BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Seed wheat. W. & H. Only exclusive cash store. W. & H. Tin cans and wax strings at Dallas'. Hot and cold baths at the barber shop.
Rev. J. L. Hershner is expected home from Hubbard today.
A carload of steam rolled barley and shorts at Woodworth & Hanna's.
Mrs. C. M. Cook is making a week's visit with her sons at Portland.
We have plenty of feed, hay and wheat. W. & H.
Grant Evans' barber shop will hereafter be closed on Sundays.
A few boxes of apples and a few sacks of potatoes wanted by W. & H.
Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
We are going to give satisfaction in prices and goods. W. & H.
Come in and see us and get our prices; we want to do some business with you. W. & H.
A juvenile bicycle, Crawford make, in first-class condition. At a bargain. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.
We are going to handle what you have to sell, and we want to sell you what you want to buy. W. & H.
Columbia Packing Co. pays cash for all kinds of stock, dead or in wood delivered to any part of the city.
No; we can't credit you; but let us give you our cash prices, and perhaps you will have money enough with you. W. & H.
Small pill, safe pill, best pill. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation a sick headache. Williams & Brosius.
All the dry cordwood you have to sell is wanted, and we will pay cash or trade. Woodworth & Hanna.
Williams & Brosius give notice in another column that all accounts due them must be settled by November 1st.
A box of the finest and largest Ben Davis apples we ever saw was displayed in the Columbia market last Saturday, and were raised by Lee Morse.
Before buying hay, grain or straw, come and get our prices. W. & H.
Disfigurement for life by burns or scalds may be avoided by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and for all kinds of sores and skin troubles. Williams & Brosius.
W. W. Brannin, supreme deputy United Artisans, was in Hood River last week and gave a lecture in the A. O. U. W. hall. Mr. Brannin is an old soldier, having served during the war in the 6th Missouri cavalry.
Write to Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.
Mr. Perry McCrory has given up strawberry farming and thrown up his lease of five acres of land on the Riverside farm; both he and Mr. Morton agreeing to the same. Mr. McCrory and family will continue to occupy the dwelling house on the place during the winter.
WARNING.—Persons who suffer from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Williams & Brosius.
Dr. Brosius and Capt. Blowers went to Sumpter, Baker county, and spent several days last week. They report that place a lively mining camp, and both invested in real estate. J. H. Craibbaugh is there, and the company he represents owns some of the most valuable mining property in the district.
B. R. Tucker has advanced the price of common rough lumber to $7 per thousand. He has been selling a large quantity of lumber right along at $6 per thousand, while the price of flour and other commodities have advanced, and now thinks it about time that he should share in the general wave of prosperity.
Eugene Bush, candidate for city marshal, returned last Thursday from his visit to Portland. He likes Portland and says he will hereafter go there often and will make the trip every two years. Eugene soon fell into the ways of the city and came home with high standing collar and gorgeous necktie.
J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work, and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. Williams & Brosius.

Joe Backus left Hood River during the week for Tacoma, taking with him Sam Hutchinson's team, and will be engaged with the latter's father delivering wood in that city. Mr. Hutchinson deals largely in wood, controlling the whole wood business of the city. Joe is an old timer in Hood River. Coming here 20 years ago, he has seen the town grow from its infancy. He informed us he would remain in Tacoma till spring and then start for Klondike with 100 cayuses belonging to a friend in Yakima.
Mr. J. W. Armsworthy, editor of the Wasco News, stopped off the 5 o'clock train at the depot, Sunday, long enough to shake hands with several acquaintances in the platform. He reports lively times in Wasco, a regular boom. We noticed in his last week's paper the ads of several well known Hood Riverites, as follows: W. G. Clelland, carpenter, contractor and builder; T. H. Emerson, painting and paper hanging; M. M. Russell, barber; John Schaffer, veteran tailor.
Mr. W. E. Tate of Rufus, Or., was in Hood River last week, his first visit since he left here in 1894. The climate in his new home agrees with him, and he has filled out and looks to be what he really is, one of the solid farmers of Sherman county. Mr. Tate has not yet sold his wheat, not having threshed when the price was up.
Miss Lottie L. Tillotson of St. Paul, Minn., gave an entertainment in elocution and the Delsarte philosophy of expression at the U. B. church last Friday night. The audience was small, but those present were well paid for going to hear this accomplished lady. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the church.
