School closed in the Crapper district for the spring term last Saturday. Mr. Hoyl Green has been re-engaged to teach the fall term.

Supervisor Campbell was obliged to leave his work with his strawberries and repair the Indian creek bridge, which was in a dangerous condition. He has had a force of men at work during the week making repairs.
Three or four trail teams and teamsters from Sherman county are engaged hauling 200 cords of wood from G. W. Williams' place for Mr. Bonney. The teams make two trips a day and haul three or four cords on the two wagons.

Mr. J. W. Morton has traded his Tillamook property for Mr. A. E. Indler's place, and the latter will move with his family to Tillamook. Mr. W. S. Boorman has bought Mr. W. S. Dishman's place, at Frankton, and will make it his home.
New Millinery.—We have added to our dry goods department a full line of ladies' trimmed hats, salloers, walking hats and sun shades. We have secured the services of Miss Alice Graham as trimmer, which will warrant our work with neatness and dispatch.

R. RAND & SON.
Postponed.—The Travers literary club meeting, which was to have been held Monday evening, the 8th instant, will be postponed until after the berry crop is disposed of and the people of Hood River have more leisure. The next meeting will be at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Watt. Due notice will appear in the columns of the GLACIER.

Dr. Hines left last night to deliver an address today before the Eastern Oregon Pioneers at Milton, near Walla Walla. He will be in his pulpit in Hood River on Sunday, at 11 a. m. His daughter, Mrs. Cranston and family will return with him and occupy the residence of W. H. Bishop for the summer.

The Boys' and Girls' Sunday School Army will give a missionary concert at the Congregational church on Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. Officer in charge, Ralph Savage; staff officer, Mr. Barnes; officer home guards, Fay LaFrance. Mrs. Allard and Miss Fay LaFrance will recite. Miss Agnes Dukes will sing a solo. Six officers and nine color bearers will, with the above, make up the army.

Our "war correspondent of the Columbia" reports that he has been hearing heavy firing in the direction of Viento for the past few days and fears the long-lost Spanish fleet that is thought to be bottled up at Santiago may be even now bombarding the towns on the Lower Columbia, or possibly Viento, and may soon be thundering at the very doors of Hood River, especially if they should learn of our big strawberry crop; or they might slip up Hood River, enter Indian creek and attack the town in the rear while our big gun is pointed to guard only the Columbia river front. Our correspondent has probably eaten too much strawberry short cake or strawberries and cream after his light exercise of 16 hours a day in the berry patch.

A meeting of citizens is called for tomorrow, at 2 o'clock, to make arrangements for the proper celebration of the 4th of July and to invite the people of Sherman county to join with us in the celebration. Ladies especially are invited to attend this meeting, which will be held at the hall of the emergency corps. This year above all others since 1861 it is proper that we should celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the republic. The present war is proving that our country is united. Never before have ex-confederate and ex-union soldiers marched together and decorated the graves of their dead comrades as was done last Monday throughout the country. This of itself should be enough to make us rejoice. Patriotism will be rampant everywhere, and Hood River will not be behind. Turn out at the meeting tomorrow and help get up the programme.

Half a regiment of North Dakota volunteers passed through Hood River last Sunday on a special train. Short notice was given of their coming, but our town turned out a big crowd to welcome them and cheer them on their perilous journey to the Philippines. Many ladies brought flowers for the soldiers, and they in turn gave their badges bearing the words "Remember the Maine" and the company and regiment. Nine crates of the best Hood River strawberries were donated by our town.

Mr. Chandler's letter in another column gives a discouraging picture of the situation in Montana in regard to marketing our berries. It is no more than we might expect. If we can't get together and ship our berries without rivalry at home, it can hardly be expected that distant commission houses will work in harmony to help us keep up prices that by our own pulling apart are kept down.

Symms & Dark, in charge of the strawberries on A. R. Byrket's ranch, brought over, Monday, five crates of strawberries said to be the finest ever shipped from Hood River. The Davidson Fruit Co. had them packed in Alaskan crates and they were shipped to Tacoma for the Alaska market. No doubt a good report will be heard from these berries.

Mr. A. J. Brigham, candidate for the legislature on the union ticket, was billed to speak in Hood River last Friday evening, but failed to get an audience because everybody is busy and no one is particularly interested in politics this year. Mr. Brigham is a silver-tongued orator and a good story teller and that he did not speak here is the people's loss.

