Malcolm A. Moody returned home from Washington last week. Mr. Moody has been an energetic and successful worker for Oregon, and this accounts for his popularity with the people and the increased vote he received at the late election.

M. H. Nickelsen finished the work of taking the census of the town of Hood River and West Hood River precinct on June 27th. In a couple of weeks or so we ought to learn the population of our town. The enumerators are not permitted to give out the information.

G. D. Woodworth is picking his first crop from his big orchard of young cherry trees. He gave the GLACIER samples of the Lambert cherry, of which variety he has 750 trees. These cherries are large and fine. They are good shippers and have been shipped successfully from Portland to London.

Considerable building is going up on the East Side. Cox & Langille are building a barn, 32x40, for A. Paasch. The same contractors are building a barn, 28x45, for Harbison Bros. Peter Mohr is building a dwelling house, the carpenter being a newcomer named Mickelsen. Chris Bethman and Peter Kopke are preparing to build.

Wm. Robertson, head sawyer at the Oregon Lumber Co's big mill at Cheweth, came home to celebrate the 4th. Last Saturday the mill made the unprecedented run of cutting 81,336 feet of lumber in eleven hours. The boys were working to clear the pond of logs so that they might celebrate the 4th in fitting style.

Bishop Mills and Dr. Thompson, who have been in attendance at the United Brethren conference in Portland, are visiting in Hood River. Tuesday they went up to Cloud Cap Inn. Dr. Thompson was one of the faculty in the Otterbein university at Westerville, Ohio, when S. E. Bartmess was a student there. Both gentlemen live at Dayton, Ohio.

Enos Burke, a 14-year-old son of Mrs. Inola Burke of Hood River, made his way from Kansas to join his folks here, but on the way lost a letter containing the address of his mother. He arrived in Portland about two weeks ago, where he was cared for by the authorities till word of his arrival was obtained by his family through the Portland Telegram. Leslie Burke went to Portland last Friday and brought his brother home.

The new proprietor of the Mt. Hood hotel has made some extensive improvements and added several rooms to that already commodious and popular resort. Former windows have been put in in the third story, and paper and paint are doing the rest towards making comfortable and cozy sleeping quarters. More improvements will be added, but Mr. Gilbert proposes to furnish better accommodations without increased rates.

Mrs. Grace Bartsch surprised her folks Monday noon by returning unannounced from Alaska, she and her husband having arrived at Seattle, Saturday, direct from Dawson via Skagway. They made the trip from Dawson since June 12th. Mr. Bartsch will remain in Seattle for a while and then return to Astoria, while Mrs. Bartsch will remain in Hood River till September. Their party left in April for Dawson City, and made the 600 mile trip inland, mostly over the icefields with dog sleds. The cattle and sheep which Mr. Bartsch took with him sold readily for a good price.

The glorious 4th was ushered in by R. M. Hunt firing the national salute of thirteen guns from the big G. A. R. cannon on the hill. A collection was taken up to buy a keg of powder, which was enough for only ten shots, and T. C. Dallas contributed the powder for the other three charges. Otherwise, the 4th was a quiet day in Hood River. The celebration at Crapper was attended by many of the country people. From town most of them went to Bingen, some to the falls of Hood River, while others went to Portland and Astoria. The weather was cool and pleasant, with threatened rain in the forenoon. Marshal Olinger was on guard and prevented the discharge of bombs and fire-crackers within the danger limits.

John Mohr, son of Peter Mohr of the East Side, was seriously injured one day last week while helping to clean a well on John Crosby's place. He was being hauled up from the well and the rope broke when near the top and he fell 30 feet, striking on his heel. He will be incapacitated for labor for two or three months.

Clyde T. Bonney and family are camped at the bridge over the East Fork. Mr. Bonney went up on Tuesday with the camping outfit and prepared the camp, and his family followed on the morning of the 4th. They will remain in camp for a week or ten days.

Joseph Frazier is doing a fine job of plastering on A. S. Diebrow's new house. It is being hard finished throughout. Mr. Frazier laid the first of Hood River's new bricks on the chimney of this house, and he says they are the best bricks he ever handled in Oregon.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Valley Christian church will give an ice cream social in the yard east of the church on Thursday evening, July 12th. The proceeds are to go towards improving the grounds and church. Everybody will be made welcome.

