Hon. Dell Stuart spoke to a good audience in A. O. U. W. hall Wednesday afternoon. This was the first speech of the campaign in Hood River. Mr. Stuart is a pleasing and entertaining speaker. Earl Sanders, who was billed to speak at the same meeting, failed to appear, having been sent in another direction. He may fill his engagement here later.

The family of A. B. Bonney arrived here last Friday from Tygh Valley. They have come to stay. Clyde T. Bonney and his father have exchanged places in business. Clyde is running the ranch in Tygh Valley, while his father has bought the business here of Clyde's creditors and will continue to manage it.

Two men were arrested by Marshal Olinger, last Friday night, charged with holding up and attempting to rob a man near the depot. The man held up was from Dufur. He had no money and the robbers got nothing. The Dufur man failed to appear against his assailants and they were released on Monday morning.

Mrs. M. B. Potter and Mrs. H. W. Wait each received one year's subscription to the Glacier as premiums on tickets exhibited at the Hood River fair. Both ladies complained that the other premium awarded at the fair could have given better satisfaction.

E. G. Jones of Appleton, Wis., was a caller at the Glacier office last Friday. Mr. Jones, who is accompanied by D. A. Jones of Appleton, is making a tour of the coast and stopped over in Hood River to meet old friends and look after business interests in this vicinity.

The Rev. F. E. Jackson's warehouse tumbled and went down about three feet last Friday. An extra carload of flour and feed was too much prosperity for it to stand up under. A kitchen that was asleep in a box in the building was unhurt.

W. T. Haasberry, who was seriously injured last summer by a hand saw and any kind of plank you want; up to date, too; no old stock to sell off; most all his blanks are printed at home, and his township plate are the best I have ever seen.

One of the best farms in Hood River valley, West Side, containing 94 acres; well improved; plenty of water; 1 1/2 miles from town. Price $50 per acre. A fine farm, 100 acres, three miles from White Salmon landing, Wash. Well improved, and goes at a bargain. For sale by Geo. T. Prather.

For Sale—A fine stock and fruit farm, containing 240 acres, 8 miles from town. Will sell all in one body, or I will divide it up into 80-acre tracts. Small orchard, house, barn, and nearly all under fence; cultivation; plenty of good water, 3 large springs. Call on or address Geo. T. Prather, Hood River, Or.

At the top of a flight of stairs now being built at the head of avenue by school house lies the beautiful Waucoma Park addition to Hood River. Every lot has a fine view. For next ten days lots can be purchased in this addition for from $50 to $100 cash. After ten days the price will surely advance. For sale at the Emporium.

The love of animals is deeply planted in the hearts of every rightly constituted human being, and in nature, scientific training has been added, the intellectual and lovable natures in many times multiplied, and our sympathy with, and affection for them correspondingly increased. Prof. Barnes with superior trained dogs and ponies will be at Hood River, the evening of Tuesday Nov. 6, 1900.

Republican speaking tomorrow.
 Prof. Daut, the optician, is in town.
 An epidemic of epizootic is going the rounds.
 The polls in the east precinct will be in the Champlin building.
 Arthur Pierce and his bride have gone to housekeeping at Nicolai's mill.
 Capt. H. Ferguson has been confined in his house during the week with the grip.

It is reported by grapevine that Hood River is to have another barber shop and another store.
 Strawberries are blooming in many patches in the valley and ripe berries are reported.
 Before you plan any fancy work for Christmas, see the magic stamping pad at The People's Store.
 Tilman Ford, candidate on the republican ticket for presidential elector, will speak in Hood River tomorrow, at 2:30 o'clock.
 A. A. Bonney has purchased the whole of the property belonging to Clyde T. Bonney and will continue the business at the old stand.

The Davidson Fruit Co's cider mill is now in operation. Those who wish to have their apples made into cider can now be accommodated.
 The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will meet at the residence of Mrs. F. B. Barnes on Friday afternoon. A full attendance is desired.
 The polls for voters in West Hood River precinct will be in the old school house. The dog and pony show has been army engaged for next Tuesday evening.

