BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Tin cans and wax strings at Dallas'. Thanksgiving day, November 25th. Hot and cold baths at the barber shop. Dr. Carns was in town during the week. Mr. W. G. Clelland is down from Wasco. A full line of stoves at Woodworth & Hanna's. J. W. Wallace came down from Wasco Monday. New fall and winter goods at lowest prices at Mrs. Howells. Grant Evans' barber shop will hereafter be closed on Sundays. Stoves cheaper than Portland prices at Woodworth & Hanna's. Edward Jarrett went to Portland Saturday for a two weeks visit. Mrs. A. P. Bateham will commence a series of dances Thanksgiving week. Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals. Genuine Orleans molasses for making ginger bread at Woodworth & Hanna's. If you want to mend your own shoes get a family cobbler set at Woodworth & Hanna's. Columbia Packing Co. pays cash for all kinds of stock and deals in wood delivered to any part of the city. Before buying your winter's supply, get our prices on flour and feed. We also have nice, bright wheat straw to sell by the ton or bale. WOODWORTH & HANNA. Miss Grace Graham sprained her wrist, a few days since, in getting out of a buggy. The sprain, though painful, did not interfere with her duties in the school room. Mr. John Koberg brought to the GLACIER office, last Saturday, five potatoes that weighed 18 pounds. The potatoes were planted on the 15th of June, after the high water. F. H. Watts, general agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., Dufur, Or., will make periodical visits to Hood River. See his work in the cemeteries and then see him for terms. Write to Davenport Bros.' Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere. The A. O. U. W. lodge has taken a new lease on the old school building, this time for three years, and will build an addition for kitchen and property rooms. They expect to have entertainments frequently and make things lively during the coming winter. Last Friday evening the ladies of the Eastern Star and invited friends gave a reception to Mrs. F. C. Brosius on her return from the East, and at the same time gave a farewell to Mrs. F. Chandler, who expects soon to start for Montana. The entertainment was given at the residence of Mrs. Brosius. Capt. Coe's article in this issue, relating the situation at Hood River during the perilous times of the Cascade disaster, is a valuable contribution to the history of the northwest. Forty-two years have passed and gone since the scenes he writes of were enacted, but it makes a good local item, all the same. Miss May Hallett, a pupil in Miss Graham's department of the public schools, was taken sick, Monday forenoon, and fell in a faint. The affair caused considerable commotion in the school, and for awhile the girl was thought to be dead. Dr. Watt was called and she was soon restored to consciousness and taken home. The splendid Family Tourist Sleepers of the Great Northern are now running daily between Portland and Spokane, on the Spokane Flyer via O. R. & N. These cars differ from the ordinary tourist sleepers, being built on the same plan as regular sleepers but upholstered in leather instead of plush. This new line of cars connects at Spokane with similar cars running to and from St. Paul without change. The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians readily responded to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Williams and Brosius.
