A good picture of the late Madison N. Foley appeared in the Oregonian of Oct. 16th. It is a true likeness of the old pioneer.

Dr. Carns bought of the Emporium, last week, lots 11 and 12, block 6, Waucoma, for $300. He will build upon them next spring.

Postmaster Yates' new dwelling house is one of the most commodious as well as best finished and most convenient of any in Hood River. M. A. Cook was the builder and he did a neat job.

Hon. Emile Schanno, fruit commissioner for this district, accompanied by his wife, was in town Wednesday and went out to inspect the nursery stock at Columbia Nursery. Mr. Schanno says Hood River should have had a representative at The Dalles carnival, some one who could have staid there all the time and given out information to the many visitors who were asking about our section. He says, to have had a liberal quantity of our descriptive pamphlet for distribution. About 5,000 strangers visited the carnival, and many were home-seekers. Mr. Schanno is proud of the exhibit of fruit made at The Dalles from different parts of the county.

Judge L. J. Davenport of Mosier met with an accident last Friday which resulted in a broken arm. He drove to the saw mill, where his pony took fright at the noise of the mill and broke his buggy shaft. He fixed up the break as best he could and started home. On his way, going down the hill to the bridge near his place, the broken shaft pressed against the pony in a tender spot and caused him to run away. The judge was thrown out of his buggy and sustained a broken arm. He came to Hood River on Saturday and Dr. Watt set the fractured arm.

The little steamer Iralda was well patronized by Hood River people going to The Dalles carnival last Friday. Among the passengers from Stevenson were Editor Ginder and family, Frank Clark and Eugene Bush. Eugene has been in the employ of Frank Clark for the past two years. He was glad to meet so many Hood River people and said he hoped to come back some day to live in Hood River. He is an ex-candidate for city marshal was looking well.

Special Bible Studies.—At the regular prayer service, Wednesday evening, Oct. 24th, Rev. H. C. Shaffer will give the first of a series of eight Bible studies at the First U. B. church. The subject will be, "The Holy Spirit and His Work." All who wish to enter the class are requested to bring a small tablet and pen. The young people are especially urged to take advantage of these studies.

The Dalles carnival closed Saturday night with a wedding. Shirley E. Parker and Miss Laura D. White of Wapinitia were the happy couple. The Dalles merchants gave them enough presents in the shape of furniture, household goods, groceries, etc., to set them up in housekeeping. The carnival was a great success in every way and will prove a good advertisement for The Dalles and Wasco county.

H. S. Richmond of Mt. Hood, who put in the past two or three summers as forest ranger in the Cascade reserve, came home last week. He says he will not accept a reappointment but will hereafter devote his time to his ranch at Mt. Hood. His orchard is bearing this year, for the first, and the apples are of the best quality. Mr. Richmond says $1,500 wouldn't tempt him to part with his homestead, undeveloped as it is.

Jas. Welch and wife of Astoria spent last Thursday in Hood River, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hibbard. Mr. Welch is grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Oregon and paid Idlewild lodge a fraternal visit Thursday night. Mrs. Welch is president of the Native Daughters of Oregon. Both are making the rounds of their respective lodges throughout the state.

The Pacific Monthly for October is a most excellent number. The fourth article in the series on "The Rivers of Oregon" in this issue, "The River of the Willamette," is particularly interesting, which is now in preparation, will be devoted to the Columbia. Geo. M. Gage, subscription manager of this favorite publication, is now in Hood River and will make a thorough canvass of the valley.

The Davidson Fruit Co. has received some heavy orders for canned apples and pumpkins. They are paying 40 cents per hundred pounds, or 20 cents per fifty pound box, for apples. This is for second-class fruit not suitable for shipping. Their steam cider mill will be running next week.

A syndicate, composed of P. Spangler, J. Bagley, E. R. Erwin, C. D. Thompson, F. E. Barnes, L. Bradley and John L. Henderson, have bought block 32, Parkhurst, for $600. This block lies just south of the cannon house on the hill. It will be cut up into 16 lots and sold for cheap homes.

