BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Tennis shoes at the Racket Store. Seed corn at Dallas & Spangler's. Ladies' shirt waists at the Racket Store. A full line of hats and caps at the Racket Store. A complete line of artist material at York's drug store. Wakelee's squirrel poison, 25c a can, at Williams & Brosius'. Bradley, photographer; gallery open Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Mr. George McIntosh finished sewing ten acres of clover last Monday. Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals. Haying commenced on J. W. Morton's ranch last Friday. The crop is fair. A ladies' cloak was found by L. D. Blount and left at this office for the owner. Bradley photographed views last Monday at the places of T. J. Cuning and J. I. Miller. The ladies of the emergency corps furnished some excellent ice cream on Tuesday afternoon. Little Ruby Barnhart was taken down with measles Monday. Joseph Morris has recovered. J. I. Miller spent last week in Sherman county, where he was called by the illness of his mother. Bromide of Quinine Compound, cures colds while you sleep. 10 and 25 cents at Williams & Brosius, pharmacists. The York Drug Store has just received a full line of artist material—paints, oils, varnishes, academy boards, brushes and canvases. Mr. J. T. Neff of the board of examiners for teachers' certificates, went to The Dalles Tuesday, where the examination is now being held. Mr. J. W. Morton, republican nominee for joint representative, is now busily engaged making hay. After his hay harvest he will make a canvass of this and Sherman counties. F. H. Watts, general agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., Dufur, Or., will make periodical visits to Hood River. See his work in the cemeteries and then see him for terms. A big excursion of two full trains passed up to The Dalles last Sunday from Portland. Parties from Hood River who were in The Dalles on that day say the excursionists painted the town a beautiful crimson. A force of men is at work for the East Fork Irrigating Co. grubbing out big fir trees on the line of the ditch near Sam Hess' place. Seaman Cox is in charge, running his grubbing machine and doing good work. Miss Carrie Poor, who has been visiting at Paradise farm, returned to Portland Saturday. Little Lenore Adams accompanied her and will return in about a month, when Miss Poor will come up to spend the summer at Hood River. New Millinery.—We have added to our dry goods department a full line of ladies' trimmed hats, sallows, walking hats and sun shades. We have secured the services of Miss Alice Graham as trimmer, which will warrant our work with neatness and dispatch. R. RAND & SON. Comrade E. D. Calkins is canvassing for the sale of a work that should be popular these times. It is entitled "Cuba's Great Struggle for Freedom," written by Senor Gonzalo de Quesada and Henry Davenport Northrop, the well-known author. The book also contains a full account of the destruction of the Maine and the report of the naval board of inquiry, the hurried preparations for war, etc., and is profusely illustrated. Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson of Rossville, York county, Pa., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Palm Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

The patriotic ladies of Hood River organized an emergency corps, last Saturday, whose duties will be to lend aid and comfort to the soldiers in the field by sending the hospital camps supplies in the shape of luxuries that will not be furnished by the government. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Mattie Oiler, president; Mrs. M. Sue Adams, vice president; Mrs. M. F. Shaw, treasurer. Executive board, Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Miss Alice Cleaver, Mrs. Mattie Wilnans, Miss Eliza Stevens, Mrs. E. B. Clark, Mrs. F. C. Brosius, Mrs. J. L. Hershner, Miss Cora Mays, Miss Grace Graham, Mrs. C. T. Bonney, Mrs. C. R. Bone and Mrs. W. B. Shute. Dr. F. C. Brosius came up from Camp McKinley Monday evening to visit his family and returned Tuesday morning. The doctor has received an appointment as steward of the hospital corps, and knowing that there were a great many applicants among the physicians of the state who had been connected with the militia for the few appointments at the governor's disposal, is well satisfied with his position. Dr. Brosius came home in his uniform. He makes a good-looking soldier, is enthusiastic and would have gone as a private. It is our private opinion that he ought to be colonel of the regiment. Among the six or more physicians who made application and were examined for appointment as surgeons in the regiment at Camp McKinley, Dr. Brosius stood head and shoulders above all of them in his qualifications as a member of his profession, and owing to this fact he could not be turned down without an appointment. The Wasco county boys of Captain Booth's company became very much attached to Dr. Brosius during the time they were together in Camp McKinley, and at their request we cheerfully publish this item. Mr. Eph Winans is home again, having been rejected by the examining surgeons for enlistment in the army. It seems he failed to meet the requirements of the service by being too tall for his weight. When such men as Eph Winans fail to pass muster it shows that the examination is exacting. Mr. Winans is known by his acquaintances to be a man of strong constitution and great endurance. He earnestly desired to serve his country as a soldier, and we regret to see a good man like him rejected. Mr. C. L. Morse made a trip through the southeastern portions of the county along with A. J. Brigham and other candidates, last week, going as far as Wapinitia. Mr. Morse will soon start for Montana as agent for the sale of Hood River strawberries, and if his