

OUR TREATMENT OF SPANISH CAPTIVES.

Never before in history was there a case where a defeated and captive enemy received such generous treatment as we gave the Spaniards. Other nations are astonished. Equally astonishing are the cures brought about by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Never before in history has there been so successful a medicine for the weak, debilitated and nervous, for stomach and liver disorders like dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness and constipation. All nations have benefited by it, and all praise it.

Spurious cures are legally made in China. They are used to put in the coffins of the dead, and the superstition prevails that they make the dead happy.

AN OPERATION AVOIDED.

Mrs. Rosa Gaum Writes to Mrs. Pinkham About It. She Says:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I take pleasure in writing you a few lines to inform you of the good your Vegetable Compound has done me. I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me; it has, indeed, helped me wonderfully.

For years I was troubled with an ovarian tumor, each year growing worse, until at last I was compelled to consult with a physician.

He said nothing could be done for me but to go under an operation.

In speaking with a friend of mine about it, she recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying she knew it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine, and after taking three bottles of it, the tumor disappeared. Oh! you do not know how much good your medicine has done me. I shall recommend it to all suffering women.—Mrs. ROSA GAUM, 720 Wall St., Los Angeles, Cal.

The great and unvarying success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in relieving every derangement of the female organs, demonstrates it to be the modern safeguard of woman's happiness and bodily strength. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

JOSEPH SIMON NAMED.

Republican Caucus Choice for Senator—Corbett Withdraws From the Race.
State Senator Joseph Simon, of Portland, was nominated for United States senator Friday night by a caucus of 63 Republican members of the legislature.

Without nominating speeches or any other method of putting forth candidates to be voted for under a secret ballot, Simon received 41 of the 63 votes, and he was subsequently declared the unanimous choice of the caucus, on motion of Senator Fulton, of Clatsop.

Corbett's Letter of Withdrawal.
When the caucus had assembled, with Senator Michell, of Wasco, in the chair, and Representative Moody, of Multnomah, as secretary, the organization that was first effected by the regular Republicans, there was a roll-call, and then Representative Ross, of Multnomah, in careful terms announced the definite withdrawal of Mr. Corbett's name as a candidate, and read the following letter:

"Portland, Or., Oct. 6.—Gentlemen of the Republican Caucus of the Oregon Legislature: I am sensible of the honor which you have conferred on me in making me the Republican caucus nominee for United States senator. Although I have been assured of the support of a large number of friends to the end, and notwithstanding that I am the majority candidate as declared in the caucus, I am convinced that my continued candidacy for senator would precipitate a deadlock and tend to disrupt the party, creating sores which it would require a long time to heal. For a period of 40 years I have given the party the warmest affection and the best service of which I am capable. I do not now desire any personal ambition of mine to stand in the way of party harmony or of the continued triumph of Republican principles. I am therefore constrained to withdraw my name as a candidate. In doing so, I desire to assure my friends and the party of my continued zeal and active co-operation in permanently securing the important principles for which we have so earnestly contended.

"I beg leave to thank my friends for the loyal and generous support which they have accorded me. I earnestly hope that no further delay a senator may be elected who is and has been in accord with the sound financial principles of the party as embodied in the Astoria platform. Very respectfully yours,
H. W. CORBETT."

SESSIONS WERE SHORT.

Senatorial Question Overshadowed Legislation at Salem.

The senatorial question quite overshadowed legislation at Salem. Both houses attended to some routine work in the morning, and then adjourned.

The Senate.
In the senate, Kuykendall's bill defining the qualifications of voters at school elections, which lacked one vote of passing Friday, was brought forward again as a new bill, by unanimous consent, and finally passed under suspension of the rules. The property qualification of the present bill is only $100, which must stand on the assessment roll to the credit of the voter in the regular assessment prior to the election at which he or she is then qualified to vote. The new measure also provides that in school districts having less than 1,000 inhabitants, a widow or male citizen, otherwise qualified, may vote without the property qualification, if he or she have children of school age in the district.

The committee on ways and means reported back to the senate a joint resolution authorizing the secretary of state to turn over to the officers of the Indian war veteran camps copies of the history of the Indian wars. The resolution was adopted.

Mulkey offered an amendment to the house joint resolution providing for the payment of $1.50 per day to rejected recruits by adding that the further sum of $3 per month be paid to those mustered into the service, and that such payment continue until they are mustered out. The amendment was debated. The resolution and amendment were referred to the committee on judiciary.

The house joint resolution appropriating $25,000 to rebuild the burned portion of the Oregon agricultural college was referred to the ways and means committee, which is to report Saturday at 10 A. M.

Senator Adams called up the bill authorizing school districts to contract debts. It was read a second time, and under suspension read a third time and passed.

In the House.
The chief measure before the house was the Hill registration bill. Hill made a strong speech in favor of its passage, showing the great necessity for such protection of the ballot-box, and urging it for the favorable consideration of the members. His was the only speech upon the bill, which was passed by a vote of 48 to 10.

