

Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1900.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Land plaster at Bartmess'. Tents for campers at Bartmess'. A new man in the Hood River photo gallery.

He's all right—we mean the new man that makes pictures. H. S. Richmond was in town Tuesday, and reported everything all right at Mt. Hood.

Ralph and Edward Button returned home from school at Oakland, Cal., last Saturday.

You can now get up-to-date pictures at the Hood River gallery—opening day Saturday. L. Bradley, proprietor.

Allen Fulton went to Troutdale, Monday, where he will resume work with the bridge builders on the railroad.

Lost—A buggy robe, worked in crazy work and colored pieces. A reward of $10 will be paid if left at this office.

Tucker postoffice will be discontinued June 15th. All the patrons will be supplied from the Hood River postoffice.

Regular meeting of the Eastern Star, Saturday evening, June 16th. A full attendance is desired, as there will be a report from the Grand Lodge.

Dr. F. C. Brosius has returned and can be found in his office over Williams & Brosius' drug store, between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.

The cheapest place to buy furniture and building material in town, and we will back up the statement by figures. Ask our patrons. S. E. BARTMESS.

Mr. W. W. Masters of Portland visited Prof. C. D. Thompson and family last week. Mr. Masters was elected councilman at the late election.

H. E. Sabin and family, who have had charge of the boarding house at Nicolai's mill, are moving to Eugene, where Mr. Sabin has a position as millwright.

F. M. Kagy, traveling for the Oregon Native Son, was in Hood River, Tuesday, in the interest of this worthy magazine. Mr. Kagy is a jovial and enterprising canvasser.

Notice to Oregonian Readers—The Sunday Oregonian can be secured from the carrier while on his route and at the news depot between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock. E. R. BRADLEY, Agent.

Monday night some thief stole the tongue, king-bolt and other bolts from the wagon belonging to W. J. Campbell. Mr. Campbell says if the man will come back he can take the rest of the wagon.

Feed and flour will always be furnished by Rand & Stewart at lowest market prices. Bran, $12 per ton; bran and shorts, $13 per ton; shorts, $14 per ton. Peas, 60¢ per ton; 75¢ sack; Dalles Diamond, 80¢ sack.

D. E. Miller harvested 800 crates of strawberries from his patch on Mrs. Alma Howe's place. His crop fell 200 crates short of his expectation, but the price kept up, and his returns will aggregate not much less than last year.

Mrs. H. F. Davidson attended the session of the grand lodge of the O. E. S. which convened in Portland June 10th and 11th. There was an attendance of nearly 300. In the evening the room was crowded until there was not even standing room.

The new summer boarding-house, built by Mrs. Ada Smith, in Blowers' addition, is now complete, and open for the accommodation of boarders. The house has 14 rooms, with all modern improvements, and is situated in a lovely part of town.

I have for sale the beautiful place of E. M. Hunt, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Hood River. It contains 3 1/2 acres. House, barn, water, fruit trees, berries, two horses and wagon, and all the farm implements included in the price. Price $700. Inquire of Geo. T. Prather.

A. W. Whitmer, special agent for the Home Mutual Ins. Co., came up from Portland, Friday, and adjusted the claims of Williams & Brosius, caused by the small blaze in their drug store the day before. Whitmer drew a check for $387.74, in payment of all damage.

Rev. H. K. Benson, of the United Brethren church, left Tuesday morning for Philomath, where he delivered the address at the commencement exercises of Philomath college. His subject was, "The New Man." He will visit college friends in Seattle and Snohomish, before his return to Hood River.

It should be generally understood in this town that when there is an alarm of fire all facades should be shut off, to allow a good head of water in the neighborhood of the fire. When the fire occurs in the drug store last Thursday, there was no water to extinguish the flames in the upper part of the building.

W. A. Goodwin, of Condon, is holding meetings in the Valley Christian church every evening this week. He belongs to the Church of Latter Day Saints, called Mormon, but not of the same faith as the Utah Mormons. Mr. Goodwin is an entertaining speaker, and is a very agreeable gentleman, and is a painter, printer and paper-hanger. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Chapman.

A. B. Jones shipped his berries to Grand Forks, B. C. The first eight crates sold at 50 cents a box. He could have sold many more at the same price, but didn't have the berries to ship. His patch had been neglected and did not bear out very big this year. Home-grown berries are now in the market at Grand Forks, and they are good berries, too.

