in this work are requested to call on Capt. Dukes. Mr. J. N. McCoy cut his three acres of clover last week. It was so heavy that he had to fork it out of the swath so that the driver of the nower could see where to drive. He was advised to cure it on, but thanks to the drying weather that has since prevailed, it is curing nicely. Last year Mr. McCoy fed his horse, two cows and a calf, and sold $55 worth of hay, all from three arcs of land. H. S. Balligan and T. H. Clark re-turned from a trip to McCoy (reek on Monday. They made the trip there and back in six days, going all the way to norseback. Plenty of snow was found on the trail, but it was sold and their horses found no difficulty in walk-ing on top of it. The party brought to be interviewed on the strawberry business but talked freely or politics. Though defeated he was not vanquish-ed. Now is the time to buy Hood River real estate. You can buy or lease 20 acres 2 miles from town at a bargain. This place produced 800 crates of strawberries this season; 5 acres in bearing orchard. Offered cheap because the owner is going away. Inquire of H.A. York.

Mr. Fred Bailey's house had a close call from being burned one day last week. The roof took fire from sparks from the chimney, but fortunately neighbors were near to lend a willing hand. Almost a continuous stream of water from the ditch near by was handed up to the roof in buckets and the building saved.

S. E. Bartmess now has the Acme steam fruit canner in stock. This cauner not only saves a great deal of labor in canning fruit, but also retains the flavor and form of the fruit. There is no burning or boiling over of fruit, as the fruit is placed in the jars before cooking. Peas, beans, corn and meats may also be canned with perfect safety and saving of labor. Mrs. Bartmess is making use of one and says she could not do without it. Call and see it at work in her kitchen.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a travel-ing salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were im-mediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost com-plete relief from the affliction." For sale by Williams & Brosius.

Gooseberries, $1 per crate; raspberries, $1.25; currants, $1.50. If you can can, you can order at once of H. C. Bate-ham, Columbia Nursery.
