Economy in Shoe Buying

is made by many. To save money justs on quality first, price next. Then take care of them-and don't kick at the manufacturer and dealer. You may buy Shoes several years old very cheap at some clearance sale, but you can't find better values, nor as good, in new seasonable goods as the following:

Mens' Oil Grain Creedmores, double sole and oak top,

Cheaper ones, Kip pegged, or top, good wearers........... 1,45 SPECIAL-Men's Kangaroo Calf, medium weight, newest, broad cap toe, face, oak sole, all solid, leather lined sole, and one piece sole leather counter, usual price $2.25 to $2.50, our price

Don't try to get a dress shoe at $1.50 while we quote above price. For school we have a line of Shoes not surpassed for service by any.

Heavy Kangaroo Calf, best oak sole, sole leather toe cap-they fit and make no corns nor deformed feet. Children's 81 to 12, $1.35; 12 to 2 $1.65. We have cheaper ones, but buy these.

REMEMBER-If any of our shoes rip, or soles get loose, we repair them free, saving you probably 25c on every pair of shoes, besides the saving we make you on purchase price.
