Our Texas correspondent gives an interesting chapter on "Snakes" this week. Interesting to nervous people, and comforting as well, when we consider that we don't have to live in Texas.

Mr. John Leland Henderson is the possessor of $103,000 in Cuban bonds that were received by his grandfather during the Cuban rebellion of 1890. The bonds are signed by General Narciso Lopez, "chief of the patriotic junta for the promotion of the political interests of Cuba." The bonds were willed to Mr. Henderson's father and uncle, and his grandfather claimed that if Cuba ever gained her independence they would be paid. During the civil war the Union soldiers tore up and destroyed a good many of the bonds. One of Mr. Henderson's uncles was killed in battle, shot down by the side of General Lopez.

Hood River is billed for an entertainment to be given this Friday evening by Zan Edwards' Tennessee Students, in the old armory hall. The price of admission is only 25 cents.

Workmen have been repairing or putting up extra telephone wires through town during the past week. Although they may have thought that they were careful in cutting limbs from their oak trees in the streets, a good many of us think they slashed unnecessarily. Our grand old oaks are the pride of our town, and we would rather have the oaks than the telephone.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

It is estimated by good judges that the loss to fruit growers in Hood River valley the present season from the ravages of the codlin moth will reach $10,000. Those who sprayed their orchards and have saved their fruit are now reaping a great benefit from the carelessness of others. If there was no codlin moth apples could be grown so cheaply that there would be no demand for them. The despised codlin moth is really the up-to-date, systematic apple grower's best friend.

Mr. G. D. Woodworth's farm in Sherman county yielded 7,000 sacks of wheat this season, which he has offered to sell for 50 cents a bushel. He claims there is big money in wheat this year at that price.

The Oregon legislature convened in special session Monday. No time was lost in organization. Joseph Simon was elected president of the senate and E. V. Carter of Jackson county speaker of the house. M. P. Isenberg was selected for calendar clerk of the house. Everything points to the election of Hon. H. W. Corbett as U. S. senator.

John Kendrick Bangs' newest stories are to appear in The Ladies' Home Journal. They are called "Stories of a Suburban Town." There are several, and each will relate some droll incidents in the life of a small town which every "suburbanite" will instantly appreciate and enjoy laughing over.

One On Hood River.

The following conversation was overheard by a GLACIER reporter in a Portland street car the other day:

"How is your family, Mr. S—?"
"Well, my wife and Will and Minnie have gone to Prineville. Will hasn't been very well, you know. He was up at Hood River during that hot spell we had, and come near being sun struck. To show how hot it was there, when the thermometer was 88 in the shade here, Will had some beeswax in his trunk that actually melted from the heat."

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

In Defense of Mr. Fredenburg.

[Copy of Statement.]
The undersigned is charged with "carelessness and neglect of duty," which the following facts will bear out are false, malicious and misleading.

It is claimed that I detained in the post office at Mt. Hood, Or., a registered letter for over 60 days, then forwarded it to the address. Louis Burkhard failed to give me his address in Portland, Or. On June 4, 1898, a registered letter arrived at this office to his address, marked "If not delivered in 60 days return to the department of the Interior, The Dalles, Or." Not having Mr. Burkhard's address in Portland I asked Robert Leasure to furnish me with it. He replied that he would "bring it up," which he failed to do, nor never did. On or about July 15, 1898, an ordinary letter was placed in the post office for dispatch to L. Burkhard, 110 Fourth street, Portland, Or. I copied the address and sent Mr. Burkhard a notice that a registered letter was in this office to his address, and on July 23, 1898, the letter was forwarded to his address in Portland.

O. FREDENBURG, P. M.
State of Oregon, county of Wasco.—I, O. Fredenburg, P. M. at Mount Hood, Wasco county, Or., after being duly sworn, depose and say that the facts set forth in the foregoing statement are true. O. FREDENBURG, P. M.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D. 1898.
EZRA HENSEN,
Justice of the Peace in and for the Precinct of Baldwin, Wasco county, Or.

Beauty Is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

How to Succeed in Dentistry.

Dr. Martin A. Jones, who is now located in Portland, was recently interviewed by a reporter of the Evening Telegram and gave the following good advice to the young practitioner:

"Modern appliances and attention to details are necessary in addition to dental skill in order to succeed in the dental profession," said Dr. Martin A. Jones when asked to explain how he had built up such a large patronage in so short a time. It will be remembered that Dr. Jones came here last spring and opened offices on Morrison street. His fame as a specialist had preceded him, so in the space of a very short time his offices were found inadequate to the patronage. A change was made to the Washington building, at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, where a series of offices were leased. Every appliance known to modern dentistry may be found in this dental establishment. As a result the operations necessary have not in the least been hampered and the doctor and his able corps of assistants have become known far and wide for their painless treatment of sensitive teeth. Another result of the extensiveness of the patronage of the Portland Dental Parlors is the low price charged for a good set of teeth. With a wholesale business, wholesale prices prevail, and the purchase of teeth by the thousand set, as one would naturally suppose, enables the Portland Dental Parlors to offer first class sets of teeth below any other dental parlors of the Northwest. Thus little by little the advantages of the great centers of Europe and America are thrust upon us.

Early Closing.

We, the undersigned, merchants of Hood River, Oregon, agree to close our respective places of business at 7:30 p. m. from the first of October, 1898, to the first of March, 1899, excepting Saturday evenings. Signed by H. Rand & Son, S. J. LaFrance, Bone & McDonald, F. E. Jackson, G. D. Woodworth, Clyde T. Bonney, Geo. P. Crowell, S. A. Knapp, C. L. Copple, Williams & Brosius, Chas. N. Clarke, Dallas & Spangler, F. E. Denzer, S. E. Bartness.

A Critical Time.

The packers at the battle of Santiago de Cuba were all heroes. Their heroic efforts in getting ammunition and rations to the front saved the day. P. E. Butler of pack train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush, and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by Williams & Brosius.
