The mails are filled every day with circulars from city merchants offering goods at prices that seem cheap. But to get these goods requires the cash, and with cash you can go to our home merchants and buy just as cheap. Our merchants are selling clothing as cheap as it can be purchased in Portland or any other town on the coast. Vehicles and implements can be bought here just as cheap. Go to any of our home merchants with the cash if you want to purchase anything needed on the farm, and if not kept in stock they can order it for you at prices as low as it can be bought anywhere.

In a letter to the congressional delegation, Hon. T. T. Geer declines the office of register of the Oregon City land office, for which position he was recently recommended. He does not want to be considered as a "miscellaneous candidate," ready to accept anything in the shape of an office, but will take his chances for the collectorship. This refusal by Mr. Geer is very embarrassing to the delegation and will upset their plans for parceling out the fat where it will do the most goodto themselves.

The latest slot device is a bicycle you can ride five miles for five cents. You o'clock. can't cheat the machine, for when the five miles are covered you must drop another nickel in the slot. If you don't, the bike bucks like a broncho and throws the rider over the fence.

John Wannamaker, the great merchant of Philadelphia and New York, attributes his success to judicious advertising. He says an ad in a country paper with 500 subscribers is worth more than 5,000 circulars sent through the mails.

Notwithstanding the fact that for centuries Germany has been compelled to pay big prices for fuel, one-quarter of the area of the empire today is forest. They know what forest reserves are worth, and they have no floods there.

The laws of Great Britain prohibit the importation from any foreign port of prison-made goods. It is feared in California this will affect the shipment of wheat in bags made by convict labor at San Quentin.

Next week Hood River will have the Congregational association in session. Some of the best citizens of the state will be in attendance. They will be given the freedom of the town and valley while here.

It turns out that the reported rich gold discoveries on Trinity river, California, are a fake, gotten up by the San Francisco papers to divert attention from Klondike, or McCoy creek.

Association Notes.

Some are propitiating the gods for good weather next week, so that those who come to the association may see Hood River at its best.

Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman, pastor of the First Congregational church, Portland, will preach the Associational sermon on Tuesday evening, at 7:30

The ladies of the church will serve and Thursday, at high noon.

The committee on entertainment has secured places for 103 delegates and ministers, if that many should come. The committee is gratified at the unusual readiness of the people to help to entertain. It is not likely that 100 will be present.

Rev. C. W. Wells, a former highly respected pastor in Hood Biver, will be present and take part in the associa-

The personnel of the association will be one-third ministers and two-thirds laymen—a lay conference, indeed. This will be the largest religious gathering ever convened in Hood River.

The public in general is cordially invited to attend all the sessions of the association.