Mr. Albert J. Mason of Portland, who is planting a large acreage to apples on his ranch on the East Side, was the first to ship a carload of drainage tile to Hood River, his car having arrived last week. Mr. Mason was also the first to bring a subsoil plow to Hood River.
D. R. Cooper of Mt. Hood had the best display of fruit at The Dalles fair. He took first premiums for best exhibit of apples grown in the district; best exhibit of apples grown in this county; best 5 varieties winter apples; best collection crab apples, and first premium on 19 varieties of apples.
A special meeting of Canby post, G. A. R., was held last Saturday, at which it was decided to buy the big trucks of B. R. Tucker and mount the big cannon. The expense of mounting and housing the big gun will be about eighteen dollars.
A reception social will be given the ministers of Belmont and Hood River charge, M. E. church, at the residence of Dr. Hines in Hood River, Friday evening, Oct. 22d. All the membership on the charge and the friends in general are invited. M. J. RIGBY, Pres. Ladies' Aid Society.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh arrived home Sunday from a three-months' visit with relatives and friends in the states of Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. They were gone three months and arrived home in good health, except that they were worn out by travel.
J. R. Rankin has sold his ferry privileges on the river to Ira Roland of Mosier. Mr. Roland has rented Mrs. Palmer's house across the Columbia, and Mrs. Palmer has moved back to her residence in Hood River.
The Columbia Packing Co. want apples for shipment and pay the highest cash price on delivery. They expect soon to get reduced railroad freight rates on potatoes, and can then afford to pay better prices.
T. C. Dallas is making great improvements in his store building, which will give him more room for his shop and to display his new goods. An addition for residence has been built on the north side.
Arthur Reed came down from Sherman county last Friday and returned Monday. Saturday he went out with his brother Charley to the oak ridge above Pine creek, where they killed a black bear.
W. H. Perry, Chas. Chandler and Henry Hibbard, who were appointed viewers by the county court for the new road from Tom Wickens' place east, completed their work Wednesday.
There is no need of little children being tormented by scald head, eczema and skin eruptions. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve gives instant relief and cures permanently. Williams & Brosius.
One day during the week Jos. Morton and Perry McCrory killed two ducks. In the crew of one they found two large acorns; the other had swallowed a carp about six inches long.
Nickelsen & Haynes have just received a large invoice of horse shoes and nails at such a low price that they can hereafter shoe horses for less money than any firm in the county.
The woman's page of the Chicago Chronicle has been particularly interesting lately. The ladies think this department of the Chronicle the best of all the big dailies.
Among the arrivals from Portland last Saturday were E. H. Pickard, Miss Shattuck, Mrs. C. R. Bone, Mrs. M. H. Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boorman.
Captain Hayes, W. C. Stranahan, Bert Stranahan and Elijah Udell arrived home Wednesday morning from their trip examining surveys.
Chas. Chandler and Chas. Reed went bear hunting up in the mountains Monday. They returned Tuesday morning minus the bear.
Mrs. C. R. Bone and Mrs. M. H. Bone of Hood River, were the guests of the Misses Elbert the first of the week.—Columbian.
Warren Miller and family, Alfred Boorman and wife, T. E. Wickens and Oat Eastman took in the fair at The Dalles last week.
Mr. Scott Boorman has about recovered from his spell of typhoid fever. His daughter, Lelah, is still very sick.
Col. Sinnott is lying dangerously ill in Portland, with very little hopes of his recovery. His family are with him.
Our town was full of people last Saturday, and all the merchants did a good cash business.
Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen went as a delegate to the U. B. conference at Dulur Wednesday.
W. P. Watson, now residing at Newport, Oregon, is visiting in Hood River.
W. T. Hibbard and family returned from Washington county Saturday.
The first killing frost in the valley was on the morning of October 15th.

Reception to Mrs. Gwilt.
