

Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1900.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Abe Foley is night track walker on the railroad.

Miss Ethel Woodworth returned from Goldendale last week.

Mrs. Pratt Whitecomb went to Portland last Saturday by boat.

X. Roberts is building a neat three-room cottage by the Nicola-Cameron mill.

Elmer McCray came up from Portland Sunday and spent New Year's in Hood River.

The family of Editor Bradley arrived in Hood River last Saturday from Canada.

C. A. Hicks and Geo. Williams spent Christmas in Portland and returned home Friday.

Miss Kate Davenport has 60 pupils enrolled in the primary department of the Frankton school.

Walter McGuire was laid up last week with a severe attack of neuritis, which affected his right eye.

Thos. Calkins went to The Dalles last Thursday to attend the concert of the University of Oregon glee club.

J. J. Lucey and family went to Portland the day after Christmas, to visit relatives and friends during the holidays.

Miss Kate Davenport is making her home with Mrs. E. D. Calkins at Frankton, since Mrs. S. C. Smith has moved to her home at Dallas.

Dr. F. C. Brosius has returned and can be found in his office over Williams & Brosius' drug store, between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.

45 acres suitable for fruit and dairy ranch. 20 acres well improved. Choice acreage tract in town, for sale.

E. E. SAVAGE.

The appraisers of the estate of the late A. H. Tieman returned from Mt. Hood Saturday. The estate, including 213 acres of land, stock, etc., was appraised at $1,233.10.

Howell Ackerman, who has been spending the week with J. F. Armor and family at Belmont, returned to Portland Monday to resume his studies in the Portland academy.

Clyde T. Bonney was presented Christmas morning with a gold watch chain and charm by the employees of his store, who were of the high esteem in which he is held by them.

Hennes Koberg's pig weighed 23 pounds, beating J. E. Scoble's just 11 pounds. But Mr. Koberg had the advantage of feeding his pig two weeks longer than Mr. Scoble.

F. S. Perry found a red flag on his house when he returned to Portland last week. His little girl was sick with scarlet fever, but was getting better when he wrote his parents.

Jack and Alfred Iggalls made a trip to The Dalles on the Regulator last Thursday, returning the next morning. While in The Dalles they attended the concert of the University glee club.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macomber, aged about one year, died last Thursday morning of congestion of the lungs. The family live on M. V. Rand's place, and lately arrived here from Kansas.

R. Rand is preparing to build an addition to his house on the corner of Oak and Fourth streets. The addition will front on Oak street. A large oak tree that stood in the yard had to give way to the march of improvement.

Mrs. John Parker returned to Hood River last Saturday and visited for a few days at the home of Mrs. S. J. LaFrance. Her health is much improved. James Parker went to Portland last Thursday, and accompanied his mother to Hood River.

An entertainment under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. will be given on Friday evening, Jan. 5th, at 8 o'clock at the M. E. church. A programme consisting of papers, recitations and music will be rendered. The entertainment is extended to all members of the Second Oregon to be present. Admission free.

Little Benny Gerking, 11 years old, son of B. F. Gerking, fell from an oak tree, 12 or 15 feet, last Thursday, and struck his head on a rock. He was quite badly injured. Dr. Shaw was called and dressed his injuries, and the venturous lad is in a fair way to recover. Benny and his brother had been in the habit of climbing to the tops of the highest trees near their father's house.

G. A. R.—A special meeting of Campy post, for inspection, was held last Saturday. Joint installation services of the post and W. C. R. will be held on Saturday, Jan. 6th, at 1:30 o'clock, at which the families of the members are invited and a special invitation is extended to all members of the Second Oregon to be present. After the installation the post will hold its regular meeting.

Judge Henry on Saturday received six headstones for soldiers' graves. They are furnished by the government and were sent freight paid. The headstones will be placed on the following graves of soldiers: Isaac Howe, Idlewild cemetery; A. K. Leuberg, Idlewild; Claus Hoek, Pine Grove; B. Hull, Irving; Edwin Gordon, Wyeth; W. C. King, Stevenson.

At Davenport Bros' planing mill at Haynes spur there are ten houses occupied by families, the men of which are employed at the planing on the flume. The company also has a store building well stocked with goods and provisions. The improvements on the railroad will necessitate a new switch for the lumber yard. A closed board fence has been built along the north side of the right of way of the flume just east of the planing mill, and it is intended to keep the sawdust from running over the berry fields at Riverside farm, thus lessening the cost of damage suits.

Things present a lively appearance at Haynes Spur, where the O. R. & N. Co. has a large force of men at work reducing the curves and grade in the railroad bed at that point. The excavating necessities such as blasting and tons of ballast are being removed by a liberal use of giant powder. The heavy blasts which they echo back and forth across the river sound like cannoning. With the improvements in the road bed here a number of sharp curves will be taken out and an abrupt grade of eight feet reduced.