political enemies outside of Hood River (he has none here) should spring any falsehoods during his absence, making out that he is responsible for the A. E. A., or is in the pay of Mark Hanna, or acting as a Spanish spy, don't believe a word of it. Mr. Oscar Stranahan, who only recently took his right arm out of a sling after recovering from blood poisoning caused by a cut on the hand, now carries his left hand in a sling from the effects of his hand getting in close quarters with a buzz saw while at work in his factory. A couple of fingers were cut into the bone. Oscar can generally be relied upon to furnish an item for the GLACIER. The entertainment at the old armory hall, Tuesday evening, given by the emergency corps, drew a large and enthusiastic audience. Patriotic addresses and songs were the order of the evening. The ice cream and oyster rooms at Mrs. Thompson's netted $20, which was forwarded to the secretary of the state emergency corps at Portland. Clarence English, who went to Portland to join the army, passed the examination all right and is now a sergeant in Company E. Sergeant English is the best drill master in the regiment and possesses two gold medals for being the best drilled man in the O. N. G. The Skamania Pioneer says: "The facts [as stated by the GLACIER] are correct enough about one of the Wilkinson boys being drowned at the Cascades and another being killed by a horse in Sherman county, but these boys were no relation to the man who was killed in the log chute." Dr. Bonham, the famous dentist from The Dalles, and graduate of Chicago dental college, will visit Hood River professionally, May 13th, and remain three days, and in future will make regular visits. May 6th, Mr. Richard Kirbyson brought the first ripe Hood River strawberries to the GLACIER office for the season of 1898. Mr. Kirbyson has an acre or more of early berries that are looking fine. Mr. Doug Langille returned from McCoy Creek mines on Wednesday in company with his mining partner, Ed Wilson. They came by way of Trout Lake and found deep snow on the mountains. Hon. Malcolm A. Moody is having 40 acres grubbed and cleared on his ranch, the old Corum place, which, with 10 acres already cleared, will be put into timothy and clover next fall. Mr. B. F. Gerking and daughter Nannie arrived here last week from South Bend, Wash., and expect to remain all summer. Mr. Gerking is a brother-in-law of M. N. Foley. The millinery department of Woodworth's store was well patronized last Saturday, when the town was full of people. Crowds of ladies came to see the hats of latest pattern. Henry York, not to be outdone in patriotism, is having his drug store repapered throughout in honor of Dewey's victory. J. B. Hunt is the artist doing the work. Strawberries are ripening in the early patches along Hood river and the Columbia river front, and by next Monday, or sooner, shipments will begin in earnest. The sales of the Oregonian have more than doubled in Hood River since the war began. The Bartness boys now sell from 75 to 85 copies daily. Melville Foley was a close second with Mr. Kirbyson in ripe strawberries, bringing in four nice berries in the afternoon of May 6th. J. F. Howe and family and his father-in-law and family came up on the boat from Portland Tuesday. Mr. M. Willis has been confined to his house during the week by sickness. Mr. F. H. Stanton is clearing twenty acres on the Forbis tract, East Side. Bradley photographed the Crupper school Tuesday.

Mr. Eph Winans says great dissatisfaction existed among the soldiers in Camp McKinley over the way some of the old officers of the O. N. G. have been treated. Capt. Booth's Wasco county company consisted of 68 men, and they were consolidated with a fraction of a company from Portland. Harry L. Wells was made captain and Booth was given the second lieutenantcy, which he rightfully declined to accept. Capt. Wells promised to be liberal to the Wasco county boys in dealing out the non-commissioned officers, and out of 18 he generously gave 4 to Booth's men, two of which were corporals. The boys threatened to go home if Captain Booth was turned down, but they were sworn in and then divided up among the other companies. It takes a mighty good patriot to retain his patriotism when favoritism creeps into the appointments in a company or regiment. Canby W. R. C. held an interesting meeting last Saturday. The members were vitally interested in plans for the aid of our countrymen who are called out in the defense of our flag, and the following motion made by Mrs. G. Smith was unanimously carried. "It is moved, that a committee of five, the president to act as one member of said committee, be appointed to be ready to call the members together, and notify those members in the country, as soon as any work is known to be needed, or in case of any emergency where the services of the W. R. C. can be used, and further that this committee is empowered to act at any time in behalf of the corps to aid in extending help to our brave volunteers. The president appointed this committee, Mrs. A. Stranahan, Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. M. Cronwell, Mrs. C. Bailey and Mrs. E. Cunningham. A pleasant party for the little folks was given on Monday, May 9th, at the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neff, the occasion being the 6th birthday anniversary of their son Reed. The little folks enjoyed themselves greatly. Lunch was served. Those present were: Dorothy Neff, Bell Wolfard, Geneva Wolfard, Florence Hanna, Ruth Hanna, Gochia Smith, Eva Yates, Anna Jackson, Vera Jackson, Lenora Wait, Sallie Bartmess, Gladys Hartley, Reed Neff, Jay Wolfard, Ellsworth Hanna, Willie Foss, Leslie Foss, Walter Howell, Everett Hand, Archie Lockman, Mrs. L. Neff, Mrs. H. W. Wait, Mrs. Lockman, Miss Huddleson. The state encampment, G. A. R. and