A big man, over six feet, wearing a straw hat with a black band, and riding a bike, worked Hood River for the sale of what he called a "fluter." The fluter was on the boat on Tuesday for Dalles. The man claimed the instrument to be of steel, but it was tin, and cost him four cents. He manufactured the "fluters" in a tinshop in town, and sold them for what he could get, and all he got over five cents was clear profit. A lady on River street was inveigled into buying $2.50 for one, and then the vendor crossed the street and sold one for fifty cents. If the fluter was made of steel it would be a great aid to the dressmaker, but, made of tin, it is a fraud.

An explosion of phosphorus occurred at the back room of Williams & Brosius' drug store last Thursday. The phosphorus is kept under water, and the vessel in which it was kept leaked and exploded the phosphorus to the air, causing the explosion. In an instant the whole room seemed to be ablaze. F. C. Dallas heard the alarm and rushed in with his chemical fire extinguisher and succeeded in subduing the flames before any serious damage was done. Monday at the time was from the west, and the fire had got beyond control in the drug store, every business house in town, with the exception, probably, of Blowers & Son's brick and the post-office, would have burned. If the explosion had occurred in the night, with the wind from the west, nothing could have saved the town.

H. D. Langille received notice last week of his appointment as special field assistant in the United States geological survey and has been ordered to report to Tacoma. His duties will be to inspect the forest reserves in the state of Washington. Mr. Langille is an experienced mountaineer and has made a study of the work assigned him. For several years past he has acted as guide for guests at Cloud Cap Inn who desired to climb Mt. Hood, and no man is better acquainted with the grand old mountain or has climbed to its summit oftener than H. D. Langille. He is competent to give a good report of his work, and no better appointment to this position could have been made.

A fishing party consisting of Joseph Frazier, M. V. Rand, W. J. Campbell and Ben Fagdale, went to Stevenson on Tuesday last week. From Stevenson they went to Geer's lakes, three miles out, where they went into camp. The fishing was good and the party brought home 100 fine trout, besides what they feasted on in the woods. Mart Rand was the boss fisherman. W. J. Campbell proved himself to be the boss cook; he could fry the fish to a turn and flip the festive flapjack in one time and two tripping motions. Jos. Frazier was good at gathering and Fagdale was good at fishing, telling stories and could "wash" every day. The party camped four days and had what they called "a way up time."

J. A. Cook was in from John R. Bird's camp, on east fork of Hood River, Tuesday. He reports several accidents in the logging camp: Last week William Wheeler got his foot cut with an axe; Oliver Richardson's arm was badly cut by a cross-cut saw; R. B. Lindsay was hurt three weeks ago by the limb of a tree falling on him; Archie Pierce was hurt in the same way at about the same time, and after he came back to work his hand was cut so that his thumb will be permanently stiffened. Bird's camp is putting in a big lot of logs. They have the river about half a mile below the county bridge. Mr. Bird has just finished blasting out an old landmark known as Cougar Rock. Will Wheeler superintended the blasting.

Mrs. Dr. Frank, the eye specialist, made her stay in Hood River longer than she expected, owing to the demand for her services and the call for glasses, with which she fitted the eyes of many of our people. Dr. Frank's long experience and good judgment enable her to fit glasses in the most obscure cases, when others fail. Tuesday she left for Arlington, and will make a tour of the towns of eastern Oregon.

E. E. Savage exhibited some of his Magoon strawberries in town Monday, and the GLACIER acknowledges the receipt of a box of these berries. Mr. Savage has great faith in this variety of strawberry. He says they ship well, and that when he was in Montana last year the few crates of Magoons sent from this place sold for twenty-five cents a crate more than the Clark's Seedling.

Prof. R. R. Allard, principal of the Dufur schools, was a visitor in Hood River and White Salmon last Saturday. Mr. Allard was formerly principal of the Hood River schools. He has succeeded admirably at Dufur and has been re-engaged for another year by the school board of that enterprising town.

E. Warren's new cottage in Blowers addition will be completed in about two weeks. M. R. Noble is the builder. The house has eight rooms, is nicely finished, with modern conveniences, and is for rent. This is one of the loveliest spots in town for a residence. The view of Mt. Adams and the mountains across the Columbia is grand.

