Small orchard, house, barn, and nearly all under fence; 80 acres in cultivation; plenty of good water, 3 large springs. Call on or address Geo. T. Prather, Hood River, Or. Astonishing low prices in Booth's. E. H. Pickard is sick with pneumonia. C. L. Coppie has been laid up with rheumatism and came to town last Saturday for the first time in five weeks. Chas. Rogers came up from Portland on Monday. He is engaged in contracting and building and reports business slack in his line. A letter received from Miss Alice Cleaver states that she is employed in the cloak department of a big wholesale house in Lafayette, Ind. This being examination week at the Hood River school, school closed on Wednesday for the week. It will open again next Monday, December 3d. Mrs. J. W. Connell and children arrived from Forest Grove Saturday evening and Monday morning moved to the cottage on Mrs. Alma Howe's place. The stock ordinance will go into effect December 1st. After that date, for the next three months, it will be necessary to keep your cows, and horses too, at home. Hon. E. L. Smith went to Portland Monday to attend a meeting of the Pan-American exposition commissioners for Oregon, of which he is the horticultural member. On account of the pressure of work and busy times, the entertainment will be given by the U. B. orchestra will be postponed until New Year's eve. Please remember the date. Mrs. Rose McCoy started East on Monday and will make an extended visit with relatives and friends in Michigan and other states. Her address for the present will be Hudson, Michigan. The Glacier has been requested to ask the daughters of veterans of the civil war to leave their names at the Glacier office. All daughters of veterans 16 years of age and over are requested to leave their names. Mrs. D. G. Hill started Monday for Alden, Ill., where she will winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Disbrow. She was joined on the train by Mrs. Rose McCoy, and the two ladies will travel together as far as Illinois. Mrs. Entrican has reopened the boarding house on Oak and Fourth streets. The location is convenient to the business part of town, in a pleasant neighborhood, and under the new management this house will prove to be popular. Mrs. Entrican will also have rooms for boarders.

A cougar story comes from the East Side. One day last week G. W. Parsons' boys came home and reported a cougar in the woods along the road towards town. Mr. Parsons took his shotgun and went out with the boys to look for the cougar. Arrived at the spot where the animal was seen they could see something in the brush but not distinctly enough to tell what it was. The hunters hesitated to tackle a cougar with a shotgun loaded for birds. Wm. Kennedy happened along while they were holding a council of war and advised Parsons to shoot and take the chances. He fired at the object and there was great commotion in the brush. He fired the other barrel at the first opportunity and then discovered that he had killed a big fat porcupine, weighing about 60 pounds. Mart Rand's cougar is still at large. The pamphlet of information about Hood River, gotten out by the Glacier and E. R. Bradley, last summer, was by far the best advertisement Hood River ever received. There is still a large number of these pamphlets on hand that should be distributed. The books are for sale by E. R. Bradley, the printer, at 10 cents apiece. Mr. Bradley often has calls from a distance for the book, and often the person ordering supposes that he has them for free distribution. Mr. Bradley has been supplying the book in such cases, but it is not right that he should do so. A fund should be raised by some means that would pay for the books and for their distribution.

The Davenport Bros. are prepared to build a lateral ditch to supply Belmont with plenty of water for irrigating purposes, provided satisfactory right of way can be obtained. The ditch will run as high as the Barrett school house, by John A. Wilson's place and J. F. Armour's house. It would seem that farmers would be willing to grant right of way when their neighbors as well as themselves would be benefited. If this lateral is built it will greatly benefit farmers who cannot now get water from the Hood River Supply Co. at the present time, as it will furnish parties below who are now using their water.

The ladies of the United Brethren church will give a bazaar the 12th of December. The place of holding it will be given in next week's Glacier. The selection of articles will be useful and ornamental. We speak for a share of the public patronage. It will be given in time to send the purchases to friends at a distance for Christmas reminders. All those who have kindly donated work and articles will please leave them at Bartness' furniture store by the 6th of December. Com. Tuesday evening at the U. B. church, there was organized a brotherhood of Andrew and Philip of 20 members, and a number more to join who could not be present at that time. A gymnasium and reading room are under contemplation and will soon be started. The organization is Christian in its efforts, and while under the auspices of the U. B. church will welcome any and all men to membership whether Christians or not.

