LATEST WAR NEWS.

New York, June 22.—A special dispatch from Santiago de Cuba, June 20, via Kingston today, says the Cubans have brought information to Admiral Sampson that Cervera is prepared to make a desperate effort to take his ships out of Santiago harbor at the first favorable opportunity. The Spanish warships, it is reported, have been coaled to their full capacity and the crews are refused shore leave. Every night the vessels drop down the bay to be prepared to embrace the first favorable opportunity to attempt to dash past the blockading squadron.

It is learned that the Spanish steamer Purissima Concepcion, which sailed from Kingston on June 16th with supplies for Spanish troops, and carrying, it is understood, $100,000 in gold, has arrived at Trinidad, province of Santa Clara.

The third Manila expedition will sail from San Francisco next Monday.

The projected expedition to Porto Rico has been abandoned for the present.

A Fourth of July Reflection.

We are to have a great Fourth of July celebration this year. Patriotism is in the ascendant. For the first time in over thirty years the republic is in arms and its soldiers and sailors are acquitting themselves with honor against the nation's foes. Everything contributes to an unprecedented display of patriotic enthusiasm in honor of the natal day of the western empire.

There will be celebrations throughout the length and breadth of the land. In every city, town and hamlet the fires of patriotism will be rekindled and fervid orators will recount how the thirteen colonies threw off the yoke of tyranny and became a free and independent nation, owing allegiance to no king and free to achieve a glorious destiny. We shall be told of the blessings of liberty and especial stress will be laid upon the fact that we are now engaged in a struggle to secure for the Cubans that freedom which we achieved for ourselves 122 years ago.

All this will be timely and proper. But while decanting upon the blessings of liberty for the Cubans it occurs to any of the Independence day orators to consider the situation of the Hawaiians and the people of the Philippine Islands, whom it is proposed to "annex" whether they want to be annexed or not?

There is an avowed intention upon the part of the administration to bring under the sway of the United States several millions of people whose wishes have not been consulted and will not be consulted in the matter. We are to acquire and hold—under pretense of freeing Cuba—a group of islands in the far Pacific whose inhabitants are foreign to us in language, tradition and sentiment. We are to annex—either forcibly or through a one-sided treaty—another group of islands whose people, if they were allowed to express their sentiments, would reject the proposition overwhelmingly. We are going to celebrate the enfranchisement of Cuba by disregarding and overriding the rights and wishes of the Hawaiians and the Filipinos.

There is a document somewhere in favor of the Fourth of July and very little consulted during the rest of the year—the declaration of independence. At this juncture it is worth while to quote from that instrument concerning the rights of men with relation to the government.

To secure certain inalienable rights it declares "governments are instruments among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Yet we propose to govern the people of the Philippine Islands without asking their consent at all, and we are going to exercise authority over the Kanakas because of an understanding with a clique of conspirators who have themselves usurped power and who maintain it not by the consent of the governed, but by might alone. Ten millions of people in one case and 3,000,000 in the other are to be brought into a condition of vassalage to a nation which is ostensibly engaged in releasing a rather unsavory lot of revolutionists from the yoke of an European monarchy. We propose to recompense ourselves for our philanthropy toward the Cubans by subjecting to our authority five times as many people who will not be consulted in the matter at all.

It may be that the Fourth of July orators can reconcile these facts with the declaration which we have quoted. Or it may be that the declaration of independence, like the Monroe doctrine, is getting old foggy and out of date. The logic of events, according to the imperialist school of politicians which has lately sprung up, demands that we should disregard the politics and traditions of our entire history and prepare to achieve our manifest destiny as a conquering nation.

That may be true. It may be that the land hunger which is common to all peoples has been whetted by the prospect of easy conquest. It may be that the people of the United States are upon the point of reversing the policy which for a hundred years has guaranteed them peace, prosperity and tranquility—that has rendered them envied and respected by other nations.

