BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

A full line of rubber boots and shoes at the Racket store.

Plymouth Rock chickens wanted. Apply at this office.

Woodworth's new saw mill is expected to start up next week.

Mr. Fred Bailey has completed a barn, 16 by 24, with 60 feet of sheds.

Money to loan on real estate by JOHN L. HENDERSON, agt.

Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.

Dr. R. W. Benjamin, dentist, will be in Hood River Nov. 18th and 19th at the Mt. Hood hotel.

E. H. Pickard, painter and decorator; estimates gratis; prices moderate; satisfaction guaranteed. Leave orders at Glacier pharmacy.

Mr. Ed Froebe of Sherman county is visiting his friend Frank Cuddy. Mr. Froebe is the owner of Bigelow Springs ranch, one of the best in that rich farming section.

Old papers for sale at this office, 25 cents for 100. Here's your chance to make your bachelor's cabin warm by papering its walls and get cheap reading matter for all winter.

Mr. C. H. Stranahan moved to Sherman county on Monday, where he will engage in wheat growing on his big ranch near Rufus. He still retains his Hood River home and farm.

Rev. J. W. Rigby and M. P. Isenberg, members of the council of administration of the Grand Army of the Republic, went to Portland Tuesday to attend a meeting of that body.

The county court has appropriated blasting material for the grade of the new road on the East Side by Reynolds place, and Supervisor Dukes will start with a force of men next week to finish it.

Ticket receipts of the O. R. & N. Co. at Hood River for September, 1898, gained 120 per cent over receipts for the same month last year. Receipts for October this year nearly doubled the receipts for October, 1897.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey started on Monday for their old home at Warrensburg, Mo., where they will visit for the winter. Mr. Bailey took along samples of apples and will do some advertising for Hood River.

J. C. Markley caught a salmon in Hood river with hook and line, one day last week, that weighed over twenty pounds. This story would be hard to believe, but it is vouched for by Lee Morse, who weighed the fish. The GLACIER got none of the salmon.

Circuit court is in session at The Dalles. The jury panel was very light on Hood River, only three of our citizens being drawn—J. T. Neff, Troy Shelley and J. H. Shoemaker. The first two named being engaged in teaching school, of course they were excused.

The successful applicants at the teachers' examination at The Dalles last week were: Second grade, Mrs. R. R. Allard and Miss Bessie Hastings; third grade, Miss Hester Howe and G. W. McClure. Miss Hester Howe's rating would entitle her to a second grade certificate.

Mr. George Knapp removed to Gornou, Sherman county, on Monday, where he has contracted to build a big barn for John Freeburg. His son Clarence will run the ranch on the Washington side during his father's absence. Mr. Knapp, by the way, has one of the earliest plows on the Columbia river.

The Travers club will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Rand, Tuesday evening, December 6th. Each person attending will represent his or her favorite author by some dress designation, also by a recitation, essay, reading, etc., taken from said author's work so represented, as a piece of brier pinned on the dress might represent Ian MacLaren's "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush."

Canby post, G. A. R., had a good meeting last Saturday, with a full attendance. Nominations for officers for the coming year were made and election will follow at next meeting. The nominations were as follows: Commander, M. P. Isenberg; senior vice, J. W. Rigby and A. L. Phelps; junior vice, W. H. Perry; chaplain, G. R. Castner; surgeon, C. J. Hayes; quartermaster, L. Henry; adjutant, Thos. J. Cuning; Comdr. Isenberg, in a neat speech, thanked the post for the nomination, said he would be only too glad to serve the post in any capacity, and paid a glowing tribute to the principles of the order and the flag.

Mr. G. R. Castner, who has charge of the Council place, gathered 800 boxes of apples from 44 Baldwin trees. Of the 800 boxes 400 are good salable apples and the balance second class or cder apples. The apples were so even in size that Mr. Shirrell, an expert packer, packed 70 boxes in nine hours last Friday. The 44 trees cover less than half an acre. At 75 cents a box, the price paid by Mr. Oscar Stranahan, the 400 boxes brought $300, and the 200 boxes of second class ought to sell for enough to pay all the expense of gathering the fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Clark gave a party in honor of their daughter Nellie, last Friday evening, which was a very pleasant affair. The evening was spent in playing games, after which a most delicious lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Clark, Nellie and Earl Clark, Mrs. Jackson, Della Bolling, Maud McCray, Carrie and Lillian Stubbs, Vera Jackson, Wm. Gregory, C. Clark, Ed Williams, D. Rand, Chester Shutes, Prof. Alard, Samuel Blowers, Edgar Stevens, Geo. Chamberlain, and Guy Crow.

