BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Tin cans and wax strings at Dillies'.
Hot and cold baths at the barber shop.
Seven dollars for lumber. See Dr. Brosius' ad.
Saturday is grinding day at the Harbison mills.
Judge L. Henry went to The Dalles Wednesday.
Kansas whole or cracked corn at the Racket Store.
The steamer Ione is an opposition boat on the river.
Grant Evans' barber shop will hereafter be closed on Sundays.
Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
James Langille is at work at The Dalles on the Commercial club building.
A juvenile bicycle, Crawford make in first class condition. At a bargain—WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.
H. W. Wait returned last week from Tygh Ridge, where he put in the season at work in the harvest fields.
Columbia Packing Co. pays cash for all kinds of stock and deals in wood delivered to any part of the city.
F. E. Jackson of the Racket store and wife went to Portland yesterday. Prof. H. L. Howe is in charge of the store.
The ladies of the Congregational church will serve warm dinners for the accommodation of those attending the fair.
Pine Grove school will begin Oct. 4th; Mrs. G. C. Bushnell, teacher. Outside pupils will be charged $1.50 a month.
Miss Grace Elliot went to Portland last week to prepare for her duties as teacher in the Stephens public school, East Portland.
Frank Miller and sister Mollie and Marion Miller will come up next week from Scholls, Washington county, to see our fair and visit relatives here.
The brook trout ordered from the fish commission by Prof. Snyder arrived here from Pennsylvania over two weeks ago and have been placed in the streams.
LAND—40 acres for $300 cash. The land is 3 1/2 miles from Hood River, level and has more than $300 worth of wood on it. This offer is for two weeks only. Inquire at GLACIER office.
James Eggert of the East Side returned last week from the harvest fields near Walla Walla. He reports a large amount of harvesting and threshing still to be done and men in great demand at $1.50 and $1.75 a day.
Write to Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.
Mr. John A. Wilson sent the GLACIER samples of his King of Tompkins County apples, which are large and a handsome red. This variety ought to be a good kind to plant for market; the tree is an annual bearer, hardy, and the apple is the best.
Dr. M. A. Jones went hunting last Friday with the noted bear hunters, Milton, Pete and Lee Odell. Near T. forks of Hood river a bear was started, and after an exciting chase was killed. Bruin was in good condition and weighed about 500 pounds.
Miss Gertrude Stewart of Newport, Ky., has been heard from since her return home. She was delighted with her trip to this coast, and especially with Hood River, where she stopped for a month, and while here made the ascent of Mt. Hood to the very summit.
Miller Bros. baled this season 250 tons of hay in the valley. They estimate there is more than 400 tons of baled hay in the valley, a considerable increase over former years. They are thinking of going to Sherman county to bale straw for Mr. Hardin and Wm. Jackson, who have rented a big farm near Wasco.
The county roads in the valley are in some places in bad shape; they have been cut up by heavy teaming and are badly in need of repair. Teamsters hauling wood and lumber complain that they can't draw half a load on account of the bad roads. Who is responsible for the condition of the roads, and whose duty is it to repair them?
Frank Caddy returned from Sherman county last week, where he worked throughout the harvest and threshing season. He says the crops were good but might have been better in some places with the right kind of farming. He helped to cut one field of 600 acres of a second volunteer crop—that is, three crops had been taken off the land with only one plowing.
Mattie Dukes met with a serious accident in the box factory on Thursday of last week. He was operating the machine that gouges the hand holes in the end of the crates, when a crate board broke and his right hand came in contact with the knife and was badly lacerated. His hand was dressed by Dr. Watt, who found it necessary to amputate the little finger at the second joint.

