Regular monthly meeting of Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C., tomorrow, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Letters remaining in the Hood River post office November 1st were only two, for Wm. Howells and B. K. Riemensel.

Mr. J. W. Divilbliss, editor of the Montevideo Vidette, died October 28th. He was a son-in-law of Rev. H. Moys, late pastor of Belmont M. E. church.

Get a few plants of the Oregon Ever-bearing strawberry of H. C. Bateham and have berries for your Thanksgiving dinner. They bear from June to December.

F. H. Miller went to Scholls, Monday, for a week's visit with his parents and other relatives. Mrs. Miller went down three weeks ago and will return home with him.

From 24 plants of the Magoon strawberry, set last spring, H. C. Bateham last week harvested a crop of well-rooted plants. And it wasn't a good day for plants, either.

Dr. E. T. Carns will be in Hood River Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 8th, 9th and 10th, prepared to do dental work, with office rooms at the Mt. Hood hotel.

The public schools of Tekoa, Wash., after a vacation of five weeks on account of the prevalence of diphtheria, have reopened. Four deaths occurred from the disease in that town.

What is wheat worth today? If you read the Chicago Chronicle, which has the most complete market page of any western newspaper, you would not need to ask the question. Any newsdealer or postmaster will take your subscription.

Write to Davenport Bros.' Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.

John Koberg, who owns and farms the old Stanley place above town, this year raised 300 pounds of sweet potatoes. He planted 100 sets, and they averaged three pounds to the hill. They are much better than the sweet potatoes imported from California, and Mr. Koberg will plant more extensively of them next year.

We were reminded Monday morning that Halloween had come again. The boys had placed a big tobacco sign in the doorway of the GLACIER office, and across the street, at S. E. Bartmess' furniture and undertaking establishment, the sign "lunch room" was suspended over the door. Several of our citizens, also, were around looking for their gates.

A letter received from Hon. L. N. Blowers states that himself and family are now located in their new home at Sumpter. He has been elected secretary and manager of the Sumpter Mercantile Co., and the prospects for business are very good. A prospector had just come in with a piece of quartz about as large as a man's head, studded with gold nuggets. He was offered $200 cash for it but couldn't see it that way.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Langille we were permitted to peruse a copy of the first number of the Skagway News, printed at Skagway, Alaska, by M. L. Sherry. The paper contains six pages filled with local news and ads, and gives promise of a prosperous career. Mr. Sherry was in Hood River four years ago and at that time thought seriously of buying real estate and engaging in the fruit business.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Williams and Brosius.

A serious accident happened last Sunday, while Chester Shute and sister Carrie and Edgar Stevens and sister Eliza were driving to the forks of Hood River. In passing near Davis Divers' place a single-tree became loose and fell down on the horses' heads. The horses took fright and before the team could be stopped the tongue of the back struck a rise in the ground and the hack was overturned. Miss Carrie Shute sustained a painful sprain of the ankle, but no one else was hurt. The injured girl was taken to W. E. Neff's house till another hack could be procured to bring them back to town. Miss Carrie's injuries were very painful and she will be laid up for some time.

Indirect news brought from Skagway is to the effect that Langille and Wilson have gone into winter quarters on one of the lakes on the Yukon, but at just what point cannot be learned, though it is probably Lake LeBarge. They decided not to go on down to Dawson City, on account of the reported shortage in provisions at that place. They will remain at the lake during the winter and prospect in that section.

Among the welcome arrivals on the evening train Tuesday were Messrs. A. S. Blowers and L. N. Blowers, former merchants of Hood River and now principal stockholders in the new Sumpter Mercantile and Warehouse Co. Their coming means a large additional investment of capital here which will be of great benefit to this town and the surrounding community as well.—Sumpter News.

The Skamania Pioneer of last week says: "The Morse brothers, one a merchant of White Salmon and the other a resident of Hood River, were in town Tuesday, looking over the situation with an idea of going into business in Stevenson. They are practical business men, such as we need here, and we hope they will conclude to locate among us."

Wednesday afternoon, while a young lady from the country was riding horseback through the streets, Mr. S. E. Bartmess noticed that the horse was walking lame. Upon examination a piece of rock, the size of a man's fist, was found imbedded in the center of the horse's shoe, and so tight that the rock had to be broken to get it out.

The Nelson Creek scribe in Skamania Pioneer says: "Hood River is becoming a popular resort to Nelson Creek people. With Mt. Hood and Adams at either end of the course and Hood River with its dashing belles intermediate, what wonder that such a promenade should leave the Nelson Creek swains?"

A lady lost a valuable pocket-knife one day last week. After a thorough search, without finding it, she came to town on Saturday to advertise the lost knife in the GLACIER. After handing in her ad she returned home and was pleased to learn that the knife had been found. It pays to advertise.

A force of men with teams have been engaged during the week graving the road from Joe Purser's place west beyond Belmont church. Citizens in the neighborhood volunteered for the work, and under the direction of Supervisor Purser, did a good job.

Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh is back again at his post as editor of The Dalles Chronicle, after a month spent at his mines in Baker county. He is more than ever convinced that a little more development of the mines his company is interested in will make him rich.

The amount of ignorance in this world is astonishing. During the past two or three days the editor has interviewed at least twenty men, hoping to get an item, and nearly every last one acknowledged he "didn't know anything."

Mr. Henry Prigge received a letter from his daughter Frieda, at Napa, containing the welcome information that she had undergone a successful surgical operation for catarrh and is now in a fair way to complete recovery.

