The ladies of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. Canfield on Friday of this week, to complete arrangements for the Military Bazar. All persons having articles to donate to the Military Bazar are requested to bring them to the residence of Mrs. H. F. Davidson as soon as possible, that the marking committee may complete its work early. Mrs. J. L. Atkinson came up from Portland last Friday to visit her father, Mr. Geo. Booth, who was on the sick list last week. Mr. Booth is much improved and came to town Monday. Mrs. Atkinson returned home Tuesday morning. A. F. The articles were distributed among the whole regiment. A Mormon meeting will be held in A. O. U. W. hall next Sunday at 3.30. Elders James S. Geddes, Benj. D. Jensen, W. J. Barnes, Geo. C. The entertainment given by the pupils of the public schools, Wednesday evening of last week, was a brilliant success. The hall was crowded and the door receipts, at 10 cents admission, amounted to $14.75. The recitations, singing and tableaux were all good. Percy Legsdon's Thanksgiving oration was especially well spoken of by all who heard it. The attention of all is called to the Military Bazar to be given by the ladies' aid society of the Congregational church, Dec. 8th, 9th and 10th, in A. O. U. W. hall. The ladies have been preparing for this occasion for a number of weeks and will have many attractive articles to offer, to say nothing of the fine dinners and lunches for which they are noted. Evening entertainments are being prepared, further notice of which will be given next week. Mr. J. K. Stocking of Sherman county is in the valley and says he will buy a ranch and make his home here. Mr. Stocking is an old soldier and served through the civil war in the 105th Ohio. At the battle of Perryville he was wounded twice, one ball striking him in the head, for which he draws a pension. He subscribed for the GLACIER and says as soon as he gets located he will come in and subscribe for a dozen copies of the paper to send to friends East and let them know something of this the best country on earth.

A good deal of complaint is being made about boys peddling worry apples at the depot when the trains pass. For a community that has the reputation of growing good apples that Hood River has it is a disgrace to allow worry apples to be sold to strangers passing on the cars. It is the same in strawberry time—the boys procure the cheapest berries they can find and offer them for sale to strangers. The town council should take the matter in hand and put a stop to the boys peddling any but good fruit at the trains. There is no objection of course to the boys peddling fruit, but let them peddle good fruit, and there will be more money in the business for them. A meeting of citizens was held last Saturday and again on Monday to take steps towards incorporating a stock company for the purpose of improving Hood river. A committee appointed at the first meeting to estimate the immediate necessary expense reported that about $7,600 would be required. A committee of three was then selected to draft articles of incorporation and open stock books for the purpose of receiving subscriptions. The committee consists of P. S. Davidson, N. C. Evans and C. A. Bell. Sam Bartmess and M. E. Cook made a trade in chairs on Tuesday, Cook traded 55 cents to boot. Bartmess traded before seeing Cook's chair and got a cane-bottom chair without a bottom and minus one rung, and which looks like it might have laid out in the weather for many a hard winter. Cook walked off with a nice new rawhide chair, worth 60 cents. The chair that Cook worked off for a nickel can be seen on Bartmess' porch. Walter Dickey, a former Hood River boy, now a soldier of Co. L, Second Oregon volunteers, returned last week to Hood River on sick furlough. He had typhoid fever at Manila, and at one time was reported dead. A detail was made from his company to prepare his body for burial, and when the men detailed arrived at the hospital Dickey was found to be alive and was soon afterwards sent home on a hospital ship. Capt. P. S. Davidson and son P. S. Davidson, Jr., arrived here last week from Wisconsin. The captain gives every assurance that he will build his big saw mill at Hood River, and is ready to go to work at once to build the mill as soon as he finds that our citizens will stand together and give him the privilege of driving logs in Hood river and sell him land on which it would be suitable to locate his mills. The Billekenderfer typewriter is advertised in the GLACIER today. If any of our readers are thinking of investing in a typewriter, they will do well to send to Mr. Lewis for a catalogue and study the merits of his machine before buying a higher priced one. The GLACIER has made use of a Billekenderfer typewriter for the past three months and finds it all that was claimed for it by the agent. The Davidson Fruit Co. has made over one thousand gallons of cider this fall, most of which the company still has on hand and which will be made into champagne cider. The company has also made up a big lot of a fine quality of apple butter, for which, after sending out samples, orders are now coming in. Supervisor Kennedy will have a big road scraper at work on the East Side grade next Monday, Dec. 5th, and will need at least twenty men, and can make use of as many as will offer their services. The rains during this week have interfered with the work, but it will be pushed by both supervisors whenever the weather will permit. The GLACIER force was kindly remembered by friends who donated good things for Thanksgiving dinner. Wm. Tillett sent spare ribs, which proved to be better than turkey; J. Wickham brought celery, John A. Wilson cauliflower, and F. R. Absten a big potato that made enough for three meals. M. E. Cook arrived here on Sunday from Cascade City, B. C. Mrs. Cook has been ill for two or three weeks, which caused his return earlier than he intended, but he will now remain here for the winter. He reports times lively in Cascade City. W. J. Campbell and B. Warren give notice that they know who has been cutting the ash timber on their lands behind the bluff, and that if the parties do not come and settle, they will be prosecuted. Mr. J. F. Armor left a bundle of sorghum cane at this office which was grown by him. The stalks are about ten feet high. They show that Hood River can grow its own sweetness if it ever becomes necessary. Mr. J. H. Shoemaker, who was on jury duty in the circuit court, was excused owing to a press of business at home, and returned to Hood River Thanksgiving evening. The trustees of the U. B. church have purchased the second lot in the block west of the church, on the same side of the street, and the church will erect a parsonage thereon. Miss Maude Parker, who is attending high school at Aurora, Ill., near Chicago, accepted an invitation to spend Thanksgiving with friends in that city. The school in Barrett district is still filling up with pupils, and last week the directors found it necessary to order more new desks for the school rooms. Mr. Joseph A. Wilson returned to Hood River last week from Yreka, Cal., where he has been sojourning for a couple of months. Dr. Benjamin will be at the Mount Hood hotel tomorrow and Saturday, prepared to do dental work in all lines. Miss Nettie Hart closed her term of school in the primary department of the Frankton school last week. Hog stories keep coming in. The latest is that a citizen of Belmont raises pork on prayer and water. An old gentleman named O. Sandman died near Mt. Hood last Sunday of cancer of the stomach. G. A. R. meeting tomorrow, when the annual election will take place. A full attendance is desired. Heavy rains have prevailed in the valley with snow on the hills, during the past week. Dr. Benjamin, dentist, will be in Hood River Friday and Saturday, Dec. 2d and 3d. One thousand sacks of potatoes wanted by G. D. Woodworth. Mrs. J. J. Luckey is sick with the grip.