W. R. C., will be held at The Dalles next week, May 17th, 18th and 19th. The date of the encampment could not have been held at a more inopportune time for Hood River. The delegates from Canby post at the encampment last year worked and voted for The Dalles, and being so near by, it was the intention of the post to go in a body. The date of the encampment was first set for the 20th to 22d of April, but afterwards changed to May. As most of the members of Canby post are engaged in strawberry culture, it will not be convenient for them to attend. The W. C. T. U. medal contest will be held Monday evening, May 16th, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the M. E. church. The contest will be in declamations by several young ladies and gentlemen contestants for a prize, which will be a silver medal, to the one adjudged No. 1 by three selected judges. The programme will be interspersed with music. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the Willard temple. The boys of the hospital corps from Hood River accompanied the first battalion of the Oregon regiment, which left Portland on Wednesday for San Francisco. All the boys passed the examination but O. J. Clum, and he was to be given another trial on Wednesday, when it was hoped that, under the modified rules, he would pass. Dr. Brosius will not go to San Francisco till Saturday or Sunday. Mr. W. E. Newcomb sold one acre of strawberries, planted one year ago, to Mr. G. D. Woodworth for $50. It is as fine an acre of strawberry plants as can be found in the valley. Mr. Woodworth gets the use of them for this year only. Fifty dollars an acre is a pretty fair price for a crop. Mr. E. L. Rod of Paradise farm reports that an army of green worms, resembling the cabbage worm, is working on his strawberry plants, eating the leaves, and they have about ruined the patch near his house. The first Mt. Tabor berries came into Portland the same day with first Hood River, but it will be several days yet before they will affect Hood River berries in the Portland market. Hood River strawberries have been selling in Portland during the week at 35 cents a pound. California berries sell for 10 cents. Mr. M. H. Nickelsen is building a residence on his ranch. Dallas is making up valleys and tin shingles for the roof. The pews for the Congregational church arrived Tuesday and have been placed in the church. Mr. R. S. Andrews is down with the measles and his old friend M. N. Foley is caring for him. The Absten family have recovered from the measles in good shape. Little Ethel Smith is sick with measles. Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacco easily and forever, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or 1.00. Guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York. Church Notices. There will be preaching in the Valley Christian church Sunday at the usual hours by the pastor. Elder J. W. Jenkins will preach in the Odell school-house Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Owing to improvements being made in the interior of the Congregational church, there will be no services of any kind next Sunday. The regular services will be conducted on Sunday, the 20th inst. Mormon Meetings. Elders Barnes and Jensen of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold meetings in Hood River next week. Bills will be printed, giving time of holding the meetings. Articles of Faith 5 and 6 of said church are as follows: 5. We believe that a man must be called of God, by prophecy, and by the laying on of hands, by one who are in authority, to preach the gospel and administer in the ordinances thereof. 6. We believe in the same organization that existed in the primitive church—namely, Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists, etc.

Memorial Day. Committees from Canby post, G. A. R., and W. R. C. have made arrangements for the memorial sermon on the Sunday preceding and the exercises on Memorial day, as follows: Sunday, May 29th, post and corps and Sons of Veterans will assemble at A. O. U. W. hall, at 10:30 a. m., and march together to the U. B. church, where memorial services will be conducted by Rev. J. T. Merrill. Canby Post and Canby Corps, with Sons of Veterans and citizens, will assemble at Idelwilde cemetery at 10 a. m. on Monday, May 30th, where the impressive services of the Grand Army will be conducted according to the ritual, and the graves will be decorated. Details will be sent by the Grand Army to decorate the soldiers' graves in Irving cemetery and at Pine Grove. All old soldiers and their families are requested to be present. The pupils of the public schools in the valley are especially invited to participate in the patriotic exercises. By order of the COMMITTEE. Good Platform for Local Politics. Sunday Welcome. A Tennessee paper announces this most sensible and therefore unique platform for local politics: "Graveled roads; diversified farming; stock and poultry raising; first-class country schools." This would be very sensible pronouncements for the country press of Oregon, though not exactly political. These demands are far more reasonable and useful than those for initiative, referendum, imperative mandate, free silver, tariff, high or low, or most of the other clamorous braying one hears—if he hasn't sense enough to stop away—on the stump every two years. No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists. Whooping Cough. I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house. J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by Williams & Brosius. Mrs. A. K. Dufur of Dufur recently received a letter that was written eight years ago at her former home in Wisconsin. The St. Louis Republic is the leading paper for news. It comes twice a week for $1 a year, or three times (34 pages) for $1.50. THE GLACIER and twice-a-week Republic $2.25 a year.
