The wrangle over the election of a United States senator has again commenced in the legislature. Caucuses were held Monday night by the different factions with no definite result. The regular republicans to the number of 36 met and cast 31 votes for Corbett, 4 for George and 1 for Simon. The anti-Corbett republicans to the number of 22 met but look no action towards ing place. nominating a candidate. They seemed ready to vote for any republican except Corbett. The fusionists to the number of 20 met and decided to give Judge Bennett of Wasco county their Judge Bennett of Wasco county their complimentary votes. Representatives Morton and Roberts of Wasco county attended the regular republican caucus. Tuesday, the balloting began in the two houses, when Corbett received 36 Sliverland F. L. Smith, C. Derbrace. two houses, when Corbett received 36 votes and Bennett 24, the rest scattering. It requires 46 votes to elect, and it is conceded by Corbett's most ardent supporters that he will never reach that number. The late J. N. Dolph had 44 votes on first ballot four years ago and then failed of re-election. The fight in the republican ranks is as bitter now as it was then, or two years ago, and the indications for a continued deadlock are very favorable. It is high time the farce of sending men to the legislatures to elect senators was done away with, but so long as the United States seva'e stands in the way of a lowing letter on Saturday from a lady constitutional amendment giving the it will be a hard matter to make the change.

Our esteemed friend, M. A. Foltz editor of Public Opinion, Chambersburg, Pa., récently read a paper before a local historical society, entitled "The German Influence in Pennsylvania," with special reference to Franklin county. The article shows wonderful research and gives the Pennsylvania Germans equal standing with the Scotch-Irish for the influence they exerted in the educational, religious, agricultural, mechanical and commercial development of the Keystone state and the part they played in state-craft and war. Descendants of the "Pennsylvania Datch" have good reason to be proud of their ancestors, especially when their exploits are written by the editor of Public Opinion.

The Lafayette memorial commission has been formed for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of Lafayette as a twentieth century tribute from the people of this nation, to be unveiled with fitting ceremony July 4, 1900, and thus grandly celebrate United States day at the Paris exposition. It is proposed that the cost of the underfaking, which is estimated at a quarter of a million of dollars, shall be defrayed by small contributions sesecured through the agency of the school children of our land. October 19th, the anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, is the day which the schools of the United States are asked to recognize as Lafayette day.

ground; he leadeth me across the parade ground; he restoreth my breath with a short rest and then taketh me another whirl through the timber, for his own sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no Spantard, for thou art with me; thy gun and thy bayonet they shall protect me. Thou usest me for a breastwork in the presence of mine enemy; thou fillest me with hardtack and a cheap grade of bacon; my cup runneth short. Surely hunger and thirst shall follow me all the days of my enlistm nt, and I shall dwell in this dam-p tent for the next two years.

The bank of England has recently revoked the rule whereby it formerly refused to accept silver coins with holes in them. As such coins are merely BRADLEY, token money, good as legal tender to only a trifling amount, and making no pretense to having their face value in the metal composing them, a little day. Friday and Saturday—until fur her nomore or less silver therein is a matter of small consequence. With gold coins the case is different, for their value depends on the metal in them.

The war lasted 114 days. Its actual expense to date was $141,000,000; resultant future expenses many times that much. Thirty-five Spanish vessels were destroyed; no American vessels. Men killed, so far as known, 279
Americans and 2,119 Spaniards; wounded, 1,465 Americans and 2,043 Spaned, 1,465 Americans and 2,043 Spaniards.

The Portland Telegram says the milk dealers' union of that city has deeided to advance the price of milk from $1.75 to $2, on account of the high price of cows and scarcity of grass. Good cows cannot be bought for less than $50 to $60 now, while two years agothey could be obtained for $25.

This is perhaps our last issue in the old Herald building, as we will move into new quarters next week. There is an element of uncertainty about the location of our future home, and we may be forced to print our sheet in the open air, next week, with only the brand canopy of heaven to shield us. If such be the case, we beg that you kindly

The writer the other day saw two old squaws dividing huckleberries. They poured out their berries upon an old dirty blanket, one that possibly had done duty for generations and had covered many a sore backed horse, and then were gathered up and put into their buckets after picking out the hairs They were all ready for market and no doubt some one is eating them on hot cakes and smacking his lips. We are fond of huckleberries but don't want them from an Indian .- Prineville Review.

Mr. George Booth received the folacquaintance. Others may have re people the right to elect by direct vote celved similar letters. It may be all right, but on the face of it it looks like a good thing for Miss Natalia Schenck of Babylon, Long Island. The Red Cross society is doing noble work for the brave men who imperiled their lives for our country, but there are a good many ways to work upon the patriotism of the people for the benefit of private individuals, and this may be one of them. Before writing four letters to four of your friends and sending 10 cents to Miss Natalia Schenck it might be well to inquire if anybody ever heard of the Ice Plant Auxiliary and learn if Miss Natalia Schenck is authorized to start such an endless is authorized to start such an endless chain to gather in 10-cent pieces:

Sept. 30, 1898.—The fee Plant Auxiliary, in connection with the National Red Cross Society, being in great need of money to supply the ambulance ship, a chain has been formed to collect some. If on receipt of this you will make four copies and send to four of your frieads yon will greatly aid the cause. When you have made four copies piease send this letter and 10 cents to

MISS NATALIA SCHENCK,

Babylon, Long Island.

You will greatly help the wounded soldiers by doing this. The numbers commence at 1 and end at 100. The persons receiving this number (100) will please send it to Miss Schenck without making any more copies. Please number the head of each copy and make them exactly like this one, only number each one the next number higher (20), and sign your own name to each copy. Please make no delay in sending out the copies, and above all, do not break the chain, which means so much to the brave soldiers on land and sea.
