Hood River Gets Ahead of Time.

Hood River's fast time record on the track regularly, was when, just for fun, last winter, against Meigs Bartmess' protestation, he ran from home to Hood River in 32 minutes. Last Monday morning, with C. N. Clarke as rider, the start was made, according to the pony's wishes, at Mr. Ehrck's place and the finish at the foot of Tucker's hill where horse and rider fetched up all in a heap. No bones broken; too much mud. The pony decided to return home via Mr. Diver's place Charley came to town with Perry McCrory. He said the speed down the hill was frightful.

Clyde T. Bonney's slaughter house west of town has all the modern conveniences and is up to date. Hogs are kept to clean up all the refuse, and the beef heads are cooked for them. The parts of the animal from which glue is made are sold to the glue factory, the bones are sold to a fertilizer company, and nothing is wasted The floors are flushed every day with plenty of water and there is no offensive smell about the premises. Mr. Bonney recently purchased 98 head of fine beef cattle at Warm Springs reservation and is well prepared to supply any demand that may be made upon Hood River for meats of all kinds.

Sam Harbison has been appointed to take charge of the work on the new grade of the East Side road. A subscription is in circulation and it is proposed to give the work out by contract. Three or four hundred dollars will be needed to complete the work of blasting on this grade, and it is hoped that all will give liberally If the new grade is not completed under Mr Harbison's management, the boys of the East Side who now climb the big hill will all be bald and gray headed men before they will see any easier way of making the ascent.

Hood River citizens were surprised Tuesday morning to find the ground covered with two or three inches of snow. Wild flowers were blooming, and it was a strange sight to see the purple iris blooming above the snow. A heavy rain continued all day, but the snow staid with us till night, when a chinook wind sprung up, and Wednesday morning the snow had disappeared.

Many will remember that last season there was a shortage of strawberry crates and in order that the same experience does not occur again it is highly advisable to make arrangements for your crates now while there is plenty of time to get them made up. If several of the large growers fail to do this promptly it may cause serious losses when shipping time comes.

The board of directors of the Valley Improvement Co. holds its regular meetings in the afternoon of the first Saturday in each month. Those who have not already contracted their water can do so at these meetings and at no other time The patrons of the company will please take due notice.

SECRETARY.

Mrs Gaisel and two sons, who have been stopping with Mr and Mrs. J. P. Watson, during the winter, returned to their home in Dayton, Oregon, Wednesday. Mrs. Gaisel and son Roy, who are troubled with asthma, have been greatly benefited by their stay in Hood River.

The meeting of the Cascade Gushers literary at Barrett school house Saturday evening will be postponed on account of the horticultural institute to be held in town. A special programme is being prepared for the meeting of the Gushers, March 11th.

Happy is the man or woman who can eat a good hearty meal without suffering afterward If you can not do it, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and cures all forms of dyspepsia and indigestion. Williams & Brosius.

The Frankton home literary will discuss the question of expansion tonight at the house of S Koplin. M. Willis leads the affirmative and F. R Austen in the negative. A "hot time in the old town tonight."

J Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., conductor on electric street car line writes that his little daughter was very low with croup, and her life saved after all physicians had failed, only by using One Minute Cough Cure. Williams & Brosius.

The train from Portland, Tuesday night, due here at 10:42, didn't arrive at the depot till 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, owing to a slide just below the ice house, where the train laid all night.

Dorrance Smith and family have moved to Cascade Locks. Dorrance will be engineer on the tow boat, towing logs from the Washington side for the mill of Smith and Russel.

A. C. Jones of Portland is visiting his friend, G E. Williams. Mr. Jones represented the Postal Telegraph Co. at Salem during the late session of the legislature.

John R Rankin, assessor of Klickitat county, was in town Friday. He said he would begin the work of assessing the property of the county March 1st.

S C Sherrill, brother of W. E. Sherrill, arrived here last week from Sissons, Cal. He is a school teacher and expects to make his home in Hood River.

See the shoes in our window at 50 cents a pair, not a pair that cost less than $1 at wholesale.

A. S. BLOWERS & SON.

O. G. Chamberlain returned, Wednesday, from Athena, where he has been sojourning since last summer.

John L. Henderson insured the stock of Dallas & Spangler during the week for $1,800.

E J. Middleswart of Mosier has gone on a trip to Montana

P. S. Davidson, jr., and wife arrived from Wisconsin yesterday.

Joseph Soesbe was in town during the week.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Williams & Brosius.

Crapper School.

The entertainment given at the Crapper school house Wednesday evening, February 22d, was highly successful, both as an entertainment and financially. The house was crowded. All enjoyed themselves, and the school netted the neat little sum of $6 70. An especially fine selection of pieces were chosen and admirably rendered. The tableaux were exceptionally good and even most an entertainment in themselves. Several of the recitations deserve especial commendation, viz: "A Girl from a boy's point of view," by Roy Kelley; "How Johnny tended the baby," by Cecil Green; "Washington and his Hatchet," Kent Shoemaker; "Hezekiah Beliott," Miss F Prigge. The songs, "I'm Going Back to Dixie," by Mr. Fred Bailey, and "Matrimonial Sweets," by Mr. and Mrs. Green," produced lively encores. Several dialogues were well rendered; one, "An Electrical Episode," was especially good. The object of the entertainment was the starting of a library fund. A more worthy object could not be. A party of Hood River students and their principal attended and report an excellent time.

Frankton School.

The entertainment at Frankton school house on the evening of Washington's birthday was well attended by the patrons of the school and a good programme was well rendered. Lunch baskets were auctioned off to the highest bidder, and there was some lively bidding. Miss Margaret Lucas's basket brought the highest price and was sold for $1.65. E. D. Calkins bid in five baskets. The house was beautifully decorated. Receipts amounted to $13 55 and will go to the library fund.

Before the discovery of One Minute Cough Cure ministers were greatly disturbed by coughing congregations. No excuse for it now. Williams & Brosius.

Born.

In Hood River valley, February 25, 1899, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hawkes, a son.

Married.

In Hood River, February 23, 1899, Abram L. Hodson of Klickitat county, Wash., and Mrs. Inez Broadbent of Hood River; Rev. J. F. Merrill officiating.

Died.

In Hood River valley, East Side, February 23, 1899, John F. Mohr, of quick consumption, aged 22 years, 5 months and 6 days.

Deceased was taken sick last October with an attack of bronchitis. He was born in Wisconsin and came to Hood River with his parents 17 years ago. He was an honest and upright young man and will be mourned by all his acquaintances He leaves a mother, five sisters and four brothers. Being the oldest of the family, his death will be a serious blow to his relatives. The funeral took place last Sunday from the Catholic church in The Dalles.

For a quick remedy and one that is perfectly safe for children let us recommend One Minute Cough Cure. It is excellent for croup, hoarseness, tickling in the throat and coughs Williams & Brosius.

The steamers Regulator and Dalles City are now making regular trips between The Dalles and Portland.

What Has Been Said Around the Globe.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Williams & Brosius.