Riverside lodge, A. O. U. W., had a good time at their anniversary supper Wednesday evening. Newton Clark intended to be present, but not knowing of the change in the time-table of the trains, got left.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins, who had an engagement to preach during this week, left his work and came home Tuesday to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. D. S. Crapper, in accordance with the request of deceased.

Mrs. George Burke, sister to T. C. Dallas, and two little children, arrived here from Portland, Wednesday, and will make their home for the present with Mr. Dallas.

Miss Emmie Brettell, who has been the guest of Mrs. Blythe for the past six weeks, returned to her home in Portland, Wednesday, by boat.

Matt Russell, tonorial artist for the booming town of Wasco, spent Sunday last with his relatives and friends in Hood River.

Mrs. H. C. Coe came up from Portland, Wednesday, to attend the Workman's supper and will remain till Saturday.

Edward Hess, an old gentleman who has been residing at Mt. Hood, died early Wednesday morning of paralysis.

The quarterly teachers' examination will be held in The Dalles, commencing Wednesday, November 10th.

The O. R. & N. Co. will place a line of boats on the Columbia, between Portland and The Dalles.

Mrs. A. E. Curtis was called to Portland Wednesday and has deserted Curly Top farm for the winter.

Capt. A. S. Blowers arrived home from Eastern Oregon yesterday.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins will preach at Wasco on Sunday, Nov. 7th.

John Schaffer, the veteran tailor, 183 arrived at Goldendale.

E. V. Husbands was down from Mosier during the week.

Wm. Tillett went to Sherman county yesterday.

H. A. York was in The Dalles last Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Jones is sick with rheumatism.

Land Transfers.

N. L. Blowers to G. D. Woodworth, lot 5, sec. A, South Waconia; $700.

O. B. Hartley to R. J. Tucker, 15 acres in section 27, township 2 north, range 10 east; $300.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. Instant relief and a certain cure are afforded by One Minute Cough Cure. Williams & Brosius.

Circuit court will meet next Monday.

First Thanksgiving Dinner.

The first Thanksgiving dinner was celebrated in this country two hundred and seventy-six years ago, at Plymouth, Massachusetts. The whole American army was present—it numbered twenty men. Miles Standish, the backward lover of Priscilla, sat at the feast, while Priscilla served at the tables. The story will appear in the November issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. Here by the tables set in the woods, and enjoyed the roast turkey, beehnuts, clam chowder, fish, salad, cakes, fruit and other delicacies provided. It was at this historic dinner that the first oysters were served. The illustrations of the article show portraits of the Pilgrim fathers.

Leave Your Measure for a Suit.

The undersigned has received a new book of samples from the American Woolen Mills Co. and is now prepared to take your measure and furnish a suit of clothing, or any part of a suit, and guarantee satisfaction at the lowest cost. Prices in woolen goods have gone up, the same as in all other lines, but I can furnish the best quality of goods, in men's and boys' clothing, at a very slight advance over last year. Call on me and be convinced by inspecting samples. B. R. TUCKER, Tucker, Or.

Born.

In Hood River valley, October 30, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wickham, a son.

In Hood River valley, November 1, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance Smith, a daughter.

A juvenile bicycle, Crawford make, in first-class condition. At a bargain. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.

You can't cure consumption but you can avoid it and cure every other form of throat or lung trouble by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Williams & Brosius.

A fine stock on hand. Vive cameras are much improved—35 size holds 18 glass plates or 50 cut films or any combination of same; $7.50 size holds double. Nothing like for satisfaction in snap shots. WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.

J. M. Thirswend of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? WILLIAMS & BROSIUS.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work, and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. Williams & Brosius.

There is no need of little children being tormented by scald head, eczema and skin eruptions. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve gives instant relief and cures permanently. Williams & Brosius.

Disfigurement for life by burns or scalds may be avoided by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and for all kinds of sores and skin troubles. Williams & Brosius.

WARNING.—Persons who suffer from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Williams & Brosius.

How to Cure Bilious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pains in my stomach caused by biliousness and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people.—Mrs. F. Butler, Fairhaven Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by Williams and Brosius.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough and I was expecting all the time. The remedy cured me, and I want all of my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by Williams and Brosius.

Died.
In Hood River valley, Sunday, Oct. 31, 1897, at 10:30 p. m., Elizabeth J. Cottrell, wife of D. S. Crapper, aged 64 years, 9 months and 11 days.

"He giveth his beloved sleep,"
And Sabbath evening this rest was given Mrs. Elizabeth J. Cottrell Crapper, beloved wife of D. S. Crapper and mother of H. L. Crapper, Mrs. G. A. McCurdy, Mrs. M. A. Hackett and W. S. Crapper. Mrs. Crapper was born in Green county, Ohio, A. D. 1833, where she lived with her parents until she reached the age of 9 years, when they all removed to Michigan. At the age of 18 she was united in marriage to D. S. Crapper in Berrian county, Michigan, where they made their home until 1853, when they changed their place of residence to Greely, Iowa. Here Mrs. Crapper united with the Christian church, Iowa, at which place they resided until 1877, when they came overland to Portland, Oregon, and after residing there five years came to Hood River, where there are many who will never forget the kindly face and gentle touch of one who was ever ready to help in time of trouble and affliction. Her life has been one of toil and care for the welfare of her dear ones, who have lost a faithful wife and a loving mother. As a friend and neighbor she will be greatly missed, for her's was a life of generosity and kindness.

But O, beyond this shadow land,
Where all is bright and fair,
I know full well those dear old hands
Will palms of victory bear.
Where crystal streams through endless time
Flow over golden sands,
And where the old grow young again,
We'll clasp our mother's hands.
