Dyspepsia can be cured by using Carter's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Mrs. Joseph McGuire returned with her niece to Colfax, Wash., last week, and expects to remain three months visiting her three sons in the Palouse country.

A special meeting of the ladies aid society of the Congregational church will meet at Mrs. P. S. Davidson's, jr., on Friday at 2:30 p. m. Urgent business. A full attendance is desired.

The ladies of the soliciting committee of Belmont wish to thank the business men of Hood River and all others who so generously contributed toward the fund for the Christmas tree. The result was voted a grand success by the little ones, and they extend a hearty invitation to Santa Claus to come to Belmont again next year.

N. B. Jordan of Iowa, who lately visited his brother J. J. Jordan of Hood River, is interested in Angora goats. He writes to his brother asking what could be done with a carload or two of goats if he shipped them here. Fred Rogers is the only one here who has Angora goats, and he thinks so much of them that he says he wouldn't part with his goats at $10 a piece.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and the gripe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash ave., Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the gripe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of the gripe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Williams & Brosius.

Last Thursday, while H. F. Davidson was having some work done at Fredrick's carpenter shop, he saw what he supposed was a weasel crawl into a wood pile on the street. He called Mr. Fredrick's attention to the animal, and both men went out in the pouring rain to hunt the varmint. After about fifteen minutes' hard work in tearing up the wood pile, while the rain drenched them to the skin, the "weasel" was killed and the exciting chase ended. Later in the day they learned that they had killed one of the ferrets belonging to A. S. Blowers & Son, which had escaped from the store cellar. The ferret had been brought from Portland at a cost of $4.

A runaway occurred on school-house hill that made things lively for awhile in that neighborhood, last Saturday forenoon. D. G. Hill was driving into town with his two daughters and son Donald in the back. Jasper Wickham followed in his hack with his daughter Nellie and Ed Ross. The neck yoke on Mr. Wickham's team gave way and the team started to run. They soon overtook Mr. Hill's team, and the hacks collided, wrecking both vehicles and throwing the occupants out in the mud, but fortunately no one was hurt. Mr. Hill was dragged some distance while holding on to the reins. Dr. Watt's horse and buggy were latched in front of W. J. Campbell's residence and was run into by the runaway and the buggy considerably damaged.

Canby post and W. R. C. had full meetings last Saturday. The post elected A. L. Phelps and J. W. Rigby delegates to the state encampment at Forest Grove and L. D. Blount and P. Spangler alternates. It was decided to have a joint public installation of officers on Saturday, January 12th. The hour for the meeting was set at 12 o'clock, but it has since been changed to 11 o'clock. Dinner will be served promptly at 1 o'clock. The change of time was made to accommodate the people in the country, to give them time to get through and get home before dark. This of course is not intended to reflect on the appetites of the Grand Army boys—it is intended to allow their wives to get home in time to do the milking. The installation services will be held in one hall and the tables will be set in the other. All members of the G. A. R. are expected to bring their wives, and all members of the Relief Corps to bring their husbands.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wells of the East Side occurred quite a social affair on Christmas day, it being a reunion of brothers and sisters with the exception of one sister, Mrs. Emory Brock of Savannah, Ill., something which had not occurred before for twelve years. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wells and family—Perry, Walter, Warren, Jr., Marguerite, Edward and Clifford; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wells and family—William, Elsie, Jessie and Hattie; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thomas and family—Lulu, Earl, Raymond, Eva and Letta; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells and family—Greta and Jerome, Jr. A nice Christmas dinner was served.

J. H. Koberg brought to Reciprocity Corner, Monday morning, 14 dozen eggs gathered the two days previous. He keeps about 200 hens—100 old ones and as many pullets. His pullets are a mixture of Brown Leghorns, Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes. The pullets are laying at least two-thirds of the eggs gathered. His hens are two-year-olds.

G. R. French, who owns an island of 15 acres in the Columbia river, near Mosier, and makes a specialty of raising chickens, keeps about 200 hens. His breeds are White Wyandottes and Brown Leghorns. His chickens are not profitable, but he thinks if he could raise water from the river and irrigate a clover patch, to give the hens green feed in the dry season, that they would be more profitable.