The junior members of the Glacier force were in attendance at the university of Oregon glee club concert at The Dalles last Thursday night. The glee club boys were at their best and their concert was of a high order seldom heard in Eastern Oregon towns. The audience was inclined to be "cold" at first, but the quality of the singing was soon appreciated and the club was forced to respond to five consecutive encores. Prof. Glen, with his rich baritone, captivated the house, while Eaton and Frazer in their specialties were stars. The alumni of The Dalles high school tendered the university boys a reception at the concert at the house of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, and the boys highly appreciated the warm welcome accorded them by the young people of The Dalles.

The new year's dinner given by the ladies of the Congregational church at the store rooms of R. Rand was patronized beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. The chicken pies were exhausted with the noon day meal. The ladies regret that they could not serve the public at the evening meal with the good chicken pie that pleased so many at noon. It was due to a miscalculation between demand and supply. The art gallery adorned with profiles of local citizens excited considerable interest in the evening. Prizes were given to those guessing the largest personnel of the profiles. Ralph Savage got first prize, and Master Aubrey Bowers was awarded the booby prize.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church, the following officials were chosen: Deacon, W. H. Perry; clerk, Geo. T. Prather; trustees, G. R. Castner, J. F. Armor and P. F. Bradford; treasurer, Geo. P. Crowell; financial secretary, C. J. Hayes. The reports showed that encouraging progress had been made during the past year. The church is out of debt, with money remaining in the treasury. The average attendance of the Sunday School for the past four months is 75.

Mrs. J. F. Armor entertained a number of young people of Belmont in honor of Howell Ackerman at her home last Friday evening. The time was pleasantly spent in games and a social time. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: The Misses Hester Howe, Ethel Woodworth, Ethel Woodworth, Elia Leuberg, Tina Cramer, Mary Armor; Messrs. Howell Ackerman, Howard Leuberg, R. Woodworth, Gay Woodworth, Ralph Savage, H. K. Benson, S. C. Sherman, Roy Amor.

Following is the programme of the local teachers' association to be held at the public school building, Saturday Jan. 6th, at 1 p. m.: Opening song, No. 141, U. S. song book; Things I have done while during the year. General discussion led by C. D. Thompson; Five minute talk on value of visitors, Miss Davenport; Discussion; Song from Miss White's department; Recess; A reading course by Prof. Landers; Methods in teaching grammar, F. B. Barnes; Song No. 100, U. S. song book.

With quite a number of others Mr. Burnette Duncan, who is attending the academy at Portland, came to Hood River for a few days of his vacation. A little social gathering for his benefit was held at the home of Miss Pearl Cox where a very enjoyable evening was passed. His mother, Mrs. M. E. Harwood, accompanied him to Portland, where she will remain for a few days.

The Congregational Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday. Mrs. Helen Watson was chosen superintendent; F. B. Barnes, assistant superintendent; Bertha Prather, secretary; Clara Blythe, assistant secretary; Donald Hill, treasurer; F. B. Barnes, chorister; Fay LaFrance, organist; Clara Blythe, assistant organist.

Vote of Thanks—The ladies of the Congregational church hereby extend their sincere gratitude to the public for the liberal patronage accorded them on the occasion of their New Year's dinner, and also to Mr. Robert Rand for the gratuitous use of his store rooms on that occasion. His kindness is thoroughly appreciated. BELLE E. GRAHAM, Sec.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Smith gave them a farewell party in the way of a surprise on Monday night. About 50 persons were present and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. The evening was spent in games and a social time. Refreshments were served, including an oyster supper.

George Washington came over from the other side of the Columbia last Monday and talked over the telephone to Julius Caesar at Portland. The two acted personages were colored.

There was a dance at B. F. Fuller's residence at Frankton Monday night. About 25 couples were present and enjoyed dancing until the early hours of the morning.

Mrs. M. Sue Adams has been laid up since Dec. 10th, on which day she stepped on a rusty nail, which entered her foot and lamed her severely.

C. Tyler and family arrived here Tuesday from Cuba, Kansas. Mr. Tyler reports several other families to follow.

Bert Graham is quite sick with pneumonia and is under the doctor's care. At last accounts he was improving.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk last Saturday to Hans F. Jockisen and Louisa C. S. Jordan.

Miss Hester Howe returned Monday to resume her studies in the Monmouth normal school.

Have you seen the handsome lot of chrysolite ware at Dallas & Spangler's?

B. F. Belieu went to Portland Tuesday on a business trip.

Frank Caddy is laid up with a severe attack of the grip.

C. H. Luther went to The Dalles Monday.

East Hood River.

Mr. Nicholson of Clark county, Wash. bought 30 acres of partly improved land on the Monroe tract which was held a year or two by John Robinson of The Dalles. He will soon move into Mr. Robinson's house with his family, consisting of wife and six children. These with other late acquisitions bring the school enumeration almost to the point where we can employ two teachers during the winter terms without increasing our present rate of taxation.

H. Hennagin is wintering 21 head of horses for Hale, Kern & Co., the contractors who are making the changes in the O. R. & N. company's grade. Mr. Hennagin has a stable room, a hay and stable room, and both parties find the present arrangement very convenient. Perry Finney has been detached from the grading crew to look after the stock.

