

Hood River Glacier.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1900.

It is the consensus of opinion among the school teachers and people interested in educational work, that the Wasco county teachers' annual institute, held last week in Hood River, was a complete success in every particular...

The Wallowa Chief had recently enlarged to six-column, eight pages, and otherwise materially bettered the appearance of the paper.

Hood River Fair, October 5th and 6th.

The executive committee of the Fourth Biennial Fair for Hood River held a meeting last Saturday, at which there was quite a full attendance. Officers were elected as follows: President, H. F. Davidson; secretary, E. E. Savage; treasurer, W. A. Slingerland...

The officers of the fair were made a committee to draft rules for the government of the fair, to report at next meeting of the committee.

On motion, the ladies of the valley and town were invited to meet at A. O. U. W. hall on Saturday, at 4 p. m., to organize for a display of fancy work, curios, etc., at the fair.

A. H. Jewett of White Salmon, Lee Evans of Mosier, and D. R. Cooper of Mt. Hood, were elected members of the executive committee.

The committee adjourned to meet next Saturday, at 4 p. m.

Favorable Mention.

A little pamphlet, descriptive of Hood River valley and the town of Hood River, has been received at this office. It gives a splendid description of the great fruit and timber interests of the valley...

The West Side is in receipt of a neat pamphlet from the Hood River Glacier, embodying all the good points of that famous valley. Bro. Blythe, the author, deserves the congratulations of his neighbors on his good work...

The Sentinel has received a pamphlet published by E. F. Blythe and E. R. Bradley descriptive of Hood River and its surrounding country. They publish the following about White Salmon and vicinity:—Goldendale Sentinel.

An interesting pen picture of Hood River and Hood River valley published by E. F. Blythe, the editor of the Hood River Glacier, and E. R. Bradley, job printer and stationer, of that place. The matter contained in the neat little pamphlet of 40 pages is written from a conscientious standpoint...

The Glacier has issued a very interesting and valuable pamphlet descriptive of the town and valley of Hood River. That section has long since become famous for the excellence of its fruit products...

We have received a neat pamphlet, the work of E. R. Bradley of Hood River, entitled "A Pen Picture of Hood River and Hood River Valley." The workmanship is first class...

We are in receipt of "A Pen Picture of Hood River and Hood River Valley," with compliments of the Glacier. It is a brief illustrated review of their industries and possible future development...

Innocence Abroad.

Hood River, Or., Aug. 25, 1900.—Editor Glacier: As my trip to Portland and the valley has been one of pleasure and profit, will pen you a few lines. The trip down on the Regulator was tiresome. They took on 500 lambs at the landing and 400 sheep at the Warm Springs just below the locks.

The 291 I spent trading and looking up poultry supplies. Visited St. Vincent's hospital to see Comrade John Shaw, who recently had his limb amputated, and found him improving and in good spirits.

Also saw Peter Jochimsen there, being treated for injuries received on the railroad near Viento; also, young Orday of the East Side. All were improving.

Friday morning I took the 8:20 train on the Southern Pacific to Canby and spent the day with A. W. Butterfield, a fancier of 30 years' experience, from whom I got much reliable information.

He is an Englishman and was employed on a shipping house in Southampton during the civil war. They were divided, half being for the South. Business was at a standstill.

Henry Ward Beecher's speech changed him for the Union and he immigrated to this country. I purchased a trio of his white Wyandottes and had a coop of five hens from George Christman's pen at Stayton, who came to Portland Saturday morning.

I got up at 2 o'clock, thinking it was a morning shower. Went to the car line and took a two-hour shower bath in the rain, when a baker came along and told me it was a shower. Took my coop of birds to another street, so I could catch an early truck wagon, and arrived at boat landing at 5 o'clock.

This reminded me of 38 years ago, the campaign of 1862, of Second Bull Run, South Mountain and Antietam. E. D. C.

The Reorganized Church.

Hood River, Or., Sept. 4, 1900.—Editor Glacier: The reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, whose headquarters are at Samon, Iowa, will have representatives in the valley next week.

We are going to camp on a tent on the Hendrick property, just north of Mr. Hansberry's place. We invite a careful investigation of what we have to present, using a Scriptural motto, "Prove all things and hold fast to that which is good."

