The precise terms of the settlement have not yet been made public here, but it is believed, outside the diplomatic corps, that the main points are in substantial agreement with those contained in the French note to the powers, namely punishment for the guilty, indemnity to governments and individuals, retention of strong legation guards and the occupation of certain places between Pekin and Taku. A party of American cavalry went today to disperse a band of bandits in a village, 16 miles from Pekin. The village was found strongly fortified, but the Americans attacked and captured it, killing seven Chinese.

Jacksonville, Or., Nov. 28 .- There was a double tragedy here last night. G. W. Traylor shot and killed J. Hardenbrook and then ended his own life. The facts developed before the coroner's jury are as follows: G. W. Traylor had lived near Drain, Douglas county, for two years past. He arrived in this place, with his family, two weeks ago. His wife's sister, Miss Sarah L. Beeson, daughter of W. N. Beeson, of Shubel, Clackamas county, came here with them. Mr. Hardenbrook had been paying his addresses to her, and it is understood they were engaged to be married. Mr. Traylor objected to the marriage, and on several occasions threatened Mr. Hardenbrook's life. The day before the shooting Traylor said Hardenbrook would not live till Charleston, W.
