Lost—On the Belmont road, near the Pierce place, a tall-gate of a three-seated hack. Finder please return to Mt. Hood Stage Co.

Hon. J. S. Bradley, a noted democrat speaker of Texas, will address the citizens of Hood River this evening, at the school house.

A match game of base ball will be played in Hood River next Sunday, at 2:30 p. m., between the Vancouver and Hood River nines.

Dr. F. C. Brosius has returned and can be found in his office over Williams & Brosius' drug store, between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.

Geo. T. Prather has 3 1/2 acres of John Sweeney's place for sale. This land is well watered, 2 miles from town, and would be sold in 25 days or less. Price will be put back to $500. Now $300.

Feed and flour will always be furnished by Rand & Stewart at lowest market prices. Bran, $12 per ton; bran and shorts, $18 per ton. Shorts, $14 per ton. Peas, $10 per ton. 70c sack; Dalles Diamond, $1.00 sack.

At a meeting of the common council Tuesday evening, Bell introduced an ordinance amending ordinance 21, in regard to liquor licenses. The amendments change the license fee from $1,000 to $500, and allow licenses to be granted upon the petition of twenty legal voters.

Mr. Willis presented the GLACIER with a lovely bouquet of roses and sweet peas. This is early for sweet peas, but Mr. Willis has them in perfection. He plants the seed in the fall, which he says is the right time to sow the seed for this beautiful flower.

Mrs. Chas. Hubbard, of Dilley, and Mrs. Fred Mallett and two children, of Portland, arrived in Hood River by Tuesday's train to visit a few days with the families of John and E. R. Bradley. Mrs. Hubbard is a sister of E. R. Bradley.

Robert Deansmore of Mosier was in the valley Monday. Mr. Deansmore was first in Hood River 27 years ago. He was surprised to find the changes here and the productiveness of our soil, which at one time, before we got irrigating ditches, he considered worthless for any kind of farming.

Buy your crates and boxes at the Hood River Box Factory. They are the best to be had, are the right size, have the best and smoothest hallocks, and are MADE IN HOOD RIVER. Support the factory. It makes prices low and is a convenience to the fruit growers.

DAVIDSON FRUIT CO., proprietors. Strawberry pickers were scarce for a few days last week and this. But Indians in great numbers have since come and now the growers are well supplied with good help. Of the numerous hordes that gathered here very few could be induced to work longer than to obtain enough to get a square meal.

The camera club of Portland and their friends, to the number of 300 or 400, came to Hood River last Sunday in a special train on the O. R. & N. Many of the excursionists brought their lunch baskets and lunched in the groves near town and strolled through the country. They were a well-behaved party of excursionists, and Hood River will be glad to see them come again.

W. P. Watson last Friday brought to the GLACIER office a bouquet of handsome flowers, and among the lot was a rose that is a world renamer. The rose is a faint-red, and measures seven inches across. Mr. Watson is very successful in the cultivation of flowers, and his beautiful gardens are the admiration of all who come to Hood River.

Since the above was put in type Dr. Watt brought in, on Tuesday, a rose of the same variety that measures 7 1/2 inches. It is perfect in form and a beauty.

T. H. Johnston, republican candidate for joint senator, was in town Monday. Mr. Johnston is engaged with his brother George in merchandising at DuFour. They are also farmers, and conduct one of the largest and most successful wheat farms in Wasco county. They cultivate about 1,700 acres, and their wheat crop never goes lower than 40 bushels to the acre. Early in the spring their land is plowed and then cultivated to keep the weeds down through the summer, and in September the land is seeded. They never fail to have a good growth of wheat that protects the roots in winter, and their grain never freezes out.

Last Saturday a horse belonging to C. C. Massiker caused a lively stir among the settlers along Neal Creek. Mr. Massiker stopped at G. D. Boardman's house on an errand, and had hardly alighted from the wagon before the horse broke away and headed for home a full speed. It ran down the road past Pioneer Mills, distributing bars, barrels and boxes all along the route. When the outfit stopped past H. Hennings' place, Mr. H. promptly mounted a horse and started in pursuit. He overhauled the runaway above Frank Stanton's, over 2 1/2 miles from the starting point, and stopped it by riding hold of the bridle reins, while riding alongside. The damage done to the vehicle was slight, but several dollars' worth of groceries and other supplies were nearly ruined.