Postmaster Yates recently enumerated the patrons of the free mail delivery and found that they number 678. For the first month of the free delivery, one year ago, the carrier handled 6,120 letters; for the month of May last the number was 10,640.

Burt Belton was badly knocked out by colliding with a street car in Portland two weeks ago while riding his wheel. He recovered sufficiently from his injuries to be able to return to Portland on Tuesday and resume his work.

J. D. Williams, who was dangerously sick with typhoid fever in Hood River last summer and was taken to his home in Polk county, returned last week looking well. Mr. Williams reports the weather fine and the crops good in the valley.

Mattie Dukes is hand major in the cadet band at the Oregon Agricultural college. He also holds a seagoanship in the college battalion, a position of promotion not often secured by students in their first year at college.

J. L. Gordon on Monday sold his fruit farm at Frankton to J. J. White and will move to town and occupy his house in South Waucoma addition. Mr. White recently came here with his family from Saginaw, Mich.

Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Sammons, with little Margarette Sammons were up from Portland last week. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Sammons were the guests of Mrs. Mayes, while Margarette was the guest of Miss Maude Gee.

Elder J. W. Jenkins returned, Monday, from the state missionary convention of the Christian church held at Turner and reports one of the best convocations in the history of the work in Oregon.

Neff Bros., who are farming the Divers place, now owned by Captain Blowers, will lose much of their hay crop by the late rains. Their hay crop was good and would have amounted to 45 or 50 tons.

E. B. Clark came up from Fort Stevens to spend the 4th in Hood River. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Everhart, is now at his home, where she will stay till she recovers from her sickness.

Winfield Olinger, who has delivered the mail on the rural free delivery route, for the past year, has resigned the position, and Harry Bailey takes his place, assuming his new duties July 1st.

To Delinquents.—The GLACIER is sending out statements to its delinquent subscribers. It is hoped they will respond promptly. We need all that is owing us to pay our debts.

C. Merritt of the Chicago Art Co. is in the valley making delivery of pictures. Mr. Merritt is an old newspaper man and recently edited and published the Heppner Gazette.

Bishop Mills of the United Brethren church will give a free lecture at the U. B. church on Thursday evening. Subject, "Will Power in Sociology." Everybody come.

Mrs. Gee is recovering from her recent severe illness under the skillful treatment of her physician and hopes soon to take up her occupation as nurse.

Peter Felthusen came down from his mines at Mt. Hood last Sunday. He reports a recent assay on one of his ledges gave $4 in gold and $68 in silver.

An old wagon has been left standing in the road on Lyman Smith avenue that is said to be a nuisance for the reason that it frightens teams.

The children's day exercises of the U. B. church will take place the evening of the 15th instead of this coming Sabbath evening.

Elmer Wright, a brother of F. J. Wright, arrived here last week from Indiana and expects to make his home in Hood River.

Judge Prather and daughters, Bertha and Georgia, went to Portland for the 4th and later went to Astoria and the seaside.

Miss Melvier Dawson and Ed Hostetter of The Dalles were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert at the Mt. Hood Hotel on Sunday.

E. R. Bradley has erected a dwelling house in the Barrett-Sipma addition, and moved into it last week.

Miss Pearl Crapper went to Portland on the boat, last Friday, for a visit with Mrs. Hackett.

Capt. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson returned from a trip to The Dalles on Saturday with Mrs. Hackett.

The acorn crop is full. The weather prophet will now predict a hard winter.

Mrs. Pratt Whitecomb and daughter, Gertrude, returned to Portland Saturday.

Miss Mary Frazier has been re-elected a teacher in the Falling school, Portland.

Dr. Brosius attended the Oregon Medical society in Portland last week.

Doug Payton returned to Hood River last week from British Columbia.

Mrs. Kline of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Bone.

Wm. Penn Watson went to Portland, Saturday.

Allen Fulton came home for the 4th.

