The GLACIER goes to press one day earlier this week than usual in order to give its employes a chance to attend Thanksgiving services and give thanks over their corn beef and cabbage at home.

This is the time of year when the sagacious man or woman begins to look over the newspaper ads to ascertain where they can get something suitable for Christmas presents. Don't forget that the GLACIER sent to a friend will make a very acceptable Christmas present.

Prof. Allard finds it difficult to provide play room for the pupils at the public school on days when it is raining or the grounds are too muddy for them to exercise on the outside. The basement of the building was intended for the pupils on stormy days, but it is now filled with wood, and there is no room for the pupils to make use of it.

Work on the new grade on the big hill on the East Side will be commenced next Monday. Supervisors Kennedy and Dukes will be on hand with a force of men each, if the weather is favorable. A good deal of volunteer work has been supervised, and it is the intention of the two supervisors to push the work to completion. The county court has furnished the blasting material, and all that is now needed is labor, which will no doubt be volunteered.

Mr. J. J. Luckey received a letter on Monday from his sister, Mrs. F. C. Doremus, stating that her husband was getting along nicely in the hospital at Walla Walla. His injuries consisted of both arms broken, the right arm in two places, and the right wrist dislocated. He fell down an embankment 35 or 40 feet and sacks of wheat fell on top of him. At one time he was reported dead, and a Dalles paper said he had been buried at Hood River. His injuries will make him a cripple for life, for which his Hood River friends extend their sympathy.

Today or tomorrow, Mrs. A. C. Blount and Mrs. Amelia Green will start East over the Northern Pacific for Missouri. Mrs. Blount is the mother of L. D. Blount. Mrs. Akers is a sister to Mrs. Reed and has been visiting in Hood River for a couple of months. Mr. J. L. Blount will accompany the party as far as his home at Tacoma.

Remember that tickets are for sale at the GLACIER office for the entertainment to be given at the Marquam Grand for the benefit of the families of the men killed by the explosion on the torpedo boat Davis. It is a patriotic duty we owe to help this cause, whether we make use of the tickets or not.

Chris Dethman of the East Side butchered two hogs last week that weighed 300 pounds—one 420, the other 380. We have Mr. Dethman's word for it that these hogs were fattened on codlin moth. Thus another resource is opened up to Hood River, which in extent is unlimited.

Everybody is hereby notified that the entertainment to be given by the school children in A. O. U. W. hall this Wednesday evening is going to be first class in every particular. You will miss something good if you don't attend.

A few inches of snow covered the valley on Monday morning. Tuesday morning more snow was threatened, but the welcome chinook wind came along and the snow disappeared. Heavy rains have since been the order.

M. F. Eggert came up Saturday evening and spent three days in his elegant new residence, just completed, which is the best house in the valley. It is finished with all modern conveniences, equal to a city residence.

Call at Williams & Brosius drug store and see the fine views of Mt. Hood scenery for sale there. The work is of the best quality, and the pictures will make nice holiday presents.

Mrs. Smith, sister of our townsman Mr. Wm. Gregory, and Miss Walters, daughter of Rev. J. J. Walters, of Portland are visiting in Hood River.

The young people of the Congregational church will meet at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hershner on Friday evening.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief corps desire to return thanks to the participants in the programme at the Manila social.

H. H. Tomlinson returned Wednesday from a trip to The Dalles.

Resolutions of Sympathy.
Whereas, It has seemed good in the wisdom and love of Almighty God to summon unto Himself our kind neighbor and dear friend, Mrs. Victoria C. Bateham, who died at Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 6, 1898, after a brief illness; and

Whereas, Mrs. Bateham was a charter member of the Travers Literary Club, Hood River, Oregon, and was always ardent in its interests and efficient in its work; therefore,

Resolved, That the members of the above named club, assembled in regular session at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Graham, on Nov. 7, 1898, hereby desire to express their sincere appreciation of her worth as a woman, her devotion as a companion and mother, and her untiring zeal in securing the intellectual and moral culture and well-being of all our members.

Resolved, further, That we record our deep sorrow at her sudden departure, and the dispensation that has deprived our Society of her cheering presence, wise counsels and earnest support, and we hereby express to her sorrowing husband, Mr. A. P. Bateham, and their dear little daughter Maude, in the irreparable loss they have sustained, our sincere, heartfelt sympathy and love.

J. L. HENDERSON,
ANNE C. SMITH,
ALICE GRAHAM,
Committee.

Adventures on a Bike.
Attorney John L. Henderson made a trip to The Dalles last week on his wheel, following the railroad track. Nothing very startling in this statement so far, but for daring and hair-breadth escapes it knocks out his famous swim to the Cascades. He left Hood River late in the afternoon. When about half way his wheel gave out by the tire coming off the rim. He fixed it as best he could and then undertook to travel on the county road. Of course he got on the wrong road, which took him to an uninhabited region and lost him in the roughest country he ever traveled over on a dark night. Finally he arrived at the Dalles at 7 o'clock. Coming home next day he met a train on one of the highest trestles above Mosier. Thinking he could beat the train to the end of the trestle, he forced his bike along, but found he couldn't make it, and the train was within 20 feet of him. He got off onto a bent not a second too soon, as the breeze started by the cowcatcher waved his coat-tails. From Mosier to Hood River he rode every trestle. The severe jerking when he struck the ties threw him off his bike on a trestle, and he came within a hair's breadth of pitching head foremost to the ground 40 feet below. That Attorney Henderson will some day furnish a live and startling item, though there may be a dead subject, we feel assured.