But if we prefer to drop the pruning hook and take up the sword—if we are to enter into competition with the predatory powers of the old world and take by force what we cannot secure by craft—we ought to be candid about it. We should cease our professions of altruism and disinterested philanthropy and take for our motto the good old rule—the simple plan:

That they should take who have the power, And they should hold who can.

If we may not be honest let us at least not be hypocritical. —Chicago Chronicle.

PROGRAMME

For the Celebration of Independence Day at Hood River, July 4, 1898.

Procession will form at corner of Oak and Second streets, at 10 a. m. sharp. The different companies and societies will be assigned places in the procession by the chief marshal and will immediately march to the grounds selected for the occasion.

A feature of the day will be a company of 50 young ladies under the efficient military drill of Captain E. T. Winans.

Exercises at the grove in Parkhurst addition will commence with prayer by the chaplain of the day, Rev. J. W. Rigby.

Opening address by W. P. Watson. Reciting Declaration of Independence by Mrs. R. R. Allard.

Short speeches by Hon. T. R. Coon, Veterans C. J. Hayes, M. P. Isenberg and others.

Recitations by Miss Bell Wolfard and Ruth Rigby.

Rev. G. R. Archer on the War of the Revolution.

Dr. H. K. Hines on the War of the Rebellion and the Present War with Spain.

Closing address by Dr. W. L. Adams.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.

To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No. 707-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house; the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides: one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

The Road to Sandy Flat.

A new road to Sandy Flat and Lost lake, which will necessitate the rebuilding of the bridge at Winans, at the Forks of Hood river, is being laid out by Mr. W. R. Winans. The following agreement is being signed by our citizens and has been left at Grant Evans' barber shop for signatures:

"HOOD RIVER, June 18, 1898.—On demand we, the undersigned, agree to donate the amount of money or labor set opposite our names for the purpose of repairing the bridge at Winans, Or., and for building a new road on the section lines as nearly as possible to connect with the road leading to Sandy Flat, for the consideration of free passage to the said donors only. All donations of money to be paid to W. R. Winans as the work progresses, and all labor to be performed when called upon by said Winans, who will superintend the work and obtain the material."

Heard From.

Some of the girls picking berries for Mr. Auble wrote on hallocks asking the consumer to write and report condition of berries, etc. The following letter was an answer received:

GRAND FORKS, N. D., June 11, 1898.—Miss Bertha Prather, Hood River, Or.: You will be somewhat surprised to learn that your box of berries arrived in good condition, and was opened to-day by Mrs. James O. Coffin in Grand Forks, North Dakota. We get 2 boxes for 25c, but seldom get such nice berries. Hoping to enjoy many more of the Oregon berries, I am yours respectfully, Mrs. J. O. Coffin, 113 N. 8th st.

The Observer says many Sherman county people will celebrate in Hood River this year. The Col. Southern railway and O. R. & N. excursion is an attraction.

The wicked free when no man pursueth. Justice Prather, while out looking for his cow, the other day, came across an Indian, who, evidently suffering with a guilty conscience, when he saw the justice approach him, called out "Me no do it. Me go home—cross river." Mr. Prather told him to clatawa, and the swash lost no time in getting out of sight in the direction of the river.

More Truth Than Poetry.

Did you ever hear of parents who would listen to their children Tell about their little grievances at school? How those hateful, mean "old" teachers Had abused their darling creatures, Just because they didn't mind that nasty rule.

Did you ever hear of parents, when their children were in school, Who could scarcely get these children off to school?

While the children of their neighbors Had outstripped them in school labors, And their darlings left to founder in the pool.

Did you ever hear of parents, when their children were in school, Wonder why their children treated them so?

While their neighbor's were respected, theirs were hated, shunned, neglected— Oh, this must be a very bitter pill.

Would you like to know the reason? 'Tis as plain as summer season— Let me break the news as gently as I can— Your children are not models, pound this well into their little brains. And it may save them, sure as Jonah was a man. —Trentdale Champion.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