Selling's bill fixing the compensation of the district attorney for the fourth judicial district was referred to the Multnomah delegation.

The committee on education reported back a measure providing a suitable time for holding teachers' quarterly examinations, with the recommendation that it be not passed.

Senator Dufur's bill to punish vandalism reads: "If any person shall willfully break down, injure, remove or destroy any free or toll bridge, railway, plank road, macadamized road, telegraph or telephone posts or wires, or any gate upon any such road, or any lock, or embankment of any canal, such persons, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years, or by fine not less than $50 nor more than $1,000."

OREGON'S SENATOR.

Joseph Simon, the Caucus Nominee, Gets 64 Republican Votes on First Ballot.

The nominee of Friday night's Republican caucus, Joseph Simon, was Saturday regularly chosen United States senator by the legislature in joint session. He received the full Republican vote, except that of Senator Kuykendall, who was absent. All the members seemed to recognize the binding force of the caucus, and there was no attempt to evade or disregard it.

The result was as follows:
Simon.....64 Bennett.....1
Kincaid.....23 Blank.....1

Joseph Simon, the new United States senator from Oregon, was born in Germany in 1851. The family moved to California when Joseph was but one year old, and, after five years' residence there, came to Oregon, in 1857. Since that time Mr. Simon has continuously resided in the city of Portland. He obtained his education in the public schools of Portland. In 1872 he was admitted to the bar, and is now and for many years past has been a member of the law firm of Dolph, Mallory & Simon.

In 1877 Mr. Simon was elected to the city council of Portland, and served as a councilman for three years. In 1878 he was elected secretary of the Republican state central committee, and managed the state campaign of that year. In 1880, 1884 and 1886 he was chosen chairman of the Republican state central committee of Oregon, and had charge of the national and state campaigns of those years in Oregon. In 1892 he was chosen a delegate to the Republican national convention, which met at Minneapolis, and was there selected as the member of the national committee for Oregon. In 1890, 1894, 1898, 1902 and 1906 Mr. Simon was elected to the state senate from Multnomah county. At the expiration of the present term, to which he has just been re-elected, he will have served 20 years as a member of that body.

At the sessions of the state senate of 1893, 1891, 1895 and 1897, and the special session of 1898, Mr. Simon was chosen president of the senate, and, the state having no lieutenant-governor, he presided over the senate and over the joint conventions of both houses.

In the Senate.
The senate resolution providing for a constitutional amendment repealing the clause creating the office of state printer was passed Saturday.

The house bill creating the office of game and forestry warden in each county was called up by Senator Michell as a special order of business for the hour, and read the first time.

The committee on ways and means reported back the house joint resolution providing for an emergency appropriation of $25,000 for the Oregon agricultural college at Corvallis. The senate did not concur.

A bill by Dufur to provide for payment of justice court fees into the county treasury was read for the first time.

A senate bill by Morrow, fixing the time for holding terms of circuit court in the sixth judicial district, was read a second and third times, under suspension of the rules, and passed.

A bill by Harmon to protect elk, deer and other game was read the first time.

Hill's registration bill was read the first and second times, and referred to the committee on printing.

A house bill granting Astoria firemen privileges of exemption was read the first and second times, and under suspension the third time, and passed.

A house bill authorizing the county court of Multnomah county to acquire and operate a ferry at Sellwood was read the first time.

In the House.
The Sellwood ferry bill, by Beach, was introduced in the house Saturday, read a first and second times, and passed by a vote of 68 to 8. The bill authorizes Multnomah county to establish, acquire and operate a free ferry at Sellwood.

Maxwell introduced a bill for the regulation of fees to be charged and collected by the county clerk of Tillamook county. Under suspension of rules the bill was read the first, second and third times and passed.

Speaker Carter this morning signed the senate bill establishing a free ferry at Corvallis, and the bill abolishing the railroad commission.

Young's fisheries bill, reported on favorably, was read a second time and referred to the committee on fisheries.

Hon. J. H. McClung was extended the courtesies of the house.

A resolution providing for an appropriation of $25,000 to rebuild the mechanical hall at the agricultural college came up in a new form Saturday, Nichols of Benton introducing a bill providing for an appropriation of that amount.

A committee appointed to look into the cost of the house calendar reported that the average cost daily during the extra session was $26.11, and that it could probably be printed for $17.50, if unnecessary items were omitted.

The report was amended to read, "That the calendar shall not be printed again during this extra session at a cost to exceed $20 per day."

About a dozen new bills of minor importance were read the first time.

The report of the committee on the bill fixing the salaries of Marion county officials was the occasion for quite a tilt between Representatives Flagg and Cummings. The former submitted a report recommending the passage of the bill with an amendment providing salaries still further than provided by the bill. Cummings opposed further reductions, claiming that the figures were below a living basis.

RAPID WORK IS DONE.

The Legislature Is Disposing of Considerable Business.

