

Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1909.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Bamboo furniture at Bartmess'. Bonney's new ad will interest you. Rockers, cheap as the cheapest, at Bartmess'.

Have you seen Bartmess' fine golden oak writing desks. See those fine golden oak Xmas rockers at Bartmess'.

Exceptionally low prices on carpet at Bartmess' furniture store. Old papers for sale at the Glacier office for two bits a hundred.

Money to loan on real estate by J. W. HENDERSON, agt. The new ad of the People's Store will tell you how to get your Christmas turkey.

Don't forget the apron sale at Mrs. Mercer's on Friday and Saturday afternoons of this week.

The work of opening D street is progressing and will soon be open to the Barrett-Sigma addition.

T. C. Dallas sold his two lots in the Barrett-Sigma addition, last week, to Mrs. Scaries for $16 a lot.

After January 1, 1910, lots in Barrett-Sigma addition will be advanced to $16 per lot. Present price $10 per lot.

Local business. A. J. BAKER, proprietor of the Emporium, has moved to Portland.

W. J. Baker, proprietor of the Emporium, has moved to Portland.

A fine line of fancy candies for the holidays can be found at W. B. Cole's confectionery—home-made and imported.

The drawing for the painting of Mt. Hood and Lost Lake, by Lane, will take place at W. B. Cole's store, Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock.

A. L. Newton, lately from Salem, has purchased N. C. Evans town property and moved into it with his family. Mr. Evans has moved to his farm.

Dr. F. C. Brocius has returned and can be found in his office over Williams & Brocius' drug store, between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 4-7 p. m.

S. J. LaFrance has the most complete line of Christmas goods ever brought to Hood River. Persons buying early will have a greater variety to select from.

The O. R. & N. Co. have made arrangements to put on a daily train between Portland and Huntington. This will give Eastern Oregon a morning train from Portland.

A beautiful bouquet of white carnations was received from Carnation chapter, O. E. S., of Prineville, for the funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Lister, who was a member of that lodge.

Miss Ross Smith, a trained nurse of Portland, was sent for last week by Mrs. Alfred Boorman of Phelps creek, to nurse her little daughter, Alta, who has been quite low with typhoid fever.

We regret to learn that R. Peeler is again quite feeble and requires an attendant. The old veteran has not been able to make his accustomed Saturday trip to town for two months or more.

Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen has a few copies of the book "Golden Gleamings of Poetry and Song," left over and those who have not signed for this excellent work will still have a chance to procure a copy.

C. L. Gilbert, superintendent of schools, was in Hood River four days last week, visiting the schools throughout the valley. He found our schools all flourishing satisfactorily. Mr. Gilbert attended the local institute and returned home Saturday night.

Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen received a letter last week from her old home in Germany, bringing the sad news of the death of her father, N. F. Rordan, at the age of 83. Geo. Rordan of Hood River was his son. Her mother is still living at the age of 79. The old couple celebrated their golden wedding last February.

The Mt. Hood Stage Co., consisting of J. T. Luckey, H. D. Langille and Bert Stranahan, have purchased the vacant lot on the northwest corner of First and Oak streets of Louis Seward, on which they will build a livery stable. The building will be 32 by 60, one story and a basement, and will front on Oak street. Jas. Langille will superintend the construction and work will commence at once.

A railroad grader named C. E. James was arrested on Saturday charged with assault and battery on an officer of the law. The case was heard in Justice Prather's court and James was fined $50. Not being able to pay his fine, he was taken to the Dalles Monday evening by Constable Olinger and will be confined in the county jail 25 days. He used an ugly "brill" in his assault on Gerking, and for this his sentence was made severe.

It is suggested that a post office be established at Straight's place, south of Tucker, and that a change be made in the route of the free delivery mail carrier so that he may go as far up the valley as Straight's. By this change the Mt. Hood district could have three mails a week for about the same as it now costs for twice a week. The way to secure this change would be to petition the post office department by the people who would be directly benefited.

The many friends of C. L. Cople and family here will be pleased to learn they will soon be residents of Hood River again. Mr. Cople has rented Jesse Imbler's place, two miles south of town, and is expected to arrive here with his family today. Mr. and Mrs. Imbler will go to Tillamook, where their two sons, A. E. and Ray Imbler, are conducting a racket store and doing well. They do not leave Hood River for good, but will return in a year or two.

A fatal accident occurred on the railroad just east of Hood River on the night of Dec. 7th. Ed. D. Ramsay, engineer on the pile-driver train, was thrown from a flat car in rounding a curve while the train was going at a rate of 30 miles an hour. He was picked up and taken to The Dalles, but survived only a few hours. Deceased was well known in Hood River and had been in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co. a number of years. He was sober and industrious. He leaves a widow and three children. He was a member of Idlewild lodge, I. O. O. F., of Hood River.