H. J. Ormsby, of Black River Falls, Wisconsin, special agent of the post-office department, inspecting and investigating rural free delivery mail routes, spent Saturday and Sunday in town, the last of his old friends, E. H. Patton. While here he drove over the mail route and found it a success in all particulars, excepting as regards the boxes. The only requirement of the government is that all patrons shall have a suitable metal box to protect their mail. Mr. Ormsby instructed the postmaster to notify all patrons of the route, of the requirements of the government, and provide the boxes, and to refuse the service to all who refused to pay for and place the metal box to receive their mail. It seems as though all who are benefited by rural free delivery would take pride in meeting so small a requirement. To a forefinger driving through our valley and noting the soap boxes, rain boxes and almost any kind of a box put out at some places, it would look as though the United States was about to go into bankruptcy.

You Need Glasses.

Weak Eyes Strengthened, Failing Sight Restored, Headache Prevented. The above-named benefits are assured by using Mrs. Dr. Frank's lasting lenses, the only lens ever manufactured that the wearer can use in the strongest light for hours, with ease and comfort.

1. If you are unable to read fine print, to sew or do any fine work for any length of time, especially by gas or lamp light, you need glasses.

2. If the eyes ache or water, or everything "swims" or becomes dim, or looks hazy or blurred when using them a short time, and you have to look hard to see plainly, you need glasses.

3. If you have a smarting and burning sensation in and about the eyes, you need glasses.

4. If you find yourself looking sideways (turning the head to one side or laying it toward the shoulder to see an object plainly), you need glasses.

5. If you see well at a distance and not close to you, or vice versa, you need glasses.

6. If you become sleepy or have a tired feeling in the eyes after reading a short time, you need glasses.

7. If you squint the eyes to see more plainly, you need glasses.

8. If you cannot easily thread a needle, you need glasses.

9. If you have redness and inflammation of the eyes and lids—frequently there is a dull ache or soreness of discomfort in or about the eyes—you need glasses.

10. If you have a frowning expression in or about the eyes, squint or shrink upon going into the sunlight, or do not see as well as your friends, you need glasses.

11. If you have glasses and they are not perfectly easy or comfortable, they are not right, and are an injury to your eyes.

12. If you need glasses now, you need them, and the sooner you get them the better for your eyes. Every day's delay may mean one day nearer total blindness. Then, how foolish to postpone getting glasses!

Parents and guardians, as well as school teachers, professors and others entrusted with the care of youth of both sexes, cannot confer a greater boon on those under their charge than to guide them in the selection of proper glasses, should their eyesight be weak or falling from whatever cause.

Individuals are prone to delay the use of glasses as long as possible, some from motives of personal vanity, and others because they have been told it is better not to use glasses till rapidly failing eyesight absolutely compels their aid. Both these motives are wrong, and lead to most disastrous results. Spectacles are worn by sensible people as much to nurse and protect the eye as to increase the sight, in short, to assist nature and preserve the vision.

Mrs. Dr. Frank, accompanied and assisted by her brother, Prof. Ernest Benson, A. M., D. D., is stopping at the Mt. Hood hotel, will remain only until June 1st and June 2nd.

Attention to Your Eyes. You are cordially invited to call on the celebrated eye specialists stopping at the Mt. Hood hotel, and see the material of which Mrs. Dr. Frank's glasses are made. It is the purest and most transparent of all known substances, and is therefore eminently adapted by nature for the manufacture of lenses. Mrs. Dr. Frank, who is accompanied and assisted by her brother, Prof. Ernest Benjamin Arnold, has a number of very fine specimens of this crystal, and they take great pleasure in showing them and explaining the various processes they undergo in the course of being ground into lenses. No one needs to hesitate to call, as you will find Mrs. Dr. Frank a charming and interesting person.

Ladies and patrons will find her an intelligent and sympathizing friend on whom they may rely with confidence. June 1st and 3d, Friday and Saturday, will be the last days you can consult these specialists.