We wish to say one word to the Bible we use. Bring us one of your King James translations, and we will use it while we are here, promising you that every principle we teach will be found between the two lids. Also wish to state that we challenge any and all of the Utah faction (known as Utah Mormons) to prove that polygamy or any of its kindred evils are any part of the teachings of Joseph Smith. Come and give us a hearing. T. C.

Exploratory.

Hood River, Or., Sept. 3, 1900.—Editor Glacier: In your last issue I read a letter from Mr. John Leland Henderson concerning a check which was refused payment at our local bank, and I take this occasion to thank Mr. Henderson for the strong friendship which the letter reveals.

While I appreciate all that Mr. Henderson has said, I feel that it is incumbent upon me to say that the letter is misleading and does not do justice to the strong friendship which the letter reveals.

My kindred evils are any part of the teachings of Joseph Smith. Come and give us a hearing. T. C.

Mount Hood Notes.

Mrs. Sandman has been very sick for the past week, but was better at last accounts.

The sheep range is getting short, and the sheep men are hunting out all the corners. There will be no range left for cattle in a year or two.

D. R. Cooper has cut his second crop of clover. He has 10 or 12 acres in clover, from which he cut 35 tons of the first crop. His second crop beats the first.

Mr. Larewood, who bought the Tom Fredenburg ranch, has moved in and become a settler here for good.

John Dimmick, forest ranger at Lost Lake, came home last Saturday to get some grub (tobacco).

Miss Lizzie Davis of Walla Walla is visiting her mother, Mrs. Perkins of Mt. Hood. She will return next week to Walla, where her mother resides. L.

Sorrowful Homecoming. Captain and Mrs. Andrew Hoban of Albina have received a letter from their nephew, Lieut. A. R. Billion, who served in the South African war with the Canadian volunteers, saying the troops are returning home.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere.

The Waitsburg Times says the following letter was received by the postmaster of that town. We copy it in full because we know of several Hood River bachelors who are the "rite kind of fellows."

"Cedar Bluff, Texas Co., Mo., July 19, 1900.—Mr. postmaster dear, Sir: I have heard that there is lots of likely young fellers out west that haint got much chance to marry on account of girls being so scarce now if I could find one I would do myself if I haint so off good lookin. I am 31 years old nex fall an way 160 about lite brown hare an eyes an belong to the Baptis church. I hav got a Purty good educatoin. I own 120 akers best bottom land in Texas County got 2 hosses 2 cows 6 head hogs an 2 Sentce an a good appitite fur work an 2 weeks ago I just finish layin by 20 akers of as fine bottom corn as you ever laid eyes on. I can Mary plenty fellers but they air so menny that haint no good for nothin on earth. Hope to here from you soon feller that's got some propey hieself but please be a good husler it dont make great deal difarens you or me."

MINNIE BELL JENNINGS, Cedar Bluff Mo., Texas Co. P. S I haint never been Maryed before an I am a demicrat an for Bryan but if rite kind of feller comes along religin nor politiks wont cut no ise.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering. "I suffered for 30 years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hallows of French Camp, Miss.

"I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble."

I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

The Belgian Hare Craze.

Mr. Grundy, in Farm and Fireside, gives this warning: I want to warn my farmer friends from being "worked" by the Belgian-hare boomers.

These gentlemen are pushing this fad at a lively rate just now, and many people will be led into buying breeding stock at large prices, only to lose every penny invested.

The workers of this fad tell us in their print-out that the flesh of the Belgian hare is far superior to that of young chicken and finds ready sale in all leading markets at 15 to 30 cents a pound, and would be taken at those prices if it could be obtained.

They say, further, that the skins are worth 50 cents to 1 1/2 each and are used largely for making fur hats and clothing. There is not a word of truth in it.

The flesh of the Belgian hare is very similar to that of our common rabbit, and there is no greater demand for the former than there is for the latter, as anybody can soon learn if he will ask the market men. As to hides, there is no market for them to speak of.

They will not bring enough to pay for caring for them, and the thing is a fake and should be let alone.
