

Hood River Glacier.

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1900.

Men do not often split their tickets when it comes to national or state issues. "Principles, not men," is the motto of the party man. He likes to vote solidly for the candidates of his party who will, if elected, have a vote that may affect the issues upon which parties take sides on national questions.

Memorial Day was observed in Hood River by many going to the cemeteries and decorating with flowers the graves of departed friends. At 9:30 o'clock friends of the dead buried in Irving cemetery gathered there and the decorations were made under the direction of Comrade Callahan.

A Public Park. Hood River will have a public park and picnic grounds in Blowers' addition, near the big springs, if the following agreement can be fulfilled by the public.

I hereby agree to give the public the use of six lots, as follows: Lots 5, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14, adjoining the springs, in block 5, A. S. Blowers' addition to Hood River, for a public park and picnic ground for the term of six years; provided, that the citizens clean up the ground, trim trees and erect good, substantial seats, band stand and speakers' stand, swings, and other fixtures to accommodate 1,000 people, and keep same in repair without expense to me.

Crupper School. The closing exercises of the Crapper school were held Friday afternoon, May 18th. A bountiful picnic dinner was prepared and served by the good ladies of the district.

Last Tributes to Miss Foss. A genuine gloom was cast over this entire community when it learned of the awful tragedy which deprived us of one of our most highly-cherished daughters.

Class Prophecy. FRANKTON SCHOOL, 1900. It was in the summer of 1915 that I decided to leave my home in New York City and visit my native state, Oregon, and the scenes of my childhood; afterwards to continue my long planned trip around the world.