Grandpa Ellis has disposed of his place on Phelps creek to his son Ralph and bought three acres adjoining his son-in-law, Burns Jones. He has erected a neat cottage and made other improvements on the place that he expects to make his permanent home. He is in a fenced-in pond and has some fine thoroughbred pullets that will soon be making good returns.

Arthur Bonney, son of A. A. Bonney, aged twelve years, was taken sick one week ago Tuesday. The doctor pronounced the case scarlet fever. The boy has been very sick but is now getting along nicely, and his early recovery is looked for. The case has been isolated, and there is not much fear of a spread of the disease in this community.

Klose Tillicum literary society organized at Frankton school house last Saturday night. The first debate was on the subject, "Resolved, that money is more to be desired than education." Subject for debate next Friday evening, "Resolved, that ignorance and superstition have caused more bloodshed than pride and ambition."

F. W. Angus' chickens are making a good record for this time of year, when eggs are a good price. He has 70 hens and gathers 35 eggs a day. His hens are Black Minorcas, Light Brahmas, Brown Leghorns and the common scrub stock. He says the winter is doing as well as any of his hens.

E. D. Garner is putting a new lining in his well with terra cotta pipes. It will be up to date when finished. Mr. Garner is a rustler and keeps his small place in good order. He has lately added three acres to his place by a purchase from Mr. Stranahan.

Mrs. Joseph Teal was up from Portland for a few days last week. She expressed great admiration for the Hood River scenery, as seen after the snow storm, and said she wouldn't have missed the sight for a small fortune.

Waucoma lodge, No. 30, Knights of Pythias, will attend church at the Congregational church next Sunday evening, Mr. H. W. T. Goddard will render a vocal solo at this service entitled "A dream of Paradise."

The snow that fell six inches deep all over the valley last week is all gone. It disappeared in less than a week without wind. Sunday last a heavy fall of rain continued all day. Since then we have had fair weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bishop and son Lloyd, and Mrs. J. E. Dishman and family, left Wednesday for Pasadena, Cal., where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Dishman will take along little Emma Gibbons.

The members of the Hassalo club will have an informal dancing party at their club rooms this (Wednesday) evening. All members are requested to be present.

Grant Evans, during the week, received wedding cards announcing the marriage at Ritzville, Wash., Nov. 21, 1900, of Henry A. York to Miss Eva Lorena Meyer. The local telephone has averaged 180 local calls a day for the first three days of this week. This shows that the boys in the office have no time to sleep. C. H. Rogers, while in Hood River during the week, sold the old mill property, including the falls, at Frankton to Dick Nealeigh for $250. B. S. Andrews made sale of the balance of his place at Nicolai's mill to Edward Hardie, last week. Consideration, $1,200. Mrs. Dishman's mother is in feeble health, and it is to help and care for her that she will spend the winter at Pasadena. Sam Blowers will go to Portland Sunday to take a three months course in the business college. C. J. Hayes butchered a six month old pig on Monday that dressed 250 pounds. Mrs. R. Lovelace of Portland spent three days of this week with Mrs. Belle Bartlett. The pairs of children's stockings were found and left at this office for the owner. Miss Carrie Coppie came up from Viendo Monday, returning Wednesday. Mrs. G. E. Williams is visiting in Portland. The mercury got down to 2 degrees below zero at Grass Valley, Sherman county, Nov. 29d.

Christmas Ladies' Home Journal. The Christmas Ladies' Home Journal offers a superabundance of literary and artistic features in most attractive form. Among its nearly two-hundred contributors are Mrs. Lew Wallace, Elizabeth Stewart Phelps, Charles Major, William Perrine, Clifford Howard and Elizabeth Lincoln Gould, while A. B. Frost, W. L. Taylor, Reginald B. Birch, Henry Hunt, George Gibbs and as many other illustrious supply its pictorial features. Apart from the articles having special holiday timeliness of interest, the notable features of the Christmas Journal include "The Inkeeper's Daughter who Dissolved a President's Cabinet," "What May Happen in the Next Hundred Years," "Jerusalem as We See it Today," "Two women's Gifts of Twenty-five Millions," "The 'Little Men' Play," a dramatization for Louise M. Alcott's delightful story; "Where Children See Old Nick," "The Fourteenth Man," "Two Christmas Days at Rock Farm," and "The Successors of Mary the First," "The Story of a Young Man," and "The Blue River Bear Stories," which are continued. Edward Bok has a thoughtful article on Christmas celebration, and there are various articles on women's wear, Christmas presents and edibles, while various other practical, helpful themes are ably presented. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

