The Platform.

"The People's party of the United States, in convention assembled, congratulating its supporters on the wide extension of its principles in all directions, does hereby reaffirm its adherence to the fundamental principles proclaimed in its two prior platforms, and calls upon all who desire to avert the subversion of free institutions by corporate and imperialistic power to unite with it in bringing the government back to the ideals of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. It extends to its allies in the struggle for financial and economic freedom assurances of its loyalty to the principles which animate the allied forces and the promises of honest and hearty co-operation in every effort for their success. To the people of the United States we offer the following platform as the expression of our un-

General Buller's march, subsequent to the attack, was carried out without a hitch. The British are still pushing on."

London, May 16 .- A dispatch received from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, brought the first intimation of success attained by General Buller, in Northern Natal. The sender of this dispatch evidently assumed that news of the affair had been received direct from the scene of hostilities, for he merely said:

"General Buller's official telegram notifying of his success at Biggarsberg and received here an hour ago, has given keen satisfaction.