Politics are beginning to warm up even in Hood River. We occasionally hear the presidential candidates mentioned on the streets and are reminded that the election is only three weeks off. Gov. Geer will speak here on the 27th, and later Dell Stuart and Earl Sanders will speak.

Chris Dethman took first prize on fruit at The Dalles carnival. Wm. Ehrick received special mention for his box of Hyde's King apples, one of them measuring 1½ inches in circumference. Geo. Booth's big Gloria Mundi apples also received special mention in the newspapers.

The editor of The Glacier was given credit at The Dalles carnival for exhibiting the biggest squash. The squash was grown by W. P. Watson and presented to the editor just before Mr. Watson left on his visit to the Sound.

Fred Bailey and family went to Portland last Saturday. Mr. Bailey, who is an expert drummer, will take lessons and practice on the trap drum in the orchestra of the leading theatre. He may remain in Portland all winter.

The winter apples of Hood River have colored wonderfully in the past two or three weeks. The rain of two weeks ago and the fine sunshine weather since have caused the apples to color beautifully.

E. E. Savage last week bought of the Emporium lot 1, block 1, Waucoma; consideration $250. This property lies just north of Dr. Shaw's residence. Mr. Savage will build upon the lot in the near future.

Up to the first of this week the Davidson Fruit Co. had sold to Hood River fruit growers 30,000 apple boxes for this year's crop. It is estimated that 20,000 more will be required.

Richard Kirbyson and family are greatly in love with the site of their new house. It is situated near the bluff and commands a fine view up and down the Columbia river.

The new store of Hanna and Hartley will open tomorrow. Part of their goods have arrived and when the counters are put in they will be ready for business.

A. H. Miller and family arrived here last Saturday from Milton, coming overland in their own conveyance. They are looking for a farm to rent.

Miss May Boorman is attending the high school at The Dalles. Her mother visited her last week, returning home Monday.

J. L. Gordon, having completed his new dwelling house, is now building a commodious barn.

Mrs. Chas. Early and children of Vienna visited relatives in Hood River the first of the week.

B. F. Gerking and family moved to their new home on the Carl Ross place last week.

H. Henderson, a carpenter at Grass Valley, passed several forged checks and was exposed.

Gov. Geer is announced to speak in Hood River on the 17th.

Labor-saving devices are prominent features of the present age—desirable, too, even at extra expense, but especially so when it COSTS YOU NOTHING, as in our ready-to-wear LADIES' SKIRTS, which cost no more than the material. We have them in crepon, ladies' cloth, worsteds, etc.; black, gray and other colors, and prices as low as they can be.

Our RUBBERS are as good as the best in quality and have an improved, reinforced back which is superior to all others. We also fit each to insure best service. Prices same as all first quality goods.

Our Royal Tailoring samples always open for inspection. If you want something good and up to the minute in style, this is your line.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure acute or chronic poisoning, or any other blood disease. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Williams & Brosius.

Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Frankton Notes.

Everybody busy picking and packing apples.

The school is getting along nicely. Prof. Barnes and Miss Brown are in their element.

Claude Coppel is building a fine dwelling house down at the Davenport planer. Noble and Eastman are the carpenters. Wonder what Claude wants with a house?

We regret the loss of Mr. Gerking and his estimable family, but our loss is the valley's gain.

Miss Edna Brown visited with her parents at The Dalles over Saturday and Sunday.

The Davenport Bros. must be doing a big business from the amount of lumber that is being handled by that firm now.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Noble were most agreeably surprised last Tuesday evening by a goodly number of their friends and neighbors breaking into their house with well-filled boxes and baskets of the finest of all the goods to eat, it being Mrs. Noble's 42d birthday. The presents were nice and showed the high regard her friends have for her. After oysters and all the other good things, the time was spent in social chat and mirth till a late hour, when all returned home saying it was good to be there. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Belieu, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Boorman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eby, Mr. and Mrs. Oat Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boorman, Mr. and Mrs. W. M.