Important Notice.
From this date until closed out, all of our ladies' walking and trimmed hats and trimming will be offered for sale at 20 to 40 per cent below our regular price. These goods must go regardless of cost.

Canyon City appeals to other towns in the state for aid for its people who have been burned out of house and home.

In the Mount Hood settlement snow fell to the depth of four inches on Monday.

Valley Improvement Company.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Valley Improvement company was held last Monday.

In the absence of the secretary, Claude Copple, W. H. Bishop was elected to act as secretary for the meeting. On calling the roll it was found that 10614 shares were represented out of a total of 11301.

Forty-three shareholders were represented by proxy. Judge Kent was appointed by the meeting to examine the proxies and report on their correctness. He found that some of the proxies did not contain revenue stamps, according to law. Stamps were procured and affixed. Reports of the officers showed that 460 inches of water were sold last season, and that the total expense, including gaugers' salaries and building lateral flumes, was $875. Attorney Henderson was called upon to give advice in regard to the revenue law, and he found that all certificates of stock issued since the first of July, and all transfers of stock, would require revenue stamps. Uncle Sam's exchequer was further enriched by the cancellation of more stamps.

For directors, the following gentlemen were elected: F. Davenport, C. A. Ross, W. H. Bishop, H. H. Bailey, Geo. P. Crowell, Wm. Boorman, M. M. Davenport. The new board organized by electing F. Davenport president, M. M. Davenport vice president, W. H. Bishop secretary, Geo. P. Crowell treasurer, and H. H. Bailey superintendent.

Married.
In Portland, Or., November 15, 1898, Earnest Loy and May Seymour, both of Hood River.

Mild Weather in New York.
Mrs. P. A. LaFrance of Elmira, a constant reader and among the first subscribers of the GLACIER, sends the following clippings from Elmira, New York, papers showing that they are having a remarkably mild fall:

It seems that a number of Brighantonians went raspberrying yesterday—a funny thing to do on the 9th day of October. Among others, Dr. L. A. Martin, who had been up to Greene, brought home several branches of these berries in various stages of development, some of them nicely ripe.

The doctor remarked that it is not often a man can go berrying and get-shutting on the same day. The recent hot spell is supposed to have fooled the raspberries into thinking next summer was here.—Herald, October 13th.

This splendid autumnal weather is responsible for many extraordinary things. The other day Miss Mary, daughter of W. W. Bartlett of Mead's Creek, picked two quarts of red raspberries off a berry patch on their farm. It was the second growth of the year, and if "Jack Frost" stays away much longer Mr. Bartlett's family will soon have raspberries to give away.—Democrat, October 15th.

Skamania County Items.
From the Pioneer.

Married.—At Nelson creek, November 12th, Wilbur Foster to Miss Flora I. Eymann, both of Skamania county.

Election once over and gone, truth will begin to creep back into the average editorial santum after having been expelled during the political campaign.

Mrs. Orser and daughter Sadie of Chenoweth are in The Dalles, the daughter continuing to take treatment from Dr. Rinehart. We hope Sadie will soon be her old self again, for health is wealth always.

That veteran pioneer of progress, R. O. Evans, has grasped the implements of street grading, shed his coat and gone at it on Main street. The pioneers and path finders must always lead the way; soon the laggard and irresolute will follow in the wake.

We understand that the people of the western edge of Klickitat county are very desirous of being set over into Skamania. If that is true now is the time to commence agitating the question. They claim that it is a great deal easier for them to reach Stevenson by the river than Goldendale overland. The western row of townships of Klickitat ought to belong to this county any way as they are separated from the rest of that county by a high range of mountains which have to be crossed in order to get to the county seat.

A Pleasant Social.
Last Friday evening, November 18th, a party, given in honor of Miss Nettie O. Hart, assistant school teacher at Frankton, was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Smith.

The evening was spent in playing games, and recitations were given by Nettie Hart, Grace Howell and Idell Woodworth. A good old fashioned oyster lunch was served and every one enjoyed themselves.

Those present were: Nettie Hart, Bernice Foley, Elmer Campbell, Willie Warren, Nannie Gerkin, Emory Davenport, Carrie Barley, Grace Campbell, Thomas Calkins, Walter Hull, Mary Foley, William Buck, Belle Howell, Gladys Hartley, Melville Foley, Earl Bartmes, Grace Howell, Guy Woodworth, Ezma Jones, Clara Blythe, Idell Woodworth, Roy Woodworth, Meigs Bartmes, Florence Wheeler, Ethel Woodworth, Goia Smith, Ethel Smith, Edwood Luckey, Edward Barley, Marie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Smith.

A Sure Sign of Croup.
Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

From New Zealand.
REESTON, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1898. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children. E. J. SCANTLEBURY.

For sale by Williams & Brosius.

Big Sermon in a Few Words.
If you have a little farm or business and you are out of debt don't fret or work yourself and wife to the grave for the sake of making money. You have but one life to live and it is very brief at best. Take a little pleasure and comfort as you go along day by day and do a little good for others. A morbid, innate longing to possess the earth, to grab everything in sight is the foundation of more misery than any other one thing. Live as you would wish to die.
