The following subjects have been chosen for the monthly meetings of this club:

February—Shakspeare, March—Prescott's "Conquest of Mexico,"-1. Religion of the Aztecs. 2

Art and pictoral writing. 3. Rise and fall of the nation. 4. Description and natural resources of the country.

April—An Evening in Concord.—1. Historic Concord. 2. Sketches of authors and poets who have lived in Concord.

May - Sketches of distinguished Americans of the present era. June-Evangeline.

The object of the club is literary work, and the committee desire that this object be made prominent, and that all social functions be, so far as possible, dispensed with. To this end we urge that there be no lunches provided at the monthly meetings. We also request that no one outside of the club be invited to these meetings, but would cordially invite all interested in our work, and who desire to devote one E. E. Savage, G. R. Castner, W. J.