A gentleman and lady, strangers in Hood River, accompanied by a little boy about ten years old, arrived on the train Monday evening. They called at S. E. Bartmess' furniture store and the man asked Sam, "Have you got any seagars?" Sam politely informed the stranger that he didn't keep seagars, but said he could get them next door, at Charley Clarke's. The stranger then turned to his lady companion and whispered "You try him." The lady laughed and said she couldn't keep in any longer. The strangers proved to be Sam's brother, Wm. F. Bartmess, and his wife and boy of Lafayette, Indiana. The "strangers" will visit here for a couple of weeks before returning to their home in the Hoosier state.

John W. Watson, traveling for Loewenberg & Going Co. of Portland, was in Hood River Wednesday. He had just come down from Weiser, Idaho, where winter reigns. He found deep snows at Sumpter, Baker City and LaFrande. On this side of the Blue mountains the snow began to fall and as he neared Hood River the green hills and springlike atmosphere reassured him that there is no place like home.

W. M. Ellis on Tuesday received three handsome chickens from Illinois—a rooster and two hens of the Spangled Hamburg breed and a white-faced Black Spanish hen. They cost him $7 at Freeport, Ill., and $4 expressage. Mr. Ellis will purchase an incubator and brooder and go into the poultry business extensively, and eggs are expected to rapidly drop in price.

A young woman named Pearl Hamilton, aged 16, died in a Portland hospital on Tuesday of appendicitis, and her remains were brought to Hood River on Wednesday and buried in Idlewild cemetery. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hamilton of Viento. She took sick Dec. 7th, was taken to Portland on the 10th, when an operation was performed, and died on the 12th.

Our funny contributor sent in the following, which looks harmless but may contain a shot that will cause the one hit to hunt the editor with a shot gun: "Buttermilk! Yes sir, I can bring you some in the morning! Was the reply our dairyman gave an eager applicant, who had apparently got lost and gone clear around for Paradise Farm Hill."

Congregational Church—Rev. D. V. Paine, pastor of the Congregational church at The Dalles, will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Mr. Herschner will be at The Dalles. Mr. Poling is a gifted singer, and may be expected to help in furnishing the music. Christian Endeavor service will be held at 7 p. m. with Miss Carrie Cople leader.

Ed C. Miller was in town last Friday looking for a house in which to move his family for the winter. Ed will go to Portland in a few days to enter the commercial college and review the studies in book-keeping that he left off in 1885. He has been working for the Oregon Lumber Co. at Viento and has a good situation there as long as he chooses to hold it.

P. F. Bradford came down town today for the first time since his late illness. It seems a friend recommended a patent medicine, which he took and it made him sick. This same friend recommended a patent medicine for the editor, which did no good. Old timers and pioneers are getting sick to their good old remedy for all ills—old bourbon.

Carl Gilmore sustained a broken leg while at work in the timber at Chewath for the Oregon Lumber Co. last Thursday. He was brought to Dr. Brocius' hospital in Hood River, where the leg was attended to, and on Friday he was taken to his home on the East Side. He will be unable to resume his work for some time.

Last Friday, Dec. 8th, was the 55th anniversary of Mrs. L. Henry's birthday and the 34th anniversary of her wedding day. She received a very acceptable present in the shape of a gold watch and chain. The Glacier congratulates Mrs. Henry, not on her age, but on the present she received.

At the regular annual meeting of stockholders of the Hood River Transportation and Boom Co. held Dec. 13th, the following named persons were elected directors for the ensuing year: E. L. Smith, A. S. Blowers, C. A. Bell, P. S. Davidson Jr., E. E. Savage.

Arthur Disbrow informs the Glacier that he has plenty of good apples left yet for the spring markets. He hauled down and shipped twelve loads and has nearly as many left. His best apples he will keep for a good price in the spring.

Many inquiries are received for sample copies of the Glacier, and for this reason we publish this week information regarding our valley that is not contained in every issue. An extra number of copies of this issue are printed.

The annual meeting of the Congregational church will be held next Tuesday at 1.30 p. m. Election of officers will be held, reports will be submitted, and other business will be transacted. A full attendance is desired.

J. H. Forsyth, who was buried in Portland Dec. 5th, formerly resided at Lyle, was evidently the same person who worked for Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. last summer. He was a good citizen and his death will be mourned with respect.

Judge Henry says spring has come and to prove his assertion brought to this office a branch of wild currant in full bloom, Dec. 13th. This fragrant bush is the first to bloom in spring.

