Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo.S. Anderson of Rossville, York county, Pa., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheuma-tism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Palm Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. Both men were indorsed by the union convention, and if elected we believe the people will be well served.