The Royal Arch Masons elected and installed their officers last Saturday evening: F. C. Brosius, H. P.; W. J. Baker, King; D. McDonald, scribe; E. L. Smith, C. of H.; E. E. Savage, P. G.; R. Castner, R. A. G.; G. E. Williams, Master; F. Davidson, secretary; W. A. Slingerland, treasurer; J. W. Connell, sentinel.

The ladies aid society of the Congregational church purchased from E. E. Savage a latest improved range at a cost of $45, which was taken to the Congregational parsonage as a Christmas surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Herschler hereby express their heartfelt gratitude to the society and the public who have so generously supported the ladies aid for this very useful token of appreciation.

S. C. Zeigler of White Salmon was in town Monday. Mr. Zeigler has been doing the carpenter work on A. R. Byrket's addition to his residence, which will cost $2,500 and make the best country residence in Klickitat county. Mr. Zeigler has rented his farm at Trout Lake to Nils Venden, an experienced dairyman from Minnesota.

The members and friends of the Congregational church will take possession of the parsonage on New Year's day—Tuesday next, when the usual annual dinner will be given. The parsonage is commodious, and it is hoped that all the members and friends of the church will be present to participate in this pleasant annual gathering.

W. T. Hansberry, not being able to work with his crippled hand, has turned book agent and is selling a valuable work entitled "The Story of One Hundred Years." It is a very useful book, and should be patronized by all who need and can afford a work of this kind.

The cake walk at the Armory last Friday night had a good audience. Mr. and Mrs. Trice were good in their several characters, in fact, were the whole show. They easily walked off with the cake. Trice and wife can count on having an audience any time they give a show in Hood River.

At the council meeting held Dec. 17th, an ordinance granting the Hood River Electric Light Co. the right to erect poles and string electric wires in Hood River was passed after reading. This report in last week's Glacier.

George Wilson, who left last September to take work in the divinity school at Eugene, will not be home for the holidays, but will go to Pacific Grove, California, as a delegate from his school to the Pacific coast conference of the Y. M. C. A.

Twenty-three new members were initiated into Riverside lodge, No. 68, A. O. U. W., of Hood River, last Saturday evening. The lodge now numbers 81 members, with good prospects of making it an even hundred in the near future.

Earl and Meigs Bartness, Carrie Byrlee, Mattie Dukes, Berton Davidson, Perry Wall and Ernest Hinrichs and Ben Lage, the Hood River students at the Oregon Agricultural college, at Corvallis, are home for the holidays.

Ralph Shelley arrived up from the University of Oregon at Eugene, Saturday, to spend his Christmas vacation at home. His sister, who has been spending the winter in Portland, came up with him.

E. D. Calkins, Hood River's enthusiastic horse fancier, presented the Glacier with a copy of the Christmas number of the Horse Review. The magazine is a gem of the printer's art.

Judge Prather is distributing handsome calendars for 1901. The Glacier acknowledges receipt of one with compliments of New Zealand Insurance Co.

Mrs. Laura Baldwin went to Baker City last week, and will visit friends and relatives in that city and will then go to Spokane and the Palouse country.

W. B. Shute, who is working with the railroad carpenters at La Grande, came home for the holidays. Henry Shute is also home from Pendleton.

A. F. Hershner is spending the holidays with his family in Corvallis. His two oldest daughters are students in the state agricultural college.

Miss Mella White is spending her vacation with her mother at Cromby, in Polk county. Miss Snell is with her parents at Arlington.

Miss Sadie Orser, formerly of Hood River, now of Chenoweth, Wash., has been attending the Portland business college this winter.

Howell Ackerman came up from Portland, on Saturday's boat, to spend Christmas with J. F. Armour and family at Belmont.

Sam Blowers and Louis Baldwin are home from the Portland business college for their holiday vacation.

Prof. C. D. Thompson left on Thursday to attend the state teachers' association at Albany.