D. Bradley and family moved to Portland Wednesday, where they will make their home for the winter. Mr. Bradley is engaged as organizer for the order of Fenwick, with headquarters in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bartsch left Saturday for Seattle, where they will sojourn for a month or so before starting for their future home at Dawson City, N. Y.

Supper will be served from 5.30 until 7 o'clock Friday and Saturday evenings at Mrs. Mercer's, by the ladies of the M. E. church. Price 25c; children 15c.

L. N. Day of Portland was in town Wednesday. He is desirous of putting in an asphalt plant in Hood River and can get enough patrons for a starter.

45 acres suitable for fruit and dairy ranch. 20 acres well improved. Choice acreage tract in town, for sale. E. E. SAVAGE.

Mrs. Geo. Coleman of Bingen spent Sunday in Hood River. Mr. Coleman's family will be in Hood River as soon as they can procure a house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shurtz and Miss Ruth Barnhart of Arlington came down on Friday for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh.

E. D. Calkins has been under the weather for a few days, but came to town Wednesday and lived over our sanction by a visit.

The ladies aid society of the Congregational church will be held at Mrs. Georgia Bone's Friday afternoon.

The Christmas entertainment of the Congregational Sunday school will be given on Saturday evening, the 23d.

Miss Lucy Morgan, trained nurse of Bellevue hospital N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Alma Howe.

The children of E. E. Lyon are quite sick with catarrhal fever and tonsillitis. The new ad of A. S. Blowers & Son points out some truths worth heeding.

Mrs. J. H. Gerdes is quite sick and under the doctor's care.

Deputy Sheriff Dell Howell of Antelope did a clever job in arresting two desperate characters named Robert Wilson and Hugh Brown, last Sunday. The men were making their way south on a stage that was bound for the Dalles, and which they never intended to return. The telephone was put in use by Sheriff Kelly, who notified Deputy Howell to come this way and intercept them.

The deputy met the two men at Davis place, beyond Shearer's bridge, and single handed and alone brought them to The Dalles. The men are noted crooks and are wanted in Portland for a number of hold-ups. Both are ex-convicts.

East Hood River. Miss L. J. Ruggles of Portland, who had been visiting Mrs. A. J. Mason, returned to Portland last Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Mason and Miss Joy Mason, who will visit for a week or so in the metropolis.

Our neighbor, Carl Gilmore, who was so unfortunate as to break his leg last Thursday, has the sympathy of all. Carl is an industrious lad just getting a start in life and it is to be hoped that he and his estimable young wife will henceforth sail long under fairer skies.

Mr. Metcalf of Kalama, Wash., has bought from Henry Alkire his homestead right to land lying three-fourths of a mile east of the Pine Grove school property. Last week he put up a small house and are now living on the place. Some of this land is mountain slope but a considerable portion is valuable for agriculture.

The Methodist services held fortnightly at Pine Grove are always largely attended. Last Sunday, notwithstanding the rain, the little church was crowded to its utmost capacity, the audience giving the closest attention to one of Rev. Spaulding's eloquent sermons.

Some 20 of Mrs. Susan Mohr's neighbors recently met at her home and spent the day cutting wood. All worked like beavers and enough good wood was made to supply her household a year. Mrs. Mohr showed her gratitude to her guests by placing before them a sumptuous dinner and continues to feel grateful that her friends had fallen among the kind-hearted and considerate.

It is quite fashionable to rate the Ben Davis as an inferior apple, but a few thousand boxes would not be bad property to own this fall. We also find that in this climate as the trees grow older the fruit becomes firmer and juicier, and we have seen some strongly prejudiced connoisseurs agreeably surprised at its good qualities this season.

W. P. Scobee butchered an 8-month old pig last week that dressed 220 pounds. Mr. Scobee was running a race with J. H. Kohler, and J. A. Henderson of White Salmon, who had pigs of the same age, to see who could raise the biggest. The others have not yet been heard from.

The managers of the basket social that was to be given at Pine Grove Dec. 13th, find that their plans will be too incomplete for that date. The time will be extended to Friday evening, Dec. 23d.

Council Proceedings. The council met Tuesday evening. Present—Mayor Smith, Aldermen Bell, Blowers, Bonney and Dukes, Recorder Nicholson and Marshal Olinger.

Report of the marshal showed that he had made 11 arrests since April 14th, besides 14 others for which the fines were paid. Report adopted.

Recorder and treasurer's reports were read and referred to finance committee. Ordinances relating to granting of liquor licenses, was read, second time and referred to a select committee, consisting of Blowers, Dukes and Bonney, for amendment. Committee to report at adjourned meeting Wednesday.