The settlement of the senatorial question has brought a considerable degree of buoyancy into legislative proceedings. Business moved along with more life Monday than has been seen in routine work before during the session. Five bills were passed by the senate, and seven by the house. The senate was notified by the governor that he had approved two bills—senate bill 13, by Daly of Benton, to authorize the county court of Benton county to establish and operate a free ferry across the Willamette river at Corvallis, and senate bill 21, by Daly of Lake, to repeal the act providing for a board of railroad commissioners.

In the Senate.
Upon motion, ex-State Senator Will R. King was made the guest of the senate.

Brownell of Clackamas, introduced a bill providing that all state printing be done by contract. It was read a first and second time, and referred to the committee on printing.

Representative Moody's bill amending section 1037 of the code relative to foreign attorneys and their admission to practice in Oregon courts was read a second and third time, and passed.

The senate bill relating to mining claims and their status in justice courts was called up by Senator Smith, read a third time and passed.

The senate bill reducing the statutory rate of interest to 6 per cent was read a third time and passed.

The senate bill providing for a constitutional convention in September, 1899, was read a third time, and, after a spirited address by the author, Senator Brownell, was, upon motion of Senator Reed, indefinitely postponed.

The senate bill by Dufur of Wasco, for the protection of hotel and boarding-house keepers was read a third time and passed by a vote of 22 to 4.

A message was received from the house announcing the passage of senate bill No. 66, with an amendment. The senate concurred in the amendment. This is Senator Selling's district attorney salary bill.

The bill by Smith of Baker, regulating Eastern Oregon agricultural societies was read a third time and passed.

In the House.
The first bill to come up on the reconvening of the house Monday afternoon was Senator Reed's bill extending the open season for salmon fishing for a period of 30 days in all water of the state except the Columbia river. By consent, the bill passed to the third reading and was passed without a dissenting vote.

Gray's bill requiring that doors of all public buildings hereafter constructed open outwards was passed, but as no penalty is attached it will be amended in the senate.

Selling's district attorney salary bill was reported back favorably by the Multnomah delegation, with an amendment giving both deputies $150 per month, and was then passed.

Hobkirk's bill giving the public the privilege of inspecting and making copies of records in the office of the recorder of Multnomah county was referred to the committee on judiciary.

The committee on judiciary was also given charge of Moody's bill requiring the payment of taxes in cash and providing for the redemption of county warrants in the order of their issuance.

Curtis' sturgeon protection bill, which was next called up as a special order of business, provoked considerable discussion, and was finally referred to the committee on fisheries and game for further revision.

Nichols' bill providing for an appropriation of $25,000 for the Corvallis agricultural college, to replace the buildings recently destroyed by fire, was passed without opposition. This bill takes the place of the resolution passed earlier in the session, which is considered of no force.

Bayer's bill giving Oregon contractors and the bill establishing a fiscal agency for Oregon in the city of New York, were passed without opposition.

The bill by Young of Clatsop, providing for the protection of elk, passed almost unanimously, only two nays being recorded against. By this bill the killing of elk is prohibited for a period of 11 years from January 1, 1899, and live elk can be kept in parks only by written consent of the game protector.

Flagg's bill reducing the salaries of the Marion county officials by about $9,000 per annum was lost.

The bill of Topping of Coos, providing for the destruction of teachers' examination papers one year after examinations are held, for the purpose of relieving the archives, was defeated.

The bill of Kruse of Clackamas, permitting the practice of healing without the authority of the state medical board, considered to be in the interest of quacks and magnetic healers, was defeated by an overwhelming vote, only seven voting in favor of it.

Hill's bill creating the office of clerk of the justice court and deputy constable in cities of 50,000 population and over, and fixing their salaries, was passed without opposition. This bill fixes the salary of clerk of a justice court at not to exceed $65, and that of deputy constable at $80 per month.

Curtis' bill consolidating all fish laws of the state into one act met with considerable opposition upon being called up for final action. It was referred back to the committee on fisheries and game.

The bill of Ross of Multnomah, abolishing tenancy by entirety, was debated by Moody of Multnomah, McCulloch and McCourt of Marion, and Ceder of Umatilla. Curtis of Clatsop, and Ross also took a hand in the debate. McCulloch was the only one to oppose the bill. It was defeated.

Gained 22 Pounds in 5 Weeks

From the By-Stander, Macomb, Ill.
Alderman Louis W. Camp, of our city, has quite astonished his friends of late, by a remarkable gain in weight. He has gained 22 pounds in five weeks. Those of his friends who do not know the facts of his sickness will read with interest the following:

"I was broken down in health and utterly miserable," said Mr. Camp to our reporter. "I was unable to work much of the time and so badly afflicted with a form of stomach trouble that life was a veritable nightmare.

"I tried various remedies, but during the six months of my sickness I obtained no relief. I had always been a robust, healthy man and sickness bore heavily upon me.

"About two years ago I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I purchased one box and received so much benefit that I used five more and was entirely cured. I gained twenty-two pounds in five weeks. Since I stopped taking the pills I have scarcely had an ache or pain.

Interviewing the Alderman.
"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills restored me to health, and I most heartily recommend them."

L. W. Camp on oath says that the foregoing statement is true.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
