PLANS FOR CARNAGE

Disclosed by Sundry Filipino Documents Captured.

Manila, June 13 .- The great store of insurgent documents discovered by General Funston, together with the interesting papers which Captain Smith found in the possession of General Pantaleon Garcia, throw interesting side lights upon the Filipino government. Most important of the lot is Agvinaldo's plan for the uprising of Manila, which was drawn by him at Malolos, is in his own handwriting in Tagalog language, and bears the date January 9, 1899. Pinned to the document was a translation into Spanish done in the hand of Buencamino. Aguinaldo's order was addressed to his "valiant sandatihans" or bolo men. When the word for the uprising was given they were to slay all American soldiers in Manila. The inhabitants were to repair to the housetops, whence they were to hurl down upon the insurgents heavy furniture and any iron implements they might have, heated red hot. They were also to have ready in their houses hot water, which was to be thrown upon passing soldiers, or squirted at them from bamboo syringes. The women and children were exhorted to help in preparing the water and boiling oil, which they were to pass out to the men for use. Afterward the bolo men were to run through the streets slashing Americans wherever they met them. They were instructed not to stop to pick up the guns of the soldiers they killed, those could be collected afterward. The bolo men were warned to restrain themselves from the temptation to looting, because, as Aguinaldo explained, he was particular desirous to make good in the eyes of foreign nations his assertions that the Filipinos were disciplined and civilized people. Particular injunctions were given for protecting the Man and Woman Now Serving Life Sentences for Murder. Topeka, Kan., June 13.-The supreme court has reopened the celebrated murder cases of George Dobbs and Mrs. Amelia New, now serving life sentence in the Lansing penitentiary for the murder, near Eureka, in 1897, of Joseph New, the woman's husband. The court has granted a writ of coram nobis, which is, in effect, an order to the district court to hear the application for a new trial, which the lower court had refused. Dobbs and Mrs. New were convicted two years ago. The theory was that they were in love, and conspired to get rid of New, so they might marry. After they had been in the penitentiary for some time, Alvin Ballard, sent up for horse stealing, asserted that he could prove that Dobbs and Mrs. New were innocent. Ballard said Frank Allgood, now in the penitentlary for forgery, William Turner and he were the real murderers. Ballard told the story in detail, saying he belonged to a robber band organized by Allgood, and told the officers where they could find many stolen horses and vehicles. Ballard was taken from the penitentiary to verify his assertions, and aided the officers in recovering much stolen property. On the strength of this evidence, application for a hearing in the cases