The leader office at Shaniko was robbed one night last week, and Frank Eastabrooks, a printer, was loser to the amount of $75 in gold. The thief chloroformed the two printers asleep in the office. A man mean enough to rob an old printer like "Dad" Eastabrooks should be hunted down and sent to the pen for life.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stranahan are both sick, and have been in a serious condition. Mrs. S. S. Noteman now has charge of them, and they are somewhat better, but visitors are not allowed to see them. Mr. Stranahan has chills and fever, and erysipelas in the face and head.

Miss Madge Warren completed a successful term of school at Mill Creek, near the Dalles, June 8th, and returned home Saturday. Mrs. Cameron, the lady with whom Miss Warren boarded at Mill Creek, accompanied her home for a visit of several days.

Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb tea. Removes all impurities from the skin, producing a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25c. and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Last Saturday S. W. Curran of Viento made his first appearance in Hood River since his leg was broken in the runaway accident six weeks ago. His leg is mending nicely, and S. W. will soon be himself again.

C. E. Markham sent a crate of strawberries to Brigadier General E. R. Kellogg, at Fort Carson, Colorado. The berries were grown by T. R. Coon. The general was delighted with them and said they arrived in fine condition.

W. R. Winnans gave the GLACIER a box of strawberries on Saturday that set the record for this year. Nineteen filled the box. The berries are a cross between the Sharpless and Magoons.

Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold on a positive guarantee. Cure heartburn, distress after eating, rising of the food, or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Jos. Frazier reports the yield of his crop of strawberries better than last year. He finds it pays to cultivate well in the fall and not touch his patch with cultivator or hoe in the spring.

S. J. LaFrance left, Tuesday night, for a visit to his old home, at Elmira, N. Y. He will go direct to Philadelphia, and take in the republican convention, June 19th.

G. W. Backus has been quite sick of late and is confined to the house. Stomach trouble; dropsy and old age are the causes of his indisposition. His age is 82.

Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

The game law, it is said, is being violated every day. The lightest fine for killing birds protected by law is $50, and the informant gets one-half.

A mecn'ght lawn social was given by the ladies of the United Brethren church, last Saturday evening, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth, of Belmont. About sixty persons went out in hacks and on wheels, and together with some of the sociable good people of Belmont, enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess. Nothing was quite so cool, but by the aid of a huge campfire, the heat of the moonshine and the games actively engaged in, $17 worth of cream was singly stowed away. Everybody departed with good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. W., and a vote of thanks to Messrs. Hadly & Woodworth, and the Mountain Stage and Livery company, for free transportation.

The Mt. Hood hotel changed hands Tuesday. C. A. Bell retires, and the new proprietor is none other than our popular county school superintendent, C. L. Gilbert. Mr. Gilbert has long desired to come back to Hood River, to make his home, but no one suspected he contemplated becoming a boniface. The new proprietor is well known and popular, and with the able assistance of Mr. Gilbert, the GLACIER predicts he will make a success. Hood River is to be congratulated upon the return of the Gilberts to our society.

An effort has been made to have a union Sunday-school picnic, and arrangements are about completed for such a picnic to be held on Thursday next, June 21st, at the Moody place on Neal creek. We trust there will be a large number present from all the schools in the valley, not only of the pupils, but also of their parents and friends. Everybody come with lunch and prepared to have a good time.

The strawberry money has been scattered around freely in squaring accounts, since the returns began coming in. Everyone has been benefited directly or indirectly by our strawberry harvest. Everyone among us can now pay his debts, or pay part. The GLACIER returns thanks to its subscribers for the promptness in paying up, thus enabling the editor to pay off some of his obligations.

Mrs. Rose McCoy on Monday sold to S. Cochran her home place three miles south of town. Mr. Cochran bought the place for a home for himself and wife. Mrs. Cochran arrived here last week from California, where she had made an extended visit. Miss May Roe returned with her.

A Hood River man coming up on the train a few days ago overheard the remark of a passenger, who asked another, "What's the population of Hood River?" "I don't know," replied the other; "but you can count 'em. When the train arrives at the station they will all be there."

The army of berry pickers are fast disappearing. Every train and boat carries them to their homes. The picturesque Indian, with his family of squaws, paposes, canyuses and dogs, is also departing for his reservation, and the streets of Hood River will resume their usual quietness.

