrow, a son. Mr. A. S. Disbrow informs us that crops were never better in his neighborhood. He has the best garden he ever had in Hood River, and last Sunday his wife presented him with a bouncing boy, the first one that has come to bless their home; three daughters having preceded the boy. Mrs. E. D. Calkins and son Thomas arrived from Klickitat Wednesday morning. Mr. H. F. Davidson left Wednesday evening for Canton, Ill., where he expects to remain all winter. Dr. Barrett's weather report for August shows the highest thermometer, on the 19th, to have been 99 degrees. This shows Hood River valley to have been cooler by at least 10 degrees than the eastern part of the country. The best and freshest vegetables and fruit always on hand at the Columbia Packing Co.'s market. Tillet & Galligan report their trees selling well, notwithstanding the excitement about the Klondike. All of which shows that some of our people think it more profitable to plant apple trees in Hood River than to go to Klondike. Dr. G. Sellers arrived here Wednesday from Harrison county, Mo., and will visit with L. Blount and mother and T. J. Cunniff and wife for several days. Church Notices. Rev. J. L. Hershner will speak on Sunday, at 11 a. m., of the Consecration meeting at the great International Endeavor convention at San Francisco. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. The revival at the Valley Christian church continues with large audiences and increasing interest. R. A. Cople will preach Friday evening and will return to Eugene on Saturday. Elder J. B. Lister will preach on Sunday, at the usual hours, and will continue each evening through the week. Several persons have turned to the Lord, and the interest of the meeting is increasing. Methodist Episcopal Church, H. K. Hines, D. D., Pastor.—Weekly services: Sunday, 10 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., preaching; 2:30 p. m., Junior League; 7 p. m., Epworth League; 7:45 p. m., preaching. Thursday, 7:30 p. m., prayer meeting. Everybody welcomed to these services. United Brethren Church Services.—Preaching each Sabbath morning and evening.