Among our young men of Hood River who have become skilled in horsemanship is Earl Clark. He has successfully ridden some of the widest unbroken canyons and up hill last Saturday considered himself able to master the wickedest of the broncho breed. Last Saturday he went out home with John Roberts to break in a wild-eyed cayuse pony that John said was incorrigible. He saddled the pony all right and mounted him and was congratulating himself on having an easy victory when the pony commenced bucking and kicked till he threw Earl into the middle of next week, our informant said, but later returns state that he landed all right on the other side of a stake and rider. Next day Miss Lucy Roberts proved her skill in equestrianism by successfully riding and managing the same fiery, untamed steed.

W. A. Stark of Rock Creek was in town last Friday to make application to prove up on his homestead before Judge Prather. Mr. Stark is an old soldier, having served in the 2d Missouri heavy artillery during the civil war. He says there are 25 or 30 families settled on Rock creek and they have good farms and orchards just coming into bearing. The settlement is about five miles from Hood River, but for the want of a wagon road to this place the settlers do their trading at Mosier. Mr. Stark says some grading would be necessary to make a wagon road to Hood River, but that the work would not cost as much as it did to make the grade on the new road at Reynolds' place on the East Side. These people all desire to trade at Hood River and ship their fruit from here, and Hood River should see that they have a wagon road for the purpose.

Charles Metcalf, wife and child of Grand Forks, Minn., are visiting F. G. Church and family at Belmont. Mr. Metcalf is an engineer in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad and has had charge of an engine for the past 20 years. He is an old acquaintance of Capt. Blowers and visited him four years ago. It was through Mr. Metcalf's recommendation that Mr. Church came to locate in Hood River.

Hon. Dell Stuart spoke to a good audience in A. O. U. W. hall Wednesday afternoon. This was the first speech of the campaign in Hood River. Mr. Stuart is a pleasing and entertaining speaker. Earl Sanders, who was billed to speak at the same meeting, failed to appear, having been sent in another direction. He may fill his engagement here later.

The afternoon reception tendered by Mrs. A. B. Canfield, on Friday, Oct. 26, at the residence of her uncle, F. F. Bradford, to the ladies aid society of the Congregational church, was a very enjoyable affair. About twenty members were present, and a most interesting and profitable presentation was given. Mrs. A. J. Graham was awarded the prize, a point lace handkerchief, for guessing the largest number of drawings, while Mrs. H. F. Davidson received the booby prize, drawing slate. A dainty luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. C. J. Hays, Mrs. Jas. Graham, Mrs. F. C. Brosius, Mrs. C. R. Bone, Mrs. A. J. Graham, Mrs. M. E. Shaw, Mrs. H. F. Davidson, Mrs. N. E. Bone, Mrs. C. D. Thompson, Mrs. E. E. Savage, Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Mrs. Chas. Clarke, Mrs. Rachel Hershner, Mrs. F. S. Davis, Mrs. J. L. Hershner, Langille, Mrs. J. F. Arnold, Mrs. H. C. Bateham, Mrs. N. Tostevin, Mrs. A. McMillan, Miss Smith, and Mrs. A. B. Canfield.

Hood River has been visited by heavy rains during the past week. Tuesday there was a steady down pour from 6 o'clock in the morning till 9 o'clock at night. A good many apples are struck on the trees, and if the rains continue there will be considerable loss.

All members of the A. O. U. W. and D. of H. are requested to be present at the hall Saturday evening Nov. 3rd. Bring children also. Anniversary meeting.

D. N. Byerlee would like to hear from a few more ranchmen and poultrymen regarding his proposition in last week's issue. There is money for poultry raisers in his scheme, drop him a card.

S. S. Noteman has purchased five acres of land of M. B. Potter at Belmont opposite the brick yard and has commenced the erection of a six roomed cottage.

Dan'l. Garrabrant yesterday purchased through Geo. T. Prather, the Sam. Smith ranch, two miles west of town on the state road.

We have the best rubbers on the market. The People's Store.

Mrs. Pratt Whitcomb went to Portland Saturday.