There will be no celebration of the 4th in Hood River this year. Two men could not be got together to plan the arrangements. Only one man turned out at the called "citizens meeting," and he not being very enthusiastic, the meeting adjourned, without taking action.

Rev. C. F. Clapp and wife, who have been spending their vacation at Eggermont, returned to their home at Forest Grove on Thursday. Mr. Clapp will take part in the commencement exercises of Pacific university at Forest Grove next Sunday.

Capt. Franklin Pope and wife, who came here from Kansas three weeks ago, are living on the Sam Smith place, west of town. Capt. Pope expects to make Hood River his permanent home. He was a captain in the 101st Ohio, during the civil war.

Geo. Wilson, who came here with his wife two weeks ago, looking for a location for a home, will start next week for Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to locate. Mr. Wilson is a veteran of the civil war, having served in Co. D, 70th Ohio.

When in need of mower or rake call on Dalles & Spangler, and get the Buckeye mower and Thomas rake. Besides getting the best mower made you can always find any repairs you may need, thus saving time, patience and money.

T. E. Coon didn't take the lead in the race for the legislature, but in growing strawberries he takes the lead by a big majority. He shipped about 1,500 crates and sold about 200 to the cannery, making his yield about 1,500 crates.

It might be best to state that the item published in the GLACIER two weeks ago, giving Capt. Coe's discovery of a remedy to kill the green aphid, that the remedy also killed the apple tree upon which he experimented.

Dr. T. L. Elliot, Miss Helen Elliot and Tom came up from Portland last week. Miss Helen has lately returned from school at Meadville, Pa., where she attended for the past eight months.

The man who advertised a lost upper plate of false teeth in the GLACIER, after three weeks found it at home, right where he put it himself. It pays to advertise.

The strawberry crop, compared with that of last year, falls short about 10,000 crates. The crop is nearly all gathered, and shipments have about ceased.

A girl belonging to the Quaker party picking berries for T. R. Coon, picked 210 boxes in one day. Several other pickers went about 200 boxes.

Robt. Leasure, of Mt. Hood, was in town Wednesday, on his way to attend the session of the commissioners' court at the Dalles.

Lost—A dark gray, heavy overcoat; left on the veranda of Mt. Hood hotel. Finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

The Misses Fannie and Annie Bretell, of Woodstock, and Master Alford Parker, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Blythe.

C. L. Copple, while filing a hoe on Wednesday, cut his hand, and will be laid off duty for a few days, in consequence.

Robt. Nervin, father of Mrs. S. C. Staten, arrived Wednesday from Salt Lake, and will make his home in Hood River.

S. Cochran and wife will leave this Thursday evening for Eastern Oregon, to be gone a month.

Miss Emma Konkle of Salt Lake, a school teacher, is visiting Mrs. S. C. Staten.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured. "At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by Williams & Brosius.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins will preach in the Crapper school house Sunday, at 3 p. m.

In Memoriam. Written in memory of James, son of James Gorton, of Weyth, Or., who died at Good Samaritan hospital, on May 28th, 1900, aged 15 years, 11 months.

One by one earth's ties are broken, As we see our hope decay; And the fondly cherished Britches, but to pass away. 'Tis hard to break the tender cords When love has bound the heart; 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words— "That we must part from here. A man came and called his boy, In death's cold arms do lie. We saw our brother pass away, And he had been called his brow, And in our aching hearts we know, And we have no Jimmie now, God needed one more angel boy. Amid his shining band; And so he bent with loving smile And clasped our brother's hand. We miss you from our home dear brother, But soon will come Where thou hast gone before. Hood River, Or. K. S.

A Good Cough Medicine. It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following the grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by Williams & Brosius.

A Practical Demonstration. A fact proved by actual demonstration is more satisfactory than any theoretical proposition. Realizing this, and knowing that they have a proposition which they can guarantee, THE OREGON SANITARY CLOSET COMPANY, of the Dalles, Oregon, have constructed one of their sanitary closets and put the same into actual operation.

This closet is now located in the rear of Charles Burdette's bicycle repair store, on Second street, between Federal and Lehigh streets, the Dalles, Oregon, and is open to the public. It is cordially invited to call upon either Charles Burdette, at his store, or D. S. Dufur, Vest Block, and they will be cheerfully shown the closet, and will be furnished with all the information they desire, upon application to our correspondence with D. S. DUFUR, The Dalles, Oregon.
