F. H. Watts, general agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., Dufur, Or., will make periodical visits to Hood River. See his work in the cemeteries and then see him for terms.

E. S. Olinger, Capt. A. S. Blowers, Capt. C. J. Hayes, G. J. Gessling, M.P. Isenberg and W. M. Yates went from Hood River to attend the republican league convention in Portland.

Hood River citizens have been drawn for jury duty at the February term of the circuit court as follows: • Wm. Haynes, O. L. Stranahan, H. H. Touilinson, G. M. Wishart, D. G. Hill. Will the party who got my ladder and also a level from the new A. O. U. W. kitchen, sometime ago, please bring them to me and oblige. Very truly yours, T. C. Dallas.

Mr. S. J. LaFrance had a handsome new counter placed in his store during the week, and is renovating and painting the inside of his store. Mr.' E. H. Pickard is doing the painting.

Mr. D. R. Cooper has purchased 1,000 apple trees from Tillett & Galligan, for setting in the spring. Mr. Cooper has had such good luck with Tillett's trees that he never looks any further Mrs. W. T. Ruffeno, mother of than the Hood River nursery when he wants trees.

Mr. M. P. Isenberg, after being a slave to tobacco for 42 years, has quit chewing. He carries his plug in his pocket but has not tasted it for nearly three months. The man who has the will power to quit chewing tobacco after using it for 42 years will do to go to Klondike.

Joseph A. Knox is getting out timbers for a barn 50 feet square, with 12 foot walls. As level land seems to be at a premium in the vicinity of Duck valley, he says he will slope the roof all one way, at one-half pitch, for the pur-pose of building a school house there-on, that being about the requisite slope.

Since the Item appeared in the GLACIER, two weeks ago, about Wm. Titlett's discovery of a rich quartz ledge, he has been besieged by numerous parties wanting to know the location of the rich find. Mr. Tillett says he may look like a chump, but he isn't going to give away the location of that mine look like a chump, but he isn't going to give away the location of that mine ed by Woodworth and Hanna. The school board beld a meeting Monday afternoon, when it was decided to open school February 14th and employ teachers for eight months school, three of which will be taught the coming spring. Mr. Allard, now teaching at Boyd, was employed as principal, and Miss Graham and Miss Stevens will be retained in the intermediate and primary departments. The s daries of the teachers will be: Princi-pal, $60 per month; intermediate, $45; primary, $35. 1

The play by the I. O. G. T. dramatic troupe Wednesday evening drew the biggest crowd seen in Hood R. ver since the fair. The players all did remarkably well for amateurs. Chester Shute acted well the part of a "villain" and again as the mischievous "nigger." In fact, all deserve especial mention. The troupe will appear at White Salmon next Tuesday evening, February 11th, and we can assure the White Salmon people that they are all right.

Mr. D. R. Cooper was down from Mt. Hood Saturday. Mr. Cooper has been offered $1.25 a box for his apples by a Portland house. He has a fine lot of apples and is in no hurry to sell. The codlin moth has never appeared in Mr. Cooper's orchards, and he says it never will because he is too near the snow line on Mt. Hood, where the nights in summer are always cool. He offers $50 to any one finding a wormy apple grown in his orchards.

Comrade E. D. Calkins will be here on Lincoln day and wants to take part in the exercise by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. by giving some war reminiscences. He will talk on the battles of Gainsville, Second Bull Run, South Mountain, Antietam, and the defeat of Stewart's cavalry by General Pleas-anton with detachments of the 3d Wisconsin and 2d Massachusetts.

A remonstrance against part of the new road recently granted to J. A. Knox and others has been signed by the citizens of Mt. Hood. Their objection is to the southern end of the road, beyond Duke's valley. The road has been granted. The viewers met Wednesday and will make their report to the county court at its next meeting.

The lecture by B. F. Shoemaker on The lecture by B. F. Shoemaker on polygamy as faught by the Latter Day Saints, at Belmont church, Monday evening, drew a full house. The lecturer showed that he had given the subject careful study. Mr. G. H. Carver was present and replied in a 20 minutes speech.

Cattlemen's Convention.

At Pendleton, Ore., February 15-16-17, a castlemen's convention, embracing the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will be held, and it is intended to make the meeting a grand success, a call being made to every cat-tle raiser in the North-west. Reduced rates have been named by the O. R. & N. from all points in the three states, and the Great Northern Ry, and the Oregon Short Line will also make similar reduction from points on their line connection with the O. R. & N. Parties interested in cattle raising should endeavor to be in attendance at this meeting. Communicate with your nearest ticket agent regarding rates and train service.

Uncle Oliver Bartmess is generally a successful fisherman and spends much of his time along the banks of Hood river. When he has good success he comes home carrying his string through the principal streets, with his long pole over his shoulder at an angle of about 45 degrees. But when he has common fisherman's luck he comes home by the back streets, with his fish pole as much out of sight as possible, and slips in the back way. Soon he emerges with his wheel and takes a spin up and down the street, while no one suspicions he has just been fishing. Who enjoys life better than Uncle Oliver?

The Lambert Cherry.

Levy & Spiegl, the well known fruit commission firm of Portland, write to a citizen of Hood River concerning the Lambert cherry, as follows:

The Lambert cherry is a first class shipper. We know that because we have shipped them to New York. It is as large and often larger than the Royal Ann, and being dark colored, does not show bruise from packing like the light colored Royal Ann. It yields as well as the Royal Ann, as far as we have observed. It is a better market cherry than the Black Republican because it is much larger. We have grown them on our place as large as 25 cent pleces, and eight to nine is the average across the box. They often look more like plums than cherries. They are elegant in flavor and appear-
