He Has Been Missing Several Days and the Bank Is Closed.

Cincinnati, Nov. 21 .- United States Bank Examiner Tucker today took possession of the German National Bank at Newport, Ky., and posted a notice that the bank would remain closed pending an examination. He also announced unofficially that Frank M. Brown, the assistant cahier, was missing and that a partial investigation showed that he was short about $201,-

Brown, who is the son of Paris C. Brown, ex-mayor of Newport, and one of the leading business men of Cincinnati, has been with the bank for 18 years and was one of its most trusted men. Experts state that his operations extend over a period of 10 years. He left on a vacation last Wednesday, and is supposed to be out of the country. taken with him a considerable amount of money.

Brown, it is alleged, has lived a fast life, with wine, women and gambling in his repertoire. His career was cut short by a jealous woman, who made his doings known to the bank's officials. Brown's alleged shortage had been rumored for some time, but the bank officials and directors have repeatedly declared that his accounts were correct and that everything was all right. The wildest scenes were witnessed in Newport today when Examiner Tucker's appouncement was made public, and serious trouble is expected. The capital stock of the bank is only $100,-000. Brown's shortage is double that amount, and more than the reserve and all the assets, including the bank's real estate. He must have gone the

MORAL CRUSADE IN NEW YORK Bishop Potter's Letter to Mayor Van Wyck Has Good Effect. New York, Nov. 21 .- Police Captain Horlipy, in command of the Elizabeth-street station, the official charged with having insulted the Rev. Mr. Pardock, one of Bishop Potter's assistants, was today transferred to another station. The transfer is put down as the effect of Bishop Potter's letter to Mayor Van Wyck concerning the prevalence of vice on the East Side, known as the 'Red Light' district. A noticeable change was apparent in this district tomight. It was very quiet, and during the first hours of the night not a person was arrested. Captain Moynihan, of the West Twentieth street station, who had notified the management of the Grand Opera-House that only sacred concerts would be allowed on Sunday night in the theater, tonight arrested two performers who had done a "song and dance act."
