 Steel wedges for sale at the blacksmith shop.
 A full line of rubber boots and shoes at the Racket store.
 Money to loan on real estate by JOHN L. HENDERSON, sgt.
 Extra fine woolen underwear, for ladies and gents, at the Racket Store.
 Wm. Yates, P. M., is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
 Rev. Benj. Davidson preached morning and evening at Viento last Sunday.
 Supervisor Arnold had some gravel hauled on the state road just above Haynes hill last week.
 G. D. Woodworth has purchased L. Neff's half block and residence in town, paying therefor $1,300.
 A dance, with an oyster supper, will be held at William Copples place, in Dukes valley, Thursday night, Dec. 29.
 December 30th a grand ball will be given at White Salmon to raise funds to complete the steamer dock at that place.
 Don't fail to take advantage of our offer of the Twice-a-Week Republic with the GLACIER, both papers, for $2 a year.
 T. H. Clark spent last week in Portland, where he consulted specialists in regard to his eyes, but didn't get much encouragement.
 E. H. Pickard, painter and decorator; estimates gratis; prices moderate; satisfaction guaranteed. Leave orders at Glacier pharmacy.
 Ed Williams, of the firm of Williams & Brosius, has bought the building known as the Lauglie house and the lot on which it stands.
 E. Butler was arrested on Monday and taken before Recorder Nickelsen and fined for teaming within the town limits without a license.
 Mrs. Dr. Watt, Avis Watt, Miss Anne Smith and Elmer Rand went to Portland last Friday. The ladies of the party returned on Sunday night's train.
 Dr. Carns writes from his old home in Kansas that he has been sick with an attack of pleurisy, but is better again and expects to come back to Oregon in the spring.
 The old school house in Barrett district was sold last week to W. A. Slingerland, who will tear it down and remove the lumber to his place on the East Side. The price paid was $40.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. Henry returned from their trip to Nebraska on Monday, glad to get home again. The judge caught cold on the way home, but otherwise had good health on the trip.
 Lumber is on the ground for the building of the U. B. parsonage. The committee soliciting funds and work for the new building have met with good success, and many have subscribed liberally.
 C. H. Stranahan came down from Rufus last Saturday. He reports the weather no colder there than here, with little or no wind. Maude and Ida Stranahan will go home to Rufus next Saturday.
 Floating ice closed the Columbia river at Crates Point and at Menalosee Island on Monday. The steamer Inland Flyer, on its way from Portland to The Dalles, could get no further than Stanley's Rock.
 The janitor of the public school building is having a hard time during this cold weather to heat the building. The furnace warms three rooms but is not sufficient to heat four. The school board purchased a stove on Tuesday and placed it in Miss Stevens' room.
 A house moving day was held at J. H. Gerdes' place on Monday. The neighbors gathered and moved the house from the Jones place, which Mr. Gerdes has purchased and will use for a barn. Mr. Gerdes is still a cripple from the effects of the accident he met with on the flume last fall. He is able to get about on crutches.
 Eleanor, the little four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, swallowed a brass buckle about three weeks ago. The child could not suffer nor complain, but she has no appetite and has become quite thin. Mr. Smith took the child to Portland on Tuesday and will have it examined by X rays.

