BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Thanksgiving day was a lovely day at Hood River.
Squire Thomas and C. S. Wheeler went to The Dalles Tuesday.
Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
We learn that W. H. Perry has bought the Ketchum place at Belmont.
Mr. John Koberg was in town Wednesday, peddling home-grown sweet potatoes.
There will be nice and nicely dressed dolls sold at the bazaar at astonishingly low prices.
Capt. Henry Coe has accepted a position on the steamer Dalles City as mate and pilot.
Mr. R. Kirbyson returned last Saturday from Grant and will remain at home for the winter.
L. M. Miller went to Scholls, Washington county, Tuesday, where he expects to spend the winter.
Columbia Packing Co. pays cash for all kinds of stock and deals in wool delivered to any part of the city.
The high winds of last week toppled over a big part of the irrigating flume belonging to Warren and Kirbyson.
Nathan Hackett and Joel F. Howe made final proof on their homesteads at The Dalles last office Wednesday.
Mr. Samuel Hutchison and family left Tuesday morning for Tacoma, where they will remain for the winter.
Archie Pierce cut his foot with an axe, while at work at the planer last week, and will be laid up for three or four weeks.
A letter received from Mr. Husbands states that himself and family are well pleased with their new home at Santa Cruz, Cal.
For sale, cheap, a cook stove, heating stove, 2 parlor chairs, 4 dining room chairs, rocker, bedstead and springs and kitchen furniture. Apply at this office.
F. H. Watts, general agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., Dufur, Or., will make periodic visits to Hood River. See his work in the cemeteries and then see him for terms.
Geo. T. Prather is enlarging his store building on the corner of Second and Oak streets, which will give M. H. Nickelson more room in which to display his big stock of holiday goods.
Farmers throughout the valley are busily engaged cutting cordwood. The good prices received for wood this fall made the cordwood crop the best we had to market during the "prosperous" year of 1907.
The directors of the Frankton school have decided to give each department in the school a seven-month term.
Prof. Neff's room will run until some time in March, and Miss Foss' school will have another month after this week.
Marvin Rand, who is a "hot tames" merchant in The Dalles, was held up one night last week by a man who demanded his cash. Instead of giving up his wealth, Marvin knocked the man down and proceeded with his cry "Hot tames!"
Write to Davenport Bros.' Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.
Wm. Tillett returned last week from a successful business trip to Sherman county. He found a big demand for Hood River fruit trees and Hood River apples. Everybody in that county now carries a bank-check book. A Hood River merchant was at De Moss Springs inquiring the price of business lots, which caused a boom at that place.
The following is a few of the many articles which can be had at the bazaar: Comforts, quilts, cushions, rugs, foot-stools, hem-stitched handkerchiefs, gentlemen's hand-worked ties, dollies, throws, scarfs, ice wool shawls, children's hoods, sacks, etc. Articles in the fancy work line too numerous to mention, among which can be found gifts that will please the most fastidious.
Frank Caddy and J. W. Forbes returned Sunday from a trip to Sherman county, where they took a band of Hood River horses to be wintered. After looking over the country for the best place to winter horses they decided there was none better than C. H. Williams ranch at Moro, where they found the best of pasture and running water. They will start again with another band today.
The splendid Family Tourist Sleepers of the Great Northern are now running daily between Portland and Spokane, on the Spokane Flyer via O. R. & N. These cars differ from the ordinary tourist sleepers, being built on the same plan as regular sleepers but upholstered in leather instead of plush. This new line of cars connects at Spokane with similar cars running to and from St. Paul without change.