The Isenberg band will not be a feature of the fair this year, the members being too much scattered. The Messes Bess and Ella Isenberg are in Salem; William is at Pullman, Wash.; Howard is teaching school at Wapinitia; Marshal is hauling wheat for Mr. Woodworth in Sherman county, and only one or two members of the band are left at home. But, though we will be without the services of this excellent band, the programme presented by the committee on music will be good.
Mr. O. J. Clum, while hunting grouse on the hills east of town, last Friday, ran onto a big bear. As Mr. Clum was not loaded for bear, he had to let the bear go his way. Next day he went back to where he saw the bear, prepared to capture him, but he was not to be found. Bears are said to be plentiful in the valley, coming down from the mountains after acorns.
Mrs. Dr. Davis and daughter of Silvertown arrived here Monday by boat. Mrs. Davis is a sister to Mrs. Joseph McGuire. The daughter is a practicing physician, having graduated in the same class with Dr. Olive Hartley. The two lady doctors made the trip to Cloud Cap Inn and Mt. Hood Tuesday.
Mr. L. Neff returned last week from Wasco, where he had been engaged building trestles and bridges for the Columbia Southern railroad. His crew averaged one trestle a day for some time during the rush to get the road completed. The track-layers were expected to reach Wasco by Tuesday.
Posters and complimentary tickets have been sent out by H. C. Bateham, secretary of the Hood River fair, to Oregon editors, station agents, transportation managers and to the board of horticulture, so that the fair is being pretty well advertised, and many visitors from abroad may be expected.
A. C. Phelps died in The Dalles, September 25th, aged 72. He was born in New York state and came to Oregon in 1852. In 1855 he located in Hood River, on the farm now owned by J. W. Connell, and resided here till 1863, when he went to The Dalles and made that city his home till his death.
Tuesday, Dr. M. F. Shaw removed a wen, about the size of a marble, from the top of Mrs. Henry Hubbard's head. The wen had been growing for the past ten years or more, but never gave her any trouble till recently it received a bruise in some manner that caused it to become quite sore.
In a show case in Blowers' store is a "rooster" egg, brought in by Mr. A. H. Tieman of Mt. Hood. It is about the ordinary size of a hen's egg, but the surface of the shell is uneven. It was laid by a chicken that crows and which Mr. Tieman has always thought was a rooster.
A meeting of the stockholders of the Valley Improvement Co. is called for October 7th. The big ditch is in good shape and will sell 500 inches of water next season, but the laterals will need the expenditure of some money to put them in shape for supplying water.
Many of our fruit growers have done well with peaches this year, and they are likely to plant more freely of this fruit in the future. Peaches are not always a sure crop at Hood River, but when we do have them they are of the best quality.
Mrs. George P. Crowell started Monday night for St. Paul and Minneapolis, where she will make an extended visit with relatives and friends. Riverside lodge, Degree of Honor, presented her with a handsome pin at its last meeting.
Mr. C. M. Cook and family have moved into town and will occupy the Pierce Cottage for the winter. Miss Marion Cook will give lessons in music, drawing and elocution. See her card in another column.
Mr. O. P. McFall has been suffering since Saturday with a sore hand caused by a slight cut in handling the baling rope for boxes at the factory. He was threatened with blood poisoning, but is now getting better.
Dr. E. T. Carns, dentist, will be in Hood River Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 10, 11 and 12, prepared to attend to the wants of the good people of Hood River. Office at Mt. Hood hotel.
Mr. George Loy returned home from Walla Walla valley Sunday. He was engaged in harvesting and threshing in that valley, where he says there are good crops and prosperous times.
Mrs. Blythe arrived home by boat Saturday from Portland, where she visited for ten days. Miss Emmie Brettell accompanied her home and will be her guest for a month.
The O. R. & N. Co. will sell tickets at one fare rates from all points on their lines in Oregon to the state fair, which opens September 30th and will continue till October 8th.
More money will likely be spent on the music for the fair this year than ever before. A fine piano will probably be secured from The Dalles for use during the fair.
Mrs. Ed Ramsey moved to The Dalles Monday, where she will have the advantage of school for the children. Their farm, on the Washington side, is for rent.
J. C. Boggs brought to this office a muskuelon that measures 4 feet 3 inches in length. Who can beat it in this year of big muskuelons?
Judge Kent's family, living below town, on the Buskirk place, have been afflicted with malarial fever but are recovering from it.
Mrs. W. H. Bishop received a telegram Sunday informing her of the death of her father at St. Paul on that day.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boorman went to Portland Tuesday to make an extended visit with relatives.
Chester Shute arrived home from Wasco Tuesday morning. He reports times lively in that town.
A neat sign now adorns the Columbia Packing Co.'s building, the work of E. H. Pickard, artist.
The silver medals for the baby show have been ordered and are expected to be here by tomorrow.
Dr. Olive Hartley of Wasco is visiting her brother, Col. Hartley, and family.
If you wish to trade yearling cattle or pigs for baled hay, call at Paradise farm.
Mr. L. Neff and wife and Miss Smith went to Portland Wednesday.
Mrs. H. H. Bailey was quite sick last week and under the doctor's care.
Charles Miller returned from Sherman county Tuesday.

Congregational Association.