The stock books of the Hood River Transportation and Room Co. will be open Saturday at Prather's office. It is the duty of every one interested in Hood River to take stock. No one so poor but that he can take at least one share at $10. Harbison Bros. sold 80 acres of their place on the East Side to Mr. Hanigan of Sherman county, who will move here by March 1st. This is the best improved 80 acres in Hood River and sold for $5,000. If anybody knows of the whereabouts of my dog—a white poodle—he will greatly oblige C. L. MORSE. C. L. Cople is loading three cars with apples and will start Sunday or Monday for Illinois to make sale of the apples. Boom Company Organized. Wednesday, Dec. 1st, a meeting of citizens was held to hear the report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting to draft articles of incorporation for the organization of a company to improve Hood river. On motion, the report of the committee was adopted. Motion made and carried that the incorporators proceed at once to file articles of incorporation and open stock books on Saturday next. Motion carried unanimously that the citizens of Hood River assembled signify their intention to become stockholders and prosecute the work to completion. A vote of thanks by the citizens of Hood River was extended to N. C. Evans and Mr. Judson for their untiring zeal in carrying forward this work. Adjourned subject to the call of the incorporators. S. E. BARTMESS, Secretary.

Fast Work at Apple Packing. HOOD RIVER, Nov. 28, 1898.—Editor GLACIER: Allow me to answer some questions through your paper as to apple packing. Since Mr. Sherrill made a record on packing apples I have been asked how many I could pack, and the answer is as follows: I have packed apples of all kinds and most all sizes, but this year four and five tier only. It is owing to how the apples come on the table as to how many I can pack. On Friday, Nov. 18th, myself and Andy Getchel graded and packed 207 boxes of first class Baldwin apples, 4 and 5 tiers, in just seven hours. Mr. Getchel packed 101 and I packed 106. This is a record that would be hard for me to beat every day. It is a record of 21 boxes more than I have heard of. The apples we packed belonged to Mr. D. Lockman, on the Middeswart place, and were bought by Mr. C. L. Cople. Now, this statement may be questioned, but the men who witnessed the work and whose names are signed below can testify to its truth. GEO. MCINTOSH, ANDY GETCHEL, W. Lockman, F. Fossberg, Art. Getchel, D. Lockman. Ninety-six, or 112 four-tier apples, fill a box. Of five-tiers, 200 fill a box. If Mr. McIntosh packed all four-tiers, he handled 10,176 apples, or 11,872. If he packed all five-tiers he handled 21,200 apples in seven hours. Mr. Sherrill packed 80 boxes of five-tier apples in eight hours, handling 16,000 apples.