The industrial wave struck Uncle Oliver Bartmess last week and he went to work and scraped and cleaned Oak street of leaves and mud between Third and Fourth, doing a thorough job. Supervisor Watson employed Mr. O. G. Chamberlain with his team and hauled the piles of muck away on Wednesday. Col. Hartley got a job to work out his road tax, and while he was engaged helping to haul away the muck he made the passers-by believe he was working through purely patriotic motives and love for the dear people, and while some volunteered to relieve him at the shoveling for a spell, others of the unsuspecting were worked for the cigars. Uncle Oliver Bartmess is the only one to whom credit is due for our nicely cleaned street.
A rate war is on between the different boat lines on the Middle Columbia. The steamer Ione has entered into competition with the Regulator company and has made a big cut in freight rates. The Regulator company has chartered the steamer Maria and is running it the same day with the Ione, and the Maria is carrying passengers from The Dalles to Portland for 75 cents.
A missionary concert and Thanksgiving services will be held by the East Hood River church, in the Odell school house, at 11 o'clock, Sunday, November 28th. The exercises will consist of an address by the pastor, with recitations and songs by the young people, with organ accompaniment. All not meeting elsewhere are cordially invited to come and bring their missionary offerings.
At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Valley Improvement Co., held last Monday, the following named gentlemen were elected directors: F. Davenport, M. M. Davenport, W. H. Bishop, C. A. Bell, C. E. Copple, G. P. Crowell and H. H. Bailey.
A good force of volunteer workmen were employed during the first part of the week erecting a neat kitchen as an addition to A. O. U. W. hall. This addition will prove a great convenience to the many societies that make this building their headquarters.
Dr. L. G. Crapper, wife, daughter and son-in-law, arrived here last Saturday from Oklahoma. Dr. Crapper is a brother to D. S. Crapper, and the two brothers had not met for 28 years. The doctor is inclined to locate here and practice medicine.
An entertainment, with charcoal drawings by Mr. Bushnell, will be held at the Pine Grove school house, Dec. 3d. Admission, 15c; part of proceeds to go toward purchasing song books for the Sunday school.
The different churches of Hood River united in Thanksgiving services at the M. E. church, where a large congregation listened to a very able and instructive discourse by Rev. J. L. Hershner.
A two-year-old steer belonging to George Yordan was found dead in his barn yesterday. It is supposed that the steer ate too many acorns for his Thanksgiving dinner.
Those wishing to contribute to the bazaar to be held by the ladies of the U. B. church are requested to hand in their contributions by the last of next week.
Clarence Morgan dropped in on his Hood River friends last Thursday. He is now railroading for the O. R. & N. Co., with headquarters at The Dalles.
To rent, 2 houses; for sale, 2 desirable places; all near town; easy terms. Also, disk harrow and subsoil plow. An organ on installments. See T. R. Coon.
Harry Hansberry is erecting a neat little cottage on his 20 acres five miles southwest of town. Wonder if he is going to beach?
Jim Hanna got lost on his way to the Pentecost-Smith wedding Tuesday evening. He thinks he circled the cycle track three times.
Interest in the revival meetings at the M. E. church keeps up. Rev. Frank Spaulding is assisting Dr. Hines and Rev. Archer.
Mr. J. N. McCoy, who has been suffering from neuralgia of the stomach and is under the doctor's care, is improving.
Mr. A. O. Hershey is grubbing five acres of land for Frank Davenport. He has completed the grubbing of about two acres.
Mrs. L. Henry and Mrs. J. B. Hunt spent Thursday and Friday of last week with Mrs. S. W. Curran of Viento.
The Odell boys killed another bear last Saturday. In the scuffle with their best bear dog nearly lost his life.
Jack Nealeigh drove a load of stock cattle to The Dalles, Tuesday, for the Columbia Packing Co.
Prof. H. L. Howe's school at Barrett has 57 pupils enrolled and an average attendance of 48.
It is rumored that a tin wedding will be celebrated in Hood River the coming week.
The Christian Adventists have commenced the erection of their church near Tucker.
Amos Underwood is recovering from the rheumatism and was in town Wednesday.
Dave Gibbons' wood is being flumed to the Planer by the Columbia Packing Co.
H. C. Bateham, who is a juror in the circuit court, spent Thanksgiving at home.
Hon. T. R. Coon and family have moved into J. C. Wheeler's cottage.
Col. Hartley took a band of horses to Sherman county last week.
Mr. Sam Smith made a business trip to The Dalles Monday.
Dale and Lela Harrison came up from Portland last night.
Circuit court will be in session another week.
Mr. L. Neff spent Thanksgiving at home.
Memorial Services.
A suitable anniversary of that martyr missionary and statesman, Marcus Whitman, who was massacred fifty years ago near Walla Walla, will be conducted at the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Miss Marion Cook will read the selection entitled "Whitman's Ride," and Rev. J. L. Hershner will deliver an appropriate address. Anniversary exercises will be held in Congregational churches in the United States on the same day. On Monday a statue in Whitman's honor will be unveiled at Boston, and on Tuesday a monument at the site of his grave near Walla Walla.

Can buy goods of us just as cheap as a man. We have but

One Price to All,

and all goods marked in plain figures. Our goods are just what we represent them to be. If anything you buy of us is not satisfactory from any cause, return to us and we will make it all right. We do not sell you beet sugar or China sugar when you call for dry granulated, expecting to get American cane sugar. We sell goods to our friends and neighbors; we have very little transient trade. We could do no business if you bought of us once and quit. Therefore, it is to our interest to have you satisfied, and to your interest to trade at home, where you can return unsatisfactory goods, and where any mistake will be corrected without trouble. We also wish to impress this fact on your minds, that we are

LEADERS IN LOW PRICES!

That We Are the People that Brought Prices Down in Hood River. We have bargains for you all the time; in proof of this we quote you today:

A Close Call for Geo. Alleck.
A young man named Heyting, son of Rudolph Heyting of Gilmer, Wash., arrived at Hood River on Monday evening's train on his way home from Portland. He went from the station to the White Salmon ferry landing, where he left his valise and went out on the point of rocks to halloo for the ferryman. It was then getting dark. Returning to the boat landing, after an absence of only a few minutes, he found his valise and overcoat and a new pair of gum boots missing. His valise contained clothing and other things valued at about $30. Tuesday morning, as soon as it was daylight, Heyting went back to the river and made another search for his lost property. He went to the Indian stacks out on the point, where he found Geo. Alleck, who denied all knowledge of the valise. Heyting came up to town and reported to Constable Olinger. Mr. Olinger drove over to the landing soon after and met Geo. Alleck and Indian Tom coming towards town. Alleck was carrying a valise and overcoat and gumboots, which he said he had found and was on his way to town to claim the reward of $5 Heyting had offered for the recovery of his property. Mr. Olinger placed both men under arrest and brought them to town. Warrants were served charging them with theft of the articles found in their possession, but at their examination before Justice Prather no positive evidence that they were guilty was shown and both were discharged. Judge Kent defended Geo. Alleck in the justice's court.