Mrs. Susan Gwilt, department president of the W. R. C., and Mary Randall, secretary, will arrive from Portland on next Monday's 5 o'clock train and will be tendered a reception in the evening by the W. R. C. and G. A. R. at A. O. U. W. hall. A camp fire will be held, with lunch at 7 o'clock. All members of the Grand Army and old soldiers and their wives and daughters and Sons of Veterans are requested to be present and join in the camp fire and reception to the distinguished guests of the W. R. C. The following letter explains the occasion of the visit by the president and secretary:
"PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 13, 1897.—Mrs. Agnes Cunningham, President Canby W. R. C., No. 16, Hood River, Ore.—My Dear President: I shall visit Hood River for the purpose of inspecting Canby camps, on Monday, October 25, 1897. I am sorry that I cannot be with you on your regular meeting night, but must visit every camp and can only make one trip to do it. Please call a special meeting and notify your members of my visit and be prepared to put on the entire work. The department secretary will accompany me, and we will arrive at 5.07 p. m. Monday and must leave at 5.07 p. m. Tuesday. Trusting that all is well with your corps, I remain yours in F. C. and L., Mrs. SUSAN GWILT, Department President.
Leave Your Measure for a Suit.
The undersigned has received a new book of samples from the American Woolen Mills Co. and is now prepared to take your measure and furnish a suit of clothing, or any part of a suit, and guarantee satisfaction at the lowest cost. Prices in woolen goods have gone up, the same as in all other lines, but I can furnish the best quality of goods, in men's and boys' clothing, at a very slight advance over last year. Call on me and be convinced by inspecting samples. B. R. TUCKER, Tucker, Or.
New Firm and New Prices.
WOODWORTH & HANNA have purchased the stock of goods of A. S. Blowers & Son and will continue business at their old stand. It is a well known fact that their stock was bought for cash at the best possible prices. Their terms will be cash, and they feel justified in reducing their selling price on all stock.
Men's oil-grain shoes that sold for $2.10, now $1.50; very best kang. calf shoe, that sold for $3.75, now $3.
Ladies' Dang. kid, button or lace, late styles, reduced from $3.75 to $3.
Children's best kang. calf, $1.75, now $1.50. And all shoes and other goods as well will be reduced in like manner.
The following-named citizens of Hood River were fortunate in being drawn on the circuit court jury, to meet November 8th—fortunate because not drawn in a more busy season:
Wm Graham, Dr P G Barrett, M B Potter, H C Bateham, J P Hillstrom, E L Smith, C L Stranahan, W M Boorman, J W Hinrichs, M V Rand, F H Button, H Lage.
Floyd Hevener of Hood River, a lad of 12 years, concluded last Sunday, he would go to Sherman county to see his father. He boarded a freight train and at The Dalles was taken off by the city marshal and retained by him till his mother was heard from. Tuesday he was sent home.
It has been raining in Hood River more or less since Tuesday morning, but not enough to start the plow.
Horace Kerns of Viento died at Salem October 19, 1896. About two months ago he was taken to the asylum, being affected with tumor on the brain. His age was about 35. The remains were brought to Hood River and interred by the Odd Fellows in Idlewild cemetery, October 20th.
New Zealand will soon be a competitor against the United States in the way of apples. The fruit is said to grow in great abundance and can be shipped profitably.
A regularly organized system of relieving poverty has been in vogue in China for more than 2,000 years. It is said that an organized system of charity prevailed among the Egyptians 2,500 years before Christ.

Died.
At Dillon, Kansas, September 28, 1897, Mrs. Louisa C. Hornung, aged 54 years, 10 months and 18 days.
Deceased was the mother of C. O. Hornung, formerly of this place but now residing at Kansas City, Mo.

You can't cure consumption but you can avoid it and cure every other form of throat or lung trouble by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Williams & Brosius.
A fine stock on hand. Vive cameras are much improved—$5 size holds 18 glass plates or 50 cut films or any combination of same; $7.50 size holds double. Nothing like them for satisfaction in snap shots. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.
J. M. Thirswend of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he had a spell of indigestion and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? Williams & Brosius.
Croup Quickly Cured.
Mountain Glen, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afforded almost instant relief.—F. A. Thornton. This celebrated remedy is for sale by Williams & Brosius.
Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham of Gaurs Mills, Ia., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure, and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Williams & Brosius.
Cider Preservative. One package sufficient for one barrel. Used to arrest fermentation in cider, and thus preserve its sparkling qualities. Price, 25c per package. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.
In nine years the Indian population of Iowa county, Iowa, has increased by thirteen. Indians there now number 394.
