The merited reputation for curing piles, sores and skin diseases acquired by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, has led to the making of worthless counterfeits. Be sure to get only DeWitt's Salve. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.
Sleighbonding on the country roads was extra good Wednesday night, and several parties took advantage of the occasion to enjoy a moonlight ride in the snow. The prospects are that the good sleighbonding will continue.
Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken, and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels. Chas. N. Clarke.
L. Carter and daughter of Salem were guests at the Parker house during the holidays. Mr. Carter is superintendent of the state school for the blind, and his daughter, Miss Carter, is physical director at Willamette valley. Both were delighted with our valley. Mr. Carter came here to recuperate from a sick spell, and only returned home on account of urgent business.
Papsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.
Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Hersher, on New Year's night, entertained at their residence about thirty of Hood River's young people. The evening was spent in playing croquet, and for securing the largest score at the game Miss Pansy Baker was presented with a beautiful China cup and saucer. Delicious refreshments were served and a far more enjoyable time was had than the mere words expressing it could suggest.
We learn from a conversation with A. A. Bond that he has cut about 700 cords of wood at Wyeth during the month of December, paying for the cutting $1 per cord. The most of this money was paid to Hood River people and went into Hood River channels of trade.
The entertainment at the A. O. U. W. hall, Monday night, brought out a good sized audience, and demonstrated that Hood River's musicians and amateur dramatists are as good as any. The selection by Clarence Gilbert on the violin with the guitar accompaniment by J. S. Booth was of especial merit. The presentation in dramatic form of the Verdi chorus and solo from Ritrovato, Verdi Agaveva, called forth a repetition. The gypsy which Agaveva was splendidly impersonated by Mrs. Louise Boyden-Goddard.
When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as is the case with cod liver oil. It is necessary suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.
A serious runaway accident happened Wednesday, Nov. 29, and the Misses Bernice and Mary Foley were taking a sleigh ride on the state road. Miss Bernice was driving, and while the team was going at a lively rate the pin that connects the pole of the sleigh with the runners gave way. The horse started at once to run away. The sleigh was tipped on one side and the occupants thrown out. Miss Bernice Foley's left shoulder was dislocated and crushed. Dr. Shaw, who was called to attend the injured woman, says that it will be some time before she can recover from her injuries.
At the residence of Miss Teal, Wednesday, Dec. 26th, a pleasant afternoon was spent. The party was given in honor of Percival Harrel, who arrived on that day to spend a week with his mother. Those present were: Mrs. Connell, Eva and Johnnie Connell, Mrs. Lewis, Walter Lewis, Miss Lillian, Elsie, Catherine Lewis, Harry Lewis, Miss Van Wyck, Mrs. Garner, Violet Garner, Ethel, May, Bessie and Clinton Mooney, Clarence, Anna, Gussie and Victor Fossberg, Elsie and Don Udell, Miss Teal, Mrs. Harrel and Percival Harrel. There were recitations and music, after which Christmas tokens were distributed.
Quality and not quantity makes DeWitt's Little Early Risers such valuable little liver pills. Chas. N. Clarke.

"The Baltimore Belle Who Made the Most Beautiful Race of any (and in America)" is the title of an article in the Ladies' Home Journal for January. It is a beautiful story, for stage presentation and illustrated by Reginald H. Birch, and two pictorial pages. A winter service at church, by W. L. Young, was also mentioned. The Baltimore Belle, by Charles M. Jones, is also among the many excellent things presented in the January Journal. Two new snow plans and outfit for "A Country Home at Moderate Cost," and "A Southern Paragon to East Coast," Edward H. Wright of "The Two Centuries and this Magazine"—the Journal. There is also a detailed account of the "Fruitful Harvest," giving eleven views of the magnificent scenery of Washington and Oregon. Practical articles show the fashion of "Fashions of the Year" and touch upon "A Winter Subject for the House." By the Carlin Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.
With its characteristic enterprise, the Chicago Chronicle, easily the most complete and best of the daily papers of the West, has completed arrangements for a series of masterly reviews of progress in various lines during the nineteenth century. The first article, "Evolution," appears in the issue of last Sunday. Following it will be "Literature," "The University of London," "Other equally interesting subjects which will be presented in a series of articles which will continue throughout the winter season. Another extremely interesting and valuable contribution is the beautiful music supplement, the first of which accompanied last Sunday's issue. The Chronicle has always maintained the highest standard of excellence, and its readers are well satisfied that its new departure will prove an excellent one.
Mrs. J. E. Diehmman writes from Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 28, 1900, as follows: "Thinking our friends would be glad of a word from the land of sunshine, I will send a few lines. We arrived here Dec. 29, after a very pleasant trip from Seattle. There has not been a drop of rain since we came—every day one of sunshine, as I write the doors and windows are open and there is no fire, but the warm rays of the sun make it comfortable. The flowers are in full bloom everywhere, the orange trees are bright with golden fruit, and I look around I wonder if it is really winter at Hood River. Many would be glad to have some of the rain that falls in Oregon. Though the climate here is more pleasant, I feel as healthy as I ever was. My fruit, nuts and oranges are good, but they can never take the place of the world-renowned Hood River apples."
The Crapper district, as usual, enjoyed a very pleasant and happy Christmas. Exercises were held on Sunday night by the children and young people of the district which reflected much credit upon all who took part. There were 100 who were present, including 50 nites and presents for the 150 people present. Wednesday evening the following resolution was adopted by the people of the neighborhood: "Resolved, That we, the people of the Crapper district, do hereby extend our hearty and sincere thanks to the merchants of Hood River for the liberal contributions for the benefit of our Christmas tree." (Signed) Jasper Wickham, chairman.
Chas. K. Frather and son Daniel spent Christmas in Portland. It was their first visit to the metropolis, and they took in the sights by spending eight hours on the trolley cars, seeing the city by night. They think Portland is all right. Miss Judith Frather was staying in Portland when they made their visit.
Wm. Graham and his sister, Mrs. Bartsch, arrived here from Dawson City last Saturday. Mr. Graham is in Seattle and will be here in a few days. The party left Dawson Dec. 12th, and were nine days coming out, over the ice. The mercury was down to a few degrees before they left Dawson.

Richard Kirby started for Brevette, Cal., last Friday. He expects to be gone 1100 miles, and he thinks he is lucky to escape with his life.
The young couple arriving in Hood River Wednesday morning and were the recipients of congratulations from Mr. Cople's many friends, here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young of Eugene.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.
Prof. Roxa Tyler of Chicago, vice president Illinois Woman's Alliance, speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, save a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Williams & Brosius.

They are renowned for their hardness, suppleness and staying powers; and what the "Kroo Boy" is among negroes, "Kroo Calf" is among skins—tough, enduring, reliable.