Supervisors Dethman and Harbison took passage to The Dalles on Tuesday's boat for the purpose of squaring their accounts with Wasco county.

Carl Gilmore is rapidly gaining strength and with the aid of crutches is on foot again. Hardly a month has passed since the accident occurred which gave him a broken leg.

F. H. Stanton is doing the carpenter work on Will Sears' new house.

Good Pine Groves all agree that we are still in the 19th century, but when we come in contact with the great outside mob we find thousands who think they have reached the 20th century. Just so; 30 days in the September, each day begins in the morning just as the clock chimes to strike the hour of midnight. At this instant, Sept. 30th, our 20th century friends are in October. Had to keep up with them, isn't it?

The Dufer Dispatch has changed hands and is now published by Henry Menefee. The Dispatch occupies a good field for a newspaper. Bro. Menefee starts out as if he meant to do his share towards making a good local paper.

G. H. Appleton, Justice of Peace, Clarksburg, N. J., says, "De Witt's Little Early B. is the best pills made for constipation. We use no others." Quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles. Williams & Brosius.

Magnitude of the Poultry Business.

Hood River Dec. 27, 1899.—Editor GLACIER: Few people realize the magnitude of the poultry business in the United States. Last year the poultry production reached the enormous sum of $500,000,000, or a sum greater than the returns from cotton, wheat and cattle, and still this country imported in 1896 60,000,000 dozen of eggs from Canada, Norway, Sweden and other foreign lands. In California, last year, over $2,500,000 of poultry products were imported from the Eastern states. Oregon produces annually less than one per cent of the poultry products of the United States, and ships in thousands of dollars worth of eggs. In view of these facts, it seems to be beyond dispute that poultry can be made to yield a handsome profit.

There has been a marked advance in the character of the poultry in Hood River valley in the past few years. There are now to be found some choice yards of thoroughbred fowls, among which may be mentioned the Plymouth Rocks of Mrs. Howe's and Mrs. D. G. Hill's, Light Brahma's of E. D. Calkins', Buff Wyandotters of E. E. Lyons', several varieties of Mr. Koberg's, Brown Leghorns of E. E. Lyons', and others. As it costs no more to feed and care for good fowls than for mongrels, every farmer should seek to improve the character of his fowls. If he does not feel able to get thoroughbred he can improve the quality of his birds by discarding his dunghill roosters and putting a pure bred male into his flock. There are good opportunities to secure such now right at home, and the benefits can hardly be realized until one experiences. In addition to the warm eggs at cost, I have to offer you, I would add; Grade up your flocks by the addition of a few choice pure bred fowls of such breed as you prefer, hatch your chicks early, use care in feeding, and the results will justify the outlay.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

More papers deny that small-pox exists in our town. The more physicians unite in saying that the "malady" afflicting a number of citizens is not small-pox, but they recommend strict quarantine. Inez Filloon, writing to the Mountaineer, says the "malady" is Filipino itch.

A young man arrested for drunkenness in The Dalles burned up his clothes in the city jail. He regretted the act when he became sober, and was in a bad fix till Geo. Brown donated a suit for him.

The modern and most effective cure for constipation and all liver troubles—the famous little pills known as De Witt's Little Early Risers, Williams & Brosius.

Warren Miller has a fine lot of hens, mostly Brown Leghorns, and has been getting a good lot of eggs while prices were good.

E. D. Calkins has a fine lot of Light Brahma pullets that will soon be laying. These chickens are the best of winter layers. He has one old biddy that has laid an egg every day for the past two months. Mr. Calkins intends to breed only from his best layers, and the marked hens and what the breeding season comes will try to fill the demand for eggs for hatching of this favorite breed.

D. N. Byerlee has made good quarters for his flock of about 100 chickens. The hens are of mixed breed, but he intends to mate a few of the best with thoroughbred roosters before the hatching season begins. His hens lay but good care this winter, are looking well and the number of eggs that will come from this ranch in another month or so will help materially to swell the surplus that Hood River merchants will have to contend with.

The mild and open winter thus far has been of great advantage to the chicken business in Hood River valley. The price of eggs has been good since early last summer, and the proceeds from poultry have helped considerably to provide for necessary expenses on many a farm.

Do not fail to procure thoroughbred roosters when you start your breeding pens. And the time to mate your chickens is now. Early hatched pullets are what you want, and if you have a place prepared for little chicks, it is not too early to set your biddies by the first of February. To make a good cross for laying pullets or chickens for table use, cross the heavier breeds, like Plymouth Rocks, Langshans or Brahmas, with the Leghorn, Hamburg or game. You-sisters crossed with non-sitters make poor layers, and the same can be said of a cross between the Asiatic breeds.

If your hens have made a record during the past year, or any part of the year, that you are proud of, bring the figures to the GLACIER and let your neighbors know of it.

Did you begin with the new year to note the eggs gathered every day? If not, receive the eggs put down at the time of gathering the eggs, and also the cost of feeding should be noted.