City Election. The city election will be held next Monday. A caucus was held Tuesday evening, at Judge Prather's office, to nominate three candidates for aldermen and a candidate for treasurer. L. N. Blowers acted as chairman of the meeting and J. B. Hunt secretary. A ticket, to be known as the taxpayers' ticket, was placed in nomination, as follows: Aldermen—Dr. M. F. Shaw, D. McDonald and H. D. Langille. Treasurer—Geo. T. Prather. Twenty-five voters were cast. It was reported on Tuesday that a caucus was held Monday evening, resulting in the nomination of Truman Butler, J. F. Watt and O. B. Hartley for aldermen. Today (Wednesday) is the last day that a ticket can be filed with the recorder.

The Rhyme Social. The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will give a rhyme social at A. O. U. W. hall on Thursday (Thanksgiving) evening. The following will be the program: Duet, "Beautiful Moonlight," Miss Agnes Dukes and Mrs. A. B. Canfield. Solo, "The Three Beggars," Miss Jessie Rogers. Recitation, Selected, Mrs. Louise Goddard. Song, "Rock-a-bye Baby," Nola Atterbury. Duet, "Fair Jinxes," Mrs. A. B. Canfield and Dr. F. C. Brosius. The programme will be interspersed with home-made poetry, in which each lady will tell in her original way how she earned one dollar for the society. Admission only 15 cents. Let everybody come.

Special Social Notes. Editor Glacier: One of the most pleasant and enjoyable affairs that has lately transpired was that of a five o'clock tea and dainty luncheon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Jackson, Friday evening, served by the hostess and daughter in their most pleasant and entertaining manner, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hines of Portland. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Hines, the ladies of the M. E. church and Mrs. Harry Bailey and son. A very pleasant evening was spent by all. Mrs. Bailey, S. E. Bartness and daughter Aldine spent several days in Portland. During their stay there they attended a church social. A recitation was requested of Aldine, after which she received many flattering compliments. A 6 o'clock dinner was served by Mrs. Harry Bailey, Monday, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hines. The evening was spent pleasantly by the party indulging in old friendship chat and jokes.

Notice to Knights of Pythias. All Knights of Pythias of any K. of P. lodges are requested to be present at Castle Hall of Waucoma lodge, No. 30, K. of P., on Saturday evening, Dec. 1st at seven o'clock; from there the lodge will go in a body to the Congregational church. Rev. J. L. Hersher has kindly consented to preach a sermon for the order. Be sure, K. of P. to be on hand. Geo. T. PRATHER.

The Twice-a-Week Republic. Every Monday and Tuesday a newspaper as good as a magazine—and better, for it contains the latest by-telegram as well as interesting stories—is sent to the subscribers of the Twice-a-Week Republic, which is only $1 a year. The man who reads the Twice-a-Week Republic knows all about political, domestic and foreign events; is posted about the markets and commercial matters generally. The woman who reads the Twice-a-Week Republic gathers a bit of valuable information about household affairs and late fashions and finds recreation in the bright stories and books and a dozen other topics of special interest to the wide-awake man and woman.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect the corn from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, rheumatism and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

Experience is the best teacher. Use Acker's English Remedy in any case of colds, coughs or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

C. R. Bone was in the city today placing on the market the output of Wm. Kennedy's fruit cannery at Hood River. The fruit is the choicest, and having been put up right here at home, is large and firm. The cannery made a large amount of fruit and has put out the choicest fruit to be found on the market.—Mountaineer.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

W. A. Jones, foreman of a gang of laborers on the railroad near Viendo, was found dead Thursday morning of last week. He is supposed that he fell from a train and was injured and died from exposure. He was a son-in-law of Amos Root of Mosier.