Harold Hershner is clerking at the bakery during the absence of his uncle. Skating rink open New Year's afternoon, 2:30 till 4:30.

The family of M. P. Isenberg held a reunion at his home in Belmont on Christmas day. There were present ten children, five sons and five daughters, just the number in Frank Davenport's family, and therefore M. P. rightfully asserts they should be entitled to one-half the Christmas money he was drawing it mildly. The Isenbergs know how to enjoy a reunion. The boys got M. P. out to the barn and made him dance a jig, and they do say that he had it down in good old Virginia style. In justice to M. P. it should be stated that the boys put up the cigars before he consented to dance. Those present were: F. E. Newby and wife, W. E. Sherrill and wife, S. W. Arnold and wife, Floyd and Clyde Arnold, L. S. Isenberg and wife, Floyd Lester Isenberg, F. E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Isenberg, Wm. A. Isenberg, F. H. Isenberg, Walter M. Isenberg, Elmer Isenberg, the Misses Bess, Nell, Pearl and Lena Isenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Clark and child came up from Ft. Stevens to spend Christmas in Hood River. Mr. Clark returned Wednesday, but Mrs. Clark and Beulah will remain for a couple of weeks.

A man without music in his soul was heard to remark that a man who would buy a Christmas horn or drum for his boy ought to be prosecuted for cruelty to animals.

C. H. Pearson, who has been working for Davenport Bros., went to his home at Trout Lake, Monday, for the winter. Davenport's mills have shut down.

McGuire Bros.' market opened up for business last week and report a good holiday trade. They have a free delivery to all parts of town.

Marriage license was issued by the County clerk, Monday, to George Tyrrell and Louisa Underwood, both of Hood River.

Burnet Duncan of the Portland Academy came up Monday to spend the holidays with relatives in Hood River.

Mrs. C. B. Hartley, Miss Gladys, Howard and Catherine are spending the holidays in Hood River.

Pine Grove School.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenias, Duchesne county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

Born.

Near Mt. Hood, Or., Dec. 17, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. James N. Knight, a son.

Married.

In Tamale, Calif., Dec. 17, 1900, Clarence C. English and Miss Alice Stewart.

Mr. English is a son of Mrs. Geo. P. Crowell and was formerly a resident of Hood River. He served in the Philippines as a member of Co. E of the Second Oregon. His Hood River friends extend congratulations.

In Portland, Or., Dec. 19, 1900, H. S. Galligan and Miss Margaret E. Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. Galligan are well known in Hood River and their many friends join the Glacier in congratulations and well wishes for the young couple.

In Hood River valley, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Tucker, Dec. 25, 1900, Frank E. Strang and Miss Doris Tucker; Rev. J. W. Jenkins, officiating.

The contracting parties are both residents of Hood River, the bride being a daughter of one of the valley's substantial citizens. The Glacier extends congratulations and best wishes.

Died.

Lillian Barr, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barr, died of brain fever, Dec. 26th, aged 6 years, 6 months and 25 days. Funeral services were held by Rev. J. L. Hershner, at the residence of Wm. Thompson, on Friday.

Experience is the best teacher. Use Ackerman's English Remedy in any case of colds, coughs or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Don't let Pain Balm also cure rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Williams & Brosius.

SELZ "KROO CALF" WORK SHOES WEAR.

Selz "Kroo Calf" Skin is a special tannage, so named to denote and express its tough, yet pliable qualities and its great powers of endurance. "Kroo" is the original name of a powerful tribe of negroes on the Northwest Coast of Africa, commonly known as "Kroo Boys." They are renowned for their hardiness, suppleness and staying powers; and what the "Kroo Boy" is among negroes, "Kroo Calf" is among skins—tough, enduring, reliable.

Look for the sign of a "Selz"—It marks the Popular Dealer.

SELZ, SCHWAB & CO., CHICAGO.
Largest Manufacturers of Boots and Shoes in the World.

Your Face
Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out, and do not have a healthy appearance, you should try Ackers' Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases, where cheap sarsaparilla and so-called purifiers fail; knowing this, we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Williams & Brosius.