The strawberry crop of Hood River was never better than it is this year. The weather has been just about right so far through the season—cool and sunshiny—to make good berries. Some of our largest growers are shipping over one hundred crates a day. The union is sending off two carloads a day.

Many of the Indian strawberry pickers refused to work last Sunday, saying they didn't work on Sunday, and they spent the day gambling and racing their cayuses. A few managed to get some white man's fire-water and got gloriously drunk. It is supposed the whisky is brought from The Dalles.

S. E. Bartness has the agency for Wasco county for the sale of the Acme steam canner, a model of which was exhibited here by Mrs. Wanda of Salem a couple of weeks ago. It is something that has long been wanted by the frugal housekeeper. Ladies are invited to call and see the model.

The strawberry patches on Mrs. Alma Howe's land, conducted by Frank Davenport, who has the largest, and the Kisers and McQuistians, are turning off some of the finest berries, for size and color, that it has been our pleasure to see. The Kisers are workers and have their vines in good condition.

Mrs. Joseph Frazier is the daughter of a veteran of the civil war, had a brother in the Union army, married a soldier, and now her eldest son is a soldier in the first-battalion of Washington volunteers, now on their way to the Philippines.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ladd, Miss Heitche, Miss Vondestinn, Dr. Nichols and R. Howard, Jr., came up on the train Saturday evening and went out to Mrs. John Parker's, returning to Portland Tuesday morning.

Mr. W. M. Cook, receiving teller of Ladd & Tilton's bank, Portland, visited his mother, Mrs. C. M. Cook, last Saturday and returned to Portland Monday morning with his wife, who had been visiting here for a week or more.

Ladies are invited to call at Bartness' store and see the model of the Acme steam canner. It is a much cheaper process and more satisfactory than canning fruit and vegetables in the old-fashioned way.

Miss Alice Frazier, while going home from town, one evening last week, was thrown from her horse and badly bruised. The horse was frightened by a dog at Mr. Udell's place running and barking at his heels.

An Indian was found dead on the river bank below the depot Sunday morning. Cause an overdose of bad whisky. It is said he mixed his drinks once too often.

Mr. Philip Spangler brought to the GLACIER office on Tuesday a box of Clark's Seedling strawberries that would be hard to beat for size and color.

The river is too high for the locks to operate, and on Monday the Regulator took down wagons to transfer freight around the portage.

Benty Rand returned from the hospital on Monday. His wounded eye is healing, but we regret to learn the sight is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh and Mr. Thos. McDonald returned from a ten-days' visit to Sherman county on Wednesday.

Miss Henrietta Elliot, instead of her mother, as the GLACIER printed it last week, is here with her father and Tom.

Two tickets to be voted for at the election next Monday are printed in another column. Study them before going to the polls and pick out the men you wish to vote for. And when you make out your ballot read carefully the instructions and make no mistake that will lose you your vote. If for any reason you think you can't properly make out your own ballot, call on the judge of election that is of your politics and he will help you. And don't fail to vote.

Davidson Fruit Co. has started a canning establishment and has ordered 4,000 cans to begin with. The company will commence at once to can strawberries, and with the reputation already established for our berries, the canned goods will sell on sight.

Mr. W. F. Woodward, who rusticates in Hood River every summer, wrote a good descriptive article on the growing of strawberries in Hood River in Wednesday's Oregonian.

Dr. Carns is up from Portland attending to dental work.

Strawberry shipments: May 26th, 1,188 crates; 27th, 1,038; 28th, 1,625; 29th, 1,044; 30th, 1,553; 31st, 1,158; June 1st, 1,828. Shipments for the week, 9,449; total shipments for the season, 12,785.

Mrs. W. T. Hansberry was a delegate to the conference of the A. C. church at Cornelius today.

Yesterday Mr. E. D. Calkins brought down some fat cattle from Lyle for Bonney's market.

The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will serve ice cream and cake, Saturday afternoon and evening, June 11th.

Mr. Joseph McGuire presented the GLACIER office with a handsome box of strawberries grown in his garden. They were superb.

Hon. A. R. Byrket will start tomorrow for his home at Troy, Ohio. Mrs. Byrket will come to Oregon in about six weeks.

The children of W. S. Boorman are sick with the measles. Master Elwood Luckey is also laid up with the same disease.

