Chas. T. Early and family of Viento risited with Mrs. Early's parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. S. Blowers, last week. Mr. Carly is store keeper for the Oregon number Co. at Viento. This company has 250 men in their employ in the mills and lumber yards tributary to their business. Last month the company hipped 2,300,000 feet of lumber. Their wo mills on the Washington side of the Columbia have a capacity of 105,000 feet of lumber a day of 11 hours. Their out- it will be increased after next month, hen the mills will be run night and day. Men in their employ get steady work and can put in extra time by working Sundays or after 6 p. m., and get in sometimes 32 days in a month.

Many visitors recently to W. P. Waton's place in town have suggested that a photograph of the scene in his orchard, ooking from the old Coe mansion, with the Columbia river and the hills beyond and snow-capped Adams in the distance, should be taken while the orchard was in full bloom, as it is now. The wonderin full bloom, as it is now. The wonderful profusion of bloom on the pear trees and others will make an impressive picture alone, but the view from this point, looking up the canyon of the White Salmon, is one of the grandest along the Columbia river. Mr. Watson has had Mr. Riggs take several views from this point. He will have a large painting made from the best view by the best artist he can find and send the painting to the Paris exposition and also bainting made from the best view by the best artist he can find and send the painting to the Paris exposition and also to the world's fair at St. Louis in 1903.