The Pope Mfg. Co., of Hartford, Conn., has issued the Columbia desk pad calendar for 1899. This handy reminder has been for years one of the most pleasing of special advertising features. We note that the little calendar is very similar in design and make-up to the 1898 calendar, although it has more artistic covers and is more profusely illustrated. Any person may obtain a copy by applying to the nearest Columbia dealer or by sending five 2-cent stamps to the Calendar Department, Pope Mfg. Co., Hartford, Conn.

The Glacier has been made agent for the sale of tickets for the grand benefit entertainment for the benefit of widows and orphans of the men killed on the trial trip of the torpedo boat Davis. The entertainment will be given at the Marquam Grand theater, Monday, December 5, 1898. The benefit is given by the employes of Wolff and Zwickler iron works. The object is a worthy one and we will be glad to sell the 20 tickets left with us. Tickets $1.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church held a very enjoyable social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davidson, last Saturday evening. In guesses about "the apple," Miss Eliza Stevens won the prize. Mr. James Parker got the booby prize. They will give their next social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hershner, on Friday evening November 25th.

W. A. Slingerland butchered three hogs last week that weighed 980 pounds. There is nothing remarkable in this statement, but the hogs were grown and fattened on prunes. Three weeks before killing they were fed on shorts. The time has come when Hood River can fatten pork without relying upon high-priced feed from a distance.

By special request, Prof. Dant will return to Hood River next Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 21st and 22nd, as he could not wait on all his patients; but on his return everybody is invited to call, and all examinations will be free of charge. The professor is without doubt the best eye specialist on the coast, and he can tell you more about your eyes than you know yourself.

C. L. Copple bought Mr. Lockman's apples, on the Middlewart place, and is storing them in the Champlin building, where a force of men, with Geo. McIntosh in charge, are packing the apples ready for shipment. Mr. Lockman had over 1300 bushels of fine apples.

Hon. John Michell and W. H. Butts came down from The Dalles yesterday along with 20 others of the order of Red Men, to attend the funeral of James Roberts, who was a member of The Dalles tribe. Mr. Michell is grand sachem of the order in Oregon.

In a freight train wreck on the O. R. & N. at Riparia, a few days ago, a fireman named Doremus had both arms broken and was hurt internally. Mr. J. J. Luckey has good reason to suppose that the injured man is Fred C. Doremus, his brother-in-law.

Rev. J. W. Rigby returned Wednesday night from Portland, where he attended a meeting of the council of administration of the G. A. R. The date set for the next convocation at McMinnville is June 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

In these muddy times see that your shoes are in good repair; C. Welds, the shoemaker, will do your mending and half-soaking in the best manner at reasonable rates. A stitch in time saves money.

W. E. Shirrell packed 80 boxes of five-tier apples, last Wednesday, in 8 hours, at G. R. Castner's place. In eighty boxes of five-tier apples in the Oregon box it is said there would be 15,000 apples.

The county court last week allowed bills to Hood River citizens as follows: H. E. Tomlinson, Dr. Shaw, Mrs. M. S. Noteman, Williams & Brosius, Chas. Chandler.

Bradley, photographer, is giving reduced rates in carbon work from now till the holidays. Call early so that your cards will be finished in time for Christmas.

Mrs. M. S. Noteman is putting up a good quality of mince meat in jars, which is for sale at the stores of G. D. Woodworth and Bone & McDonald.

Mr. Samuel Clark, an old-time resident of Hood River, now living at Moscow, Idaho, passed through here Monday on his way to McMinnville.

E. S. Olinger was in Portland during the week. We learn by the Oregonian that Eph was chief of the Salem fire department 20 years ago.

Wm. Ehrich and Chris Dethman of the East Side are digging wells. Mr. Ehrich got a good well at his house at a depth of 12 feet.

Services at the Congregational church next Sunday both morning and evening. Subject of morning sermon, "Finding men."

In the account of losses in the fire at Dawson appears the name of Foley, for $5,000. Foley is the partner of Chris Bartsch.

