NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

Fifty-Sixth Congress Will Be Republican-Roosevelt Successful in New York.

All except three of the 45 states, Maine, Vermont and Oregon, held elections the first Tuesday in November. Forty-two states elected congressmen. In Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Virginia and West Virginia only congressmen were chosen.

Twenty-three of the states elected legislatures, which will name United States senators, These are: California, Connecticut, Florida, Delaware, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin and West Virginia.

The following states selected a, governor and state officers: California, Colorado, Connceticut, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Nevada, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, North Dakota, Tennessee, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The others, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Florida, Delaware, Missouri, Montana, Ohio, Utah and Washington, voted for minor state officials.

Summary of the Returns. Returns are in from all but a few isolated districts, which will not materially affect the result.

Theodore Roosevelt has been elected governor of New York by a plurality of 20,000. Republicans lose 10 congressmen, electing 15, while Democrats elected 19. The legislature will be Republican. The Ohio congressional delegation remains unchanged, but the Republicans have elected their state ticket by over 50,000 plurality. Returns from Indiana are favorable to the Republicans by about 15,000 plurality; all but four congressmen are Republicans, and the legislature is Republican. In Illinois the house will be Democratic and the senate Republican. The state is Republican by probably 30,000. In Massachusetts the Republicans elected their state ticket, but lost two congressmen. The fusion state ticket wins in Nebraska, but the legislature will be Republican, they having also secured four out of six congressmen. Governor Pingree, of Michigan, has been re-elected. Delaware Republicans elect state, congressional and legislative tickets. Gage is elected governor of California over Maguire by about 20,000 plurality. In Nevada the Republicans elect McMillan governor. Colorado reports a fusion Wyoming is Republican by 1,000 to 1,800. The fusionists won in Idaho. In North Carolina two Republicans out of nine were elected and in Tennessee two out of nine. Voorhees, Republican, is elected governor of New Jersey, and six of the eight congressmen are Republican. Campbell, Democrat, will be the new congressman from Montana, and Thomas, Mormon Democrat, from Utah. Pennsylavnia electes W. A. Stone, Republican, governor by a large plurality. South Dakota will have a Populist governor and a Republican legislature. The elections in the South, as usual, went Dem

The Next Congress.

Republicans will remain in control of the 56th congress. Almost complete returns show that they will have at least 186 votes in the house, Democrats 160, Populists 4, Silver Republicans 3. The senate will probably have 54 Republicans, 24 Democrats, 9 Populists, 1 Silver Republican.

The fact that Canada sends 58 per cent of the cheese imported by Great Britain, while the United States sends only 24 per cent, is explained by the thorough organization of the Canadian dairymen, who are united in an endeavor to produce a uniformly high grade, suited to the demands of the English market. In the province of Ontario alone there are 18 associations of cheesemakers, representing 1,206 factories, with an annual output of

SEQUEL TO A SEA TRAGEDY.

Andersen, the Olive Pecker Murderer,

Must Hang. Washington, Nov. 16.-The United States supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the lower court and denied a writ of habeas corpus to John Andersen, convicted and sentenced to be hanged after his trial in Norfolk, Va., for the murder of the mate of the Olive Pecker.

The Andersen case has attracted widespread attention, being a sea tragedy of singular romance and atro-

The schooner Olive Pecker sailed from Boston, laden with lumber, for a point on the Platte river, Brazil. When 150 miles off the coast of Brazil, Andersen, a Swede, had an altercation with the captain. When the latter retired to the cabin, Andersen followed and shot the captain dead. He then armed himself heavily and went on deck, where, mounted on the fore-castle, he terrorized all on board. The mate, who was aloft, was called down, and while pleading for his life, was shot four times. Then the crew were ordered to throw the dying mate overboard, and on protesting that he was not dead, were assured that he was "dead enough." This done, the crew were marched below at the point of a pistol and ordered to throw the captain overboard. Then Andersen directed that oil be thrown over the lumber, after which the oil-soaked ship was set afire and the murderous crew took to the boats.

Andersen was apprehended at Bahia, Brazil, and sent north on the United States gunboat Lancaster. He was tried and convicted in the United States court at Norfolk, Va., and a stubborn fight was made up to the supreme court, the conviction being confirmed. The last move was in the present application for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that Andersen's constitutional rights were invaded when the lower court assigned him counsel instead of giving him his own choice.

Chief Justice Fuller, in announcing the court's decision, said the records of the case showed that no fundamental right had been denied Andersen, but that he had been represented from first to last by able counsel. The time when counsel was not present was at a preliminary hearing of Andersen, but this was not used in the subsequent trial. The decision of the lower court was affirmed. The effect of this will be to have the execution, which had been stayed until December 9 next, carried

DIED IN HIS PRIME.

Archbishop Gross Receives the Last

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 16 .- Archbishop Gross' death at St. Joseph's hospital today was not wholly nnexpected, but it was thought he might live several days longer. His condition had improved some days ago, but early yesterday morning he began to sink and grew worse rapidly. Death resulted at 8:15 A. M. from valvular heart disease.

Archbishop Gross came East to attend the convention of archhishops held in Washington, but was taken sick in Baltimore, and went to St. Charles' college, where he conducted a retreat, afterwards going to Annapolis for a short stay. He was brought from there to Baltimore by his both r, and taken at once to St. Joseph's hospital. The body will be removed to the home of his cousin, Mrs. Catherine R. Reynolds, 207 East North avenue.

The arrangements of the funeral have not been completed, but it has been decided to bury him from the cathedral at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning, a brief service being held first at the house.

Cardinal Gibbons will conduct a high mass of requiem at the cathedral. The seminarians of St. Mary's seminary will chant the office for the dead, and will attend the funeral in a body.

Cardinal Gibbons regarded Archbish.

op Gross as a most able man, an earnest worker and a good friend. Speaking of him tonight, the cardinal said: "He was an untiring missionary, first in Georgia and then in Oregon, and lost his strength by zealous work in behalf of Christianity; he was indomitable in the service of God, and died from hard work. In his death the country loses a good man,"