Bills were introduced as follows: W. E. Sherrill, mattresses furnished jail, $2.35; C. A. Bell, meals for prisoners, $3.50; Glacier, printing election ballots, $5; G. T. Prather, rent, $12; S. J. LaFrance, stationery, $5; E. E. Savage, Olinger arrears—work on the road, $12.90; J. R. Nickelsen, recorder's fees, $14.80. Adjourned to Wednesday evening.

At the adjourned meeting ordinance 19 was read as amended and passed by unanimous vote. The amendments fix the penalty for violation of the ordinance at not less than $200 nor more than $400, and require saloons to close between the hours of 11 o'clock p. m. and 5 next morning. The matter of street grades was discussed but no action taken. The streets committee on streets and public property was instructed to employ the county surveyor to define and mark the eastern and western boundaries of the city limits. The returns of the street city election were canvassed and officers found to be elected as previously announced.

Surprise and Dinner Party. The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lockman was the scene of a large and happy gathering of neighbors and friends last Sunday in honor of Messrs. D. Lockman and E. L. Rood's birthday. A beautiful dinner was served by Mrs. D. Lockman and Mrs. E. L. Rood. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. Lockman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rood, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Folts, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gatchel, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Biagg, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. T. Chapman, Mrs. W. A. Lockman, Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, the Misses Rosa Boggs, Ella Rood, Florence Rood, Rosa Biagg, Etta Biagg, Lucy Jenkins, Mabel Jenkins, Marie Lockman, Lena Lockman, Mrs. J. W. Vail, and Messrs. J. C. Boggs, Andy Gatchel, E. N. Benson, Archie Lockman, Clifford Ross, Kirby Ross, Earl Biagg, Henry Biagg, Roy Biagg, William McIntosh, Harold Jenkins, Austin Lockman, Miles Lockman. The guests departed feeling that they had had a most enjoyable time, and wishing Mr. Lockman and Mr. Rood many happy birthdays.

It takes but a minute to overcome tickling in the throat and to stop a cough by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. This remedy quickly cures all forms of throat and lung troubles. Harmless and pleasant to take. It prevents consumption. A famous specific for grippe and its after effects. Williams & Brosius.

Advertisement List. Dec. 11, 1909. Collins, J. W. Johnson, E. J. Collins, Wright Olin, Maganz Ellis, W. H. C. Ferguson, Ashford Wilson, B. Gill, Thomas Whitson, Charlie Eben, Mrs. Ben Wm. M. Yates, Postmaster.

It is said that appendicitis never attacks a person after 40 years of age. The appendix begins shriveling up before that age and gradually closes.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for soothing coughs. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Greenville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate relief. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. Williams & Brosius.

The two electric dynamos are in place and will soon be producing that subtle element, electricity, which transmits our thoughts, our voices, and ourselves with ease, rapidly and precisely; which is transformed into heat and light; which possibly holds the planets in their place and thrills our nerves with life; whose most striking appearance is a flash from the clouds and which is easily produced by striking a cat—CROOK COUNTY JOURNAL.

Mr. J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., saved his child's life by using One Minute Cough Cure. Deotchs had given her up to die with croup. It is an infallible cure for coughs, grippe, colds, pneumonia, bronchitis and throat and lung troubles. It is early use prevents consumption. Williams & Brosius.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Agents for the Royal Tailors. They Have Clothed Over Six Million Men.

Placer Notes. R. A. Phelps returned to work Tuesday morning. He claims that double harness story, but dollars to doughnuts, he trots just the same.

Jim Brown quit work Monday. His father died at Vancouver, Wash., and Jim went home.

Eben Boorman has been laying off several days, wrestling with typhoid fever, expecting to get better of it; but the fever finally put him to bed. Sorry for Eben. He made a good fight but ran out of ammunition.

Grant Patton, who has been running the plauer since Perry McCroly hurt his thumb, came next meeting with a bad accident. He was skinning a board that was too thick to enter the plauer when the hand ax glanced, striking his left knee cap, cutting to the bone. He hit struck at inch farther back it would certainly have lamed him.

Wm. Ellis is laid off with typhoid fever.

Contest Notice. United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, Nov. 21, 1899.—A sufficient contest affidavit has been filed in this office by Arthur P. Holmes, contestant, against Homestead Entry No. 4691, made August 12, 1891, by north-west 1/4 section 28, township 2 north, range 1 east, by Joseph Schmitt, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Joseph Schmitt has wholly abandoned said land for more than six years last past; that he has not complied with the homestead law since making said entry in settlement or improvement; that the absence of said Joseph Schmitt from the tract was not caused by his employment in the army or naval service of the United States; and that said contestant has hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on January 15, 1900, before Geo. T. Prather, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Hood River, Oregon; and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on January 17, 1899, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed November 21, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by day and proper publication.
