C. D. Henrich, agent for Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. of Portland, received a carload of mowing machines and farming implements during the week for his patrons in Hood River. Mrs. Parker received a letter from her son, James, last week, dated at Dutch Harbor, June 7th. Jim reported a pleasant trip. He is bound for Nome, on the steamship Elder, and expects to reach his destination about June 25th.

Peter Long of St. Paul, Minn., is a guest of J. C. Boggs. Mr. Long is an artist, here primarily for his health, but is sight-seeing and impreves his leisure by sketching our grand scenery. He is delighted with Hood River.

The old Union marchouse is offered for sale. The railroad company has served notice on the officers of the Union that the building must be removed to the new track on this side of the main line. Here is a chance for some one to purchase the building cheap.

Mrs. D. Everhart was taken quite sick with gastritis, last week, and was taken to a Portland hospital for treatment. Her son, Herman, accompanied her to Portland and returned home Friday evening, reporting his mother much

Some day, when our town is all burned up, property owners will be enabled to locate their real estate by these monuments, and then Mr. Henderson's work will be fully appreciated.

Galligan-Locke.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Locke, at noon, Wednesday, June 27, 1900, when their daughter Margaret was married to Wilbur H. Galligan, son of James R. Galligan. Rev. H. K. Benson of the United Brethren church officiated in the simple but impressive ceremony. Only the immediate relatives were present. The parlors were very tastily decorated with ferns and cut flowers. After the wedding ceremony the guests sat down to an elegant dinner. The centracting parties are well known and highly esteemed by all. The GLACIER joins their many friends in congratulations and in wishes for a most pleasant and prosperous

Class Rennion.

The reunion Saturday night, at the Mt. Hood hotel, of Prof. R. R. Allard's graduating classes from the Hood River public schools was a decided success. Members of the classes of '98 and '99 and a number of invited guests were present. The time was pleasantly passed with parlor games till 10:30, when the young people repaired to the spacious dining hall, where a banquet was served under the direction of the genial proprietor of the Mt. Hood house. Interspersing the appropriate calleting servers Ars. C. J. Hayes, who has been visitin Portland for the past three weeks, spected home today.