Articles of incorporation of the Lost Lake Lumbering Co. were filed for record with the county clerk on Monday. The capital stock is $75,000, divided into 750 shares of $100 each. Its incorporators are F. H. Button, Ethel P. Button, and P. S. Davidson, Jr., and the object is to engage in buying and selling timber land and other real property; to build, construct and maintain saw mills, to sell and otherwise handle saw logs and other wooden produce; to build and operate steamboats and other water crafts on the Columbia and tributaries; and to improve the stream of Hood river and other logging streams. The principal office of the company will be at Hood River.
Officers of Hood River chapter, No. 25, O. E. S., for 1899, were elected at last meeting: Mrs. Eva Haynes, W. M.; C. J. Hayes, W. P.; Mrs. Mary B. Davidson, A. M.; G. E. Williams, Sec'y.; Ed Fewel, Treas.; Mrs. Frances Morse, Cond.; Mrs. A. L. Phelps, A. C.; Mrs. Minnie Nickelsen, Ada; Mrs. Phoebe Morse, Ruth; Mrs. Rachael Hershner, Esther; Mrs. A. S. Blowers, Martha; Mrs. Eida Bartness, Electa; Mrs. Ann Hayes, Warden; A. L. Phelps, Sentinel; Mrs. Anna Flagg, Chaplain; L. E. Morse, Marshal.
 The Travers Literary club will meet on the first Monday evening in January at the residence of Mrs. C. M. Wolfard. Each member is requested to come prepared to give a short quotation or reading from one of the following American poets: Longfellow, Bryant, Holmes, Whittier, Lowell, Poe, Bayard Taylor, Eugene Field, Bret Harte, Joaquin Miller. Select your quotation from your favorite of these ten. COMMITTEE.
 The ladies of the aid society of the U. B. church will give a geographical rebus social at the Odd Fellows hall Saturday evening. A prize will be awarded the person making the most correct guesses. The names used in the rebus must be proper names—name of a city, state, river, etc. A ten cent lunch will be served for the benefit of the society. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
 The Barrett school house was broken into last Friday night by a tramp, probably, who made a fire in the stove and slept there during the night. A drunken man was seen in the neighborhood that evening, and it is supposed that he was the guilty party. He broke a window, the water pail and two lamp reflectors, which was about all the damage done.
 The weather remains cold. Tuesday morning the thermometer marked 13 degrees above zero. Since then it has moderated and yesterday it stood at 23 degrees above zero. There is no snow, and the ground is frozen seven inches. Strawberry plants and late sown wheat will suffer. Mr. A. Winans with a force of men commenced cutting ice yesterday.
 Attention is called to the notice of the levy of an assessment on the capital stock of the Hood River Transportation & Boom Co. elsewhere in our columns. It is hoped that a prompt attention will be given to the call and payments be made at once, as there is an urgency and money is needed at once to insure the success of the enterprise.
 For the past year the GLACIER has been advertising the White sewing machine. The wife of the editor procured one of these machines nearly a year ago, and she desires to testify that she is highly pleased with it. It likes it better than any sewing machine she ever used.
 A meeting of the board of directors of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union and the committee appointed to secure signers to the pledge to ship by the union, is called for Saturday, Dec. 17th, at 1:30 o'clock.
 Jas. W. Wallace came down from Moro on Wednesday. Mr. Wallace has been at work on the Columbia Southern railroad for the past two years, the bridge work of which is now completed to Moro.
 Some good views of Hood River and Trout Lake scenery are to be seen at LaFrance's store, the artist being Mrs. LaFrance. The work is first class, showing that the artist is no amateur.
 The Red Cross society of Hood River will ship dried fruits or anything needed by the soldiers at Manila, from any one who desires to send. Leave goods at Mrs. Wm. Thompson's.
 The O. R. & N. surveyors commenced work Wednesday on the survey for the location of the side tracks on F. H. Button's land for Capt. Davidson's saw mill and lumber yards.
 Volunteer work is being done on the Methodist lane at Belmont. Several teams have been at work during the week turpicking the road and hauling gravel.
 Dallas had a good many cases of bursted water pipe to mend since our last report, and that broad smile lengthened into a grin that could be seen for a mile.
 It is not too late yet to get that dental work you promised yourself for a Christmas present. Dr. Benjamin will be here tomorrow and Saturday.
 A number of the pupils of the eighth grade who got their half holiday spent their time on the ice last Friday. The skating is good.
 This item was written by a pencil presented by Dallas & Spangler, and it is first class, like everything they have to sell.
 The Oregon Emergency corps of Hood River sent 225 pounds of reading matter to the soldiers in Manila, December 8th.
 S. W. Curran went to Klickitat on Wednesday to look after his stock. He has rented E. D. Calkins' ranch.
 Dr. R. W. Benjamin, dentist, will be at the Mt. Hood hotel, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 16th and 17th.
 Hon. J. W. Morion lost a valuable coat which fell on the ice on Tuesday and broke a leg.
 The People's Store offers some bargains for Christmas in the big ad in another column.
 The river is frozen over solid at The Dalles and the mail carrier crosses afoot on the ice.
 J. J. Gibbons went to The Dalles on Monday on business at the land office.
 John A. Wilson made a business trip to The Dalles on Monday.
 Miss Hester Howe's school at Viento closes today for the term.
 Rev. J. L. Hershner returned Friday from Couderc.
 Lots of skates at Dallas and Spangler's.

The Walla Walla Chinook at Stevenson.

Gee whizz! How she blows, our last summer clothes are thin, and our nose, is a sight to be seen. It whistles and roars and the office doors are always opened by some confounded galoot who will poke in his snout and say "is it cold enough for you?" Then comes the settler old, in from the cold, and says, says he in '54' the river froze 30 feet deep, and the next July, (now this is no lie) there was a narrow channel from here to The Dalles, and the boys and their gals skated along the shore. The dog-gone mail is still on the rail, our shoes are getting rusty for want of use. The devil for copy bawls and another O. S. calls and says "When I lived in the Patouise—" But no farther he got, we took the old bot by the neck and choked him on the spot. This was too much while the confounded roar the wind blowing sand from the Oregon shore clear across the creek. The devil's hand getting froze fast to the stick, makes a fellow wish he could go down to—well, down below where we know it is warm and we also know the dog-gasted dog-gone dumfuzzed Walla Walla chinook don't blow.—Skamautia Pioneer.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Williams & Brosius.

Born.
 In Viento, Oregon, December 11, 1898, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barber, a daughter.

Just a Few Left,

And they must be sold right away. In order to do this we will sell them at cost. Ladies' Jackets and Capes are what we are talking about. The cold weather is here, and these are warm numbers. Don't miss this chance. Just the thing for a nice Christmas present. We have other Christmas goods, too, and now is the time to buy, while there is plenty to choose from and while you have plenty of time to choose.