Dr. Benjamin, dentist, is now making trips every week to Hood River. He will be here tomorrow and Saturday.

Prof. Dant of The Dalles, the eye specialist, was in town Monday and will hereafter visit Hood River regularly.

Marriage license was granted in Portland on Tuesday to Earnest Loy and May Seymour.

Mr. Pratt Whitecomb came up from Portland last Friday.

"Hercules"

Men's Shoes. Just what the name implies. THE STRONGEST. Cut from VERY BEST heavy kangaroo calf and oak stock. Hand made, unlined, strong silk and wax thread stitching, and riveted. Lace or congress. THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Mr. I. J. Blount of Tacoma came to Hood River last week to visit his mother and other relatives. The Blount family, mother, two sons and two daughters, are all together now for the first time in 25 years.

A school entertainment will be given Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 23, at A. O. U. W. hall. The programme will consist of "A Thanksgiving Party," at which Columbia, Uncle Sam and the thirteen original states will be present. Songs, orations and instrumental music. Admission 10c; proceeds to go towards the school library.

F. M. Simpson, traveling agent for the Examiner, was in Hood River Wednesday.

Dr. Watt's father is visiting Hood River.

The ball to be given by Hobson camp, M. W. A., promises to be a grand success.

Common Council.

Council met November 10, 1898. Present, Mayor Smith, Aldermen Bell, Dukes, Prather, Bradford and Ferguson; Treasurer M. H. Nickelsen, and Recorder J. R. Nickelsen.

Minutes of previous meeting read approved.

Bills of J. P. Watson and O. P. McFall, for services as marshal on 4th of July, ordered paid.

Recorder reported receiving $9 from Marshal Kent for two shows in October. Treasurer Nickelsen reported $62.31 cash on hand and all indebtedness paid.

On motion of Bradford, the resignation of T. B. Kent as marshal was accepted.

E. S. Olinger was elected marshal.

On motion of Bell, the Champlin building was ordered secured for holding election December 8th. Judges of election were appointed as follows: W. J. Smith, J. P. Watson and William Thompson; clerks, E. J. Rand and H. F. Davidson. Adjourned.

Important Notice.

From this date until closed out, all of our ladies' walking and trimmed hats and trimming will be offered for sale at 20 to 40 per cent below our regular price. These goods must go regardless of cost.

A Pleasant Social Party.

One of the pleasantest parties of the season was given in honor of Miss Grace Campbell at her home last Friday evening. Instrumental and vocal music and games were the order of the evening, after which was served a most elegant lunch. All expressed themselves as having a good time. Those present were: Grace Campbell, Bernice Foley, Nettie Hart, Nannie Gerkip, Margaret Locke, Ethel Woodworth, May Boorman, Mary Foley, Lydia Crowe, Clara Blythe, Bertina Prather, Blanche Blowers, Nellie Reynolds, Idel Woodworth, Belle Howell, Gladys Hartley, Daisy Campbell, Ollie Sturges, Grace Howell, Lois Campbell, Elmer Campbell, Roy Ellis, Emory Davyport, Thos. Calkins, Melge Bartness, Melville Foley, Percy Logsdon, Earl Bartness, Willie Warren, Walter Hall, Roy Woodworth, Alfred Eastman, Floyd Campbell, Guy Woodworth, William Dewey Campbell, Mr. Gerkin, Mr. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Campbell.

Died.

At Hood River, Oregon, November 15, 1898, James Roberts, a native of Galashiels, Scotland, aged 72 years.

Deceased came to California in 1858 and was superintendent of the Mission Woolen mills for 20 years; there after, general manager for the Mission and Pioneer factory, retiring from business owing to old age. He was an honest man and much respected. He has a brother in California. Funeral was held from the Congregational church on Thursday and was largely attended. Rev. J. L. Herschner conducting services. Burial was in Idlewilde cemetery.

In Hood River valley, East Side, November 16, 1898, of consumption, Mark Winchell, aged about 35 years.

Thanksgiving Service.

The churches of Hood River will unite in holding a Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church next Thursday at 11 a. m. Rev. J. T. Merrill will preach the sermon.

A telephone line will be built from The Dalles to Prineville.

Elder Geo. H. Barnett died at The Dalles, Nov. 10th, aged 69 years. Elder J. W. Jenkins was called to conduct the funeral services.