The 48th annual meeting of the association began at Riverside church last Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The Association sermon—a very able one—was preached by Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman of Portland, three thoughts being developed—(1) evangelizing, (2) education, (3) edification. Wednesday morning Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman was elected moderator; Rev. George A. Taggart of Beaverton, vice moderator; Rev. E. S. Bollinger of Astoria, clerk; Rev. U. S. Drake of Lexington, assistant clerk. Upon perfecting the roll it was found that 24 churches were represented by 18 ministers and 40 delegates. In addition there were present Rev. Cephas F. Clapp and Rev. R. A. Rowley, superintendents of the Home missionary and Sunday school societies, respectively. Rev. H. H. Wikoff of San Francisco, first deputy of the church building society for Pacific coast, Revs. Samuel Greene and A. J. Bailey of Seattle, superintendents of the Sunday school and Home missionary societies for the state of Washington, Rev. T. L. Elliot, D. D., of the First Unitarian church of Portland, and Rev. H. K. Hines, D. D., pastor of the M. E. church of Hood River, were invited to sit as corresponding members. The Narrative of the Churches, by Rev. Daniel Staver, state registrar, indicated that there had been a healthy and encouraging growth during the year, and that the number of members of Congregational churches in Oregon at this time was 4,000 in round numbers. The exercises throughout were of deep interest and the attendance not only of delegates but of citizens of this place was very creditable.

ASSOCIATION NOTES.

The committee on entertainment found homes for 100 ministers and delegates. About 75 came, although 112 names were reported. That marks the difference between expectation and reality.
Hon. H. M. Gates of Hillsboro, who is interested in establishing electric light plants, thinks it is too bad that so beautiful a town as Hood River has no electric light system.
Many were the compliments the visitors bestowed upon the ladies for the excellent dinners served at A. O. U. W. hall.
Mr. A. C. Aleidore, chief clerk of the weather bureau at Portland, paid a high compliment to Dr. Barrett, who makes and forwards reports of the weather at Hood River.
Dr. and Mrs. Barrett sent in many of the beautiful flowers which made up the unusually rich and lovely floral display in the church. Many thanks to the kind donors. The decorations will be photographed.

The Columbia Packing Co. shipped a carload of apples last night. The company will ship two carloads a week if this first shipment proves satisfactory. Cash is paid for the apples on delivery at the depot.
Mr. C. T. Bonney lost a horse one day last week. He was on his way from The Dalles, when the horse, the best one owned by Columbia Packing Co., was taken sick and died at Mosier with colic. There being no trains, Mr. Bonney walked to Hood River and carried his saddle.
Cloud Cap Inn will close next week, after a prosperous season.
T. C. Dallas is busy unpacking new goods.
A light shower yesterday morning, hardly enough to lay the dust, was our first rain for about four weeks.

Mr. J. J. Luckey received telegrams during the week from his brother-in-law, F. C. Doremus, at Tekoa, Wash., informing him of the serious illness of two of Mrs. Doremus' children with diphtheria. The eldest, Esma, was thought to be out of danger, but next to the youngest, was not expected to live Wednesday evening.
Mrs. Wm. Thompson came home from Biggs Wednesday.
Mr. Geo. H. Himes, well known all over the northwest as Himes the Printer, is a delegate to the association.
Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham of Gaars Mills, Ia., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure, and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Williams & Brosius.
Dr. Jones, dentist, is permanently located in Hood River. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Notice.

The following persons having been appointed a committee to decorate the hall at the coming fair, I sincerely request that you report at the army next Monday, at 2 o'clock p. m.: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Loeke, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crapper, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bateham, Mrs. A. B. Canfield and Mrs. A. O. Hershey. If you cannot personally attend to the duties required please send some one who can, such as bougths of fir, cedar, oak or Oregon grape, flags or bunting, will be appreciated. Plans and bunting will be returned to Chairman.
J. S. GRAY, Chairman.

Died.

In The Dalles, September 26, 1897, Mrs. Hattie Jensen, aged 25 years.
Mrs. Jensen was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Foley of Hood River. She was born in Lane county, Oregon, and came to Hood River with her parents in 1891. February 8, 1896, she was married to Ernest Jensen of The Dalles. A daughter was born to them two weeks before the death of the mother. According to her wish, the child will be cared for by its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Foley. The Dalles Chronicle says: "The funeral took place Monday from the Methodist church, Rev. J. H. Wood preaching the sermon, the interment being in Sunset cemetery. The casket was covered with flowers and great masses of them were banked around it, tokens of the esteem in which the deceased was held, and of sympathy for the bereaved husband, who so early in his married life had happiness supplanted by sorrow."

Church Notices.

TROY SHELLEY, Pastor.

Mrs. Rorer, the most famous cook in America, says that the table for eight people can be provided for ten dollars a week. She has tried it and knows. She proves her case in the Ladies' Home Journal for October. She gives twenty-one menus covering a week's meals, and gives full, practical directions by which any woman can make as attractive meals as Mrs. Rorer explains, for the small sum of ten dollars.
Potatoes and apples have rotted so in parts of Maine that not half a crop will be harvested.