101 Years Old.
 A centenarian is a visitor in Hood River. David Irwin, father of Mrs. Geo. C. Coe, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Hood River last week from his home in Michigan. David Irwin was born in Lawrence county, New York, April 10, 1799. The old gentleman is in a good state of preservation and possessed of all his faculties in a remarkable degree. The editor of the Glacier called upon him at the residence of his son-in-law and had a half hour's pleasant chat. Mr. Irwin picked up a book from the table in front of him and read aloud a paragraph without glasses. He reads newspapers without the aid of glasses, but says he puts them on occasionally when he has much reading to do. He recently recovered from an attack of rheumatism, which laid him up for a year. He will visit with his daughter's family here for awhile and then go to California to visit a daughter at Oakland. The old gentleman has two farms in Michigan and personally attended to his business in the latter state for three years. He is a veteran of four wars. When but 13 years of age his father and oldest brother volunteered for the war of 1812 and left him and his twin brother to run the farm, with the help of his mother and sister. He was not enlisted until he was 16, but he was engaged for awhile as teamster in hauling supplies for the army. He volunteered for the Black Hawk war in Capt. John Lowry's company, but his company was never called into active service. He served through the Mexican war, was orderly sergeant of his company in the 1st Michigan infantry, and part of the time was acting lieutenant in command of his company. He served throughout the civil war in the 1st Michigan cavalry, from which he was mustered out as lieutenant. The oldest veteran in the United States army. He has seen as much of the horrors of war as any man living, but the spirit of patriotism still abides in his breast. He was among the first to volunteer in three wars, and he is now up to uphold the flag they would be given. His first vote was for Gen. Jackson, and he has voted twenty times for the democratic candidate for president. Upon the writer suggesting that he would lose his vote this time by completing away from his state, he replied, "Yes, but let four boys back in Michigan who will vote for Bryan." A short time ago, when Bryan spoke in Allagan, Mich., Mr. Irwin rode in a buggy 18 miles to hear him. When it became known that the old veteran was in the crowd at the meeting he was escorted to the platform and given a seat alongside the speaker. At the conclusion of his speech Bryan was introduced to him, when, taking the campaign button from the lapel of his coat, he pinned it upon the old veteran's breast. When asked how he had smoked, he said he had smoked ways smoked, and when he didn't smoke he chewed. He never was intoxicated and made use of whisky only when he thought he needed it. His wife, who accompanies him, is his third wife, in the matrimonial line. The old gentleman is a fluent and interesting talker, full of reminiscences of his younger days, is cheerful, enjoys life and bids fair to live many years.

Married.
 In Portland Oregon, Oct. 29, 1900, by Rev. Arthur W. Ackerman, J. S. Harrison of Hood River and Miss Emma Smith of Grant's Pass, Oregon.

The bride spent her early life at West Salem, Wis., Mr. Harrison's home town, but has been a resident of Oregon for a number of years. Mr. Harrison is a well known resident of Hood River valley, a member of the firm of Harrison Bros., who have conducted a flouring mill, saw mill and farm on Neal creek, on the East Side, for the past dozen years. The couple, after spending a few days at Seaside, will be at home after tomorrow, in their new dwelling house on the East Side. The Glacier extends congratulations.

At the Congregational parsonage on Tuesday, Oct. 30, 1900, W. H. Morehouse of Waco, Oregon, and Mrs. E. J. Powell of Portland, Rev. J. L. Hershner officiating.

The groom is one of the substantial farmers of Sherman Co. The bride has been a highly esteemed resident of Portland for the past twelve years. They contemplate making their home in Hood River valley.

At the Dalles, Oct. 28, 1900, Arthur Pierce of Hood River and Miss Ethel Davis of The Dalles.

Died.
 In Hood River valley, Oct. 6, 1900, Harold Davenport, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newby, aged 10 months. The home is lonely and a mother's hands reach out into vacancy; for little "Harlie" made a place for himself in his brief sojourn here that can never be filled. But there is no death, what seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath is but a suburb of the life elysian, whose portal we call death. N.