The 4th was pleasantly celebrated by many in picnic parties to the falls of Hood river. One such party consisted of the Misses Hester Howe, Clara Blythe, Cora and Carrie Cople, Pearl Cox, Gladys Sears of Hood River, Nettie Freden and Gertrude of The Dalles; Messrs. Ralph Savage, Barrett Duncan, Thos. Calkins, Ned Blythe, of Hood River, Earl Sanders and Walter Smith of The Dalles. They made the trip in a four-horse Mt. Hood stage, and spread lunch on the bank of the river, after which the time was spent in climbing the rocky cliffs in securing kodak views of the falls and surrounding scenery.

David Fleming, who came down from Cloud Cap Inn on Monday, reports that Eliot glacier on Mt. Hood has sunk fully 50 feet. It seems as if the props had given away and the whole glacier, a mile by one and a half miles in extent, had tumbled in, leaving the snow and ice fields more rugged than ever.

Tomorrow is regular meeting day for Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C. After the post and corps have adjourned, Mrs. C. Louise Boyden will entertain the members with her eloquent and accomplished in the rendition of several selections. Ice cream will also be served by the W. R. C.

The Emporium sold two lots during the week, belonging to Pipes & Tift of Portland, to Ben Grasset and Jake Young, for $125 each. These lots are situated just south of the army. The new owners will build two houses in the near future.

Miss Anna Thompson of The Dalles, who is one of the new teachers recently selected for the primary department of the Hood River public school, is a graduate of the Monmouth normal school.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Miss Bess Isenberg, who is teaching school in the Johns Mill neighborhood, was in Hood River to spend the Fourth with her parents.

Miss Minnie Elton and the Misses Roberts of The Dalles spent the 4th in Hood River.

A brother of E. W. Winans arrived in Hood River from California, Thursday.

Death of L. Nealeigh.

Levi Nealeigh died very suddenly of heart failure at his residence in Hood River valley, June 29, 1900. He was born in Darke county, Ohio, in the month of November, 1832. Age at death, 67 years and 7 months.

Mr. Nealeigh lived in both Iowa and Kansas, when they were frontier states, and bore heavily all the trials and hardships incident to pioneer life. He was married three times, his first wife dying in Iowa and his second in Kansas. Mrs. Catherine Nealeigh, who survives her husband, resides on her farm in Kansas.

Mr. Nealeigh was the father of nine children, all of whom are living but one daughter, Mrs. Huldah Barnes, who died in Iowa. The following children live in Hood River valley: Mrs. Sarah Phelps, Mrs. Isabelle Tyler, Messrs. Levi V. J. T. and L. C. Nealeigh. Mrs. Clara Barnes and Mrs. Mattie Smith live in Kansas, and William lives in Nebraska.

Mr. Nealeigh was a good citizen—upright in his dealings, candid and reliable in his fellowship with his fellow men. He was a faithful and honored member of the Masonic fraternity and the Eastern Star. The members of these orders attended his funeral in a body, and lovingly paid the high respect that was due his memory. Hood River lodge of Masons had charge of his funeral, which was conducted on Sunday at the residence of his son, J. T. Nealeigh. Rev. J. L. Hershner preached a short sermon, after which, all that was mortal of Mr. Levi Nealeigh, was laid to rest with solemn Masonic rites in Idlewild cemetery.

He, who so faithfully assisted in the obsequies of so many dear ones who are at rest in Idlewild, has himself been reverently laid to rest in this beautiful home of the dead. Peace to his ashes.

Reorganized.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church was reorganized last Sunday evening with the following result:

Democratic Convention.

The democratic convention at Kansas City was called to order at 12 o'clock July 3d. Mayor James Read welcomed the delegates in a lengthy address. Gov. Thomas of Colorado was the temporary chairman. Following his speech came the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and the convention adjourned till 4 p. m.

Kansas City's mammoth new convention hall is pronounced the most perfect and complete ever built.

Much enthusiasm prevails, and although there will be warm contests over the platform and vice presidential nomination, everything is harmonious.

Latest advices from China state that all attempts to relieve Pekin have so far proved useless. The Powers must prepare to meet Chinese forces numbering 140,000, stationed between Tien Tsin and the capital city. Latest reports say not a single foreigner is alive in Pekin.

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health.

Acker's Blood Elixer has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Williams & Brosius.