Decoration Day.
Memorial exercises were conducted at Hood River in a fitting manner. A large audience assembled at the U. B. church on Sunday to hear the memorial sermon. The Sunday school children, under the direction of Prof. R. R. Allard, lined up at the church door and opened ranks for the Grand Army and Relief Corps to pass in and then followed, taking seats next to the veterans in the front pews. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and bunting, the work of the ladies and Sunday school children of the three churches. Rev. J. T. Merrill delivered one of the most eloquent and patriotic sermons ever listened to on a similar occasion. It was full of historical data, with frequent pathetic passages that touched the hearts of the old veterans and caused many of them, as well as others in the audience, to shed tears. At the close of the services every old soldier present grasped the hand of Mr. Merrill and congratulated him upon his address and thanked him for the kind words in their behalf.

Monday, at 10 o'clock, the G. A. R. and W. R. C. and many others gathered at Idelwilde cemetery. The services of the Grand Army were held at the grave of their late comrade, A. K. Isenberry. Mrs. H. L. Howe of the Relief Corps read Lincoln's memorial address at Gettysburg. In this cemetery is the grave of a confederate soldier, — Hankins, which was decorated by the members of Canby post and the Relief Corps. The newly-made graves of Mrs. D. S. Crapper and Mrs. P. F. Bradford were richly decorated with the choicest flowers.

Mr. P. Ketcham of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only relief that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

A Good Report.
Miss Cheslie Rankin wrote in the bottom of a strawberry box asking whoever unpacked the box to report the condition of the berries. She received the following letter:
KARLO, B. C., May 22, 1898.—Miss Cheslie Rankin—Dear Madam: Your choice box of strawberries was delicious, and we only wished to eat more. So seldom we have such treats here of such berries. I have eaten California and Mexican berries, but yours that they cannot compete with, most for that delicious flavor. Send another box at the same price—40c. Yours truly, Mrs. L. B. MACKLEY.

At Camp McKinley.
I want to say a few words about our dear, brave boys that were stationed at Camp McKinley, Portland. I was an eye witness to many of the sayings and doings in camp, having visited there quite frequently. Never since Portland has known a name has been anything so grand and noble as the just witnessed. From every tree top, from every house top, you can see the honored stars and stripes fluttering proudly side by side with the Cuban flag. Oh, what a grand sight! Words cannot express the feeling in my heart when I think of our brave boys leaving their homes and friends to give their lives if need be for their country, to avenge an injury and an insult. Too much cannot be said in their praise. Every man, woman and child in Portland did not fail to give them a hearty cheer and welcome. It was a beautiful sight to visit the camp all strewn with flowers. Thousands of people thronged the grounds night and day. Some had friends there and many did not, but it mattered little; one boy was as much honored as another. I had many dear friends among them, and I am here to say for each and every one that the kind treatment shown them at Camp McKinley will be a bright spot in their memories they will carry with them to the battle field. I understand it has been reported in this city that some of the boys had been as they should have been, and I want to say that the parties who say so do not know what they are talking about. Look which way you would you could see little squares of soldier boys and their friends partaking of a sumptuous lunch that had been brought to them at the would be a bright spot in their memories they will carry with them to the battle field. I understand it has been reported in this city that some of the boys had been as they should have been, and I want to say that the parties who say so do not know what they are talking about. Look which way you would you could see little squares of soldier boys and their friends partaking of a sumptuous lunch that had been brought to them at the would be a bright spot in their memories they will carry with them to the battle field.

And now I want to speak in particular about our boys. They were none more noble, braver or nicer looking than the boys of Companies K, L and M. I went down the line as they were on their last march just before hearing the train to say last good-bye to my friends, and can say that I was very proud to know that I had friends in all three companies. They were really a rugged looking, not so handsome, perhaps, but just as brave and true, and I am proud to claim Co. M as my favorite company. I hope they will each one return as safely as they went away; but if they never return their names will be an honored memory. And I also witnessed the great benefit given to the emergency corps by the firm of Lipman, Wolf & Co. Never in my life did I see anything so grand. People flocking here and there making purchases they really did not know because it was for the soldier boys. At every counter and in every aisle everywhere you could hear people saying "It's for the boys, you know." Many hearty good wishes were sent after the boys in blue on that day. It was sad to say good-bye to our friends, but it will pay you to examine this stock. Remember, trees grown here give the best satisfaction. No trouble to show goods. Orders filled on short notice. H. C. BATEMAN, Hood River, Oregon.
