I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh. Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by Williams & Brosius

Last Saturday, H. C. Bateham brought to town a load of ornamentals, roses, etc., and made his deliveries in town. Among the lot was a bunch of trees and shrubs which he placed free gratis on the grounds in front of the Mt. Hood hotel. Mr. Bell was so pleased with the idea that he at once agreed to duplicate the amount at his own expense.

Hood River was visited on March 17th with the heaviest wind storm that has prevailed in this section for 18 years. Fences were blown down, trees uprooted and many sections of irrigating flume overturned in different parts of the valley. The most serious damage we learned of was the blowing down of the tall smoke-stack at the box factory.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by Williams & Brosius.
