

Wood River Glacier.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1901.

The Oregon legislature meets next Monday. The election of a United States senator to succeed Mr. McBride seems to be the paramount issue with the newspapers of the state. The avowed candidates are Geo. W. McBride and ex-Senator Corbett. Other candidates may develop before there is an election but none are being mentioned. Both sides are claiming victory, but it may be a drawn battle, like the dead lock of '95 when a dark horse carried off the honors in the last hours of the session.

For the first time since 1880 Hood River is without a representative in the state legislature. Is the late apportionment that gives Wasco county joint representation with counties clear across the state, to blame for this?

The New Year's Oregonian is an excellent advertisement of the resources of Oregon and the Pacific Northwest; full of statistical information, too, that will make it valuable for reference. John Cradleigh wrote the article on Wasco county and gave Hood River a good notice.

The Fruit Industry of Oregon.

No occupation connected with the cultivation of the soil has had to contend with so many adverse conditions during the past decade as horticulture. Not only the codlin moth, but the numerous family of aphids, pernicious scales and sporadic growths threatened the very existence of the industry. Many orchardists in their discouragement cut down their trees and devoted their land to other purposes. But gradually science has come to the aid of the fruitgrower. Entomologists have traced the life history of these dreaded destroyers and pointed out the vulnerable lines of attack. Our experiment stations, also, contributed valuable assistance. Experiment followed experiment until it was satisfactorily demonstrated that the substitute per-worm-kill fungus growths, and that an arsenical treatment was fatal to the larvae of the codlin moth.

The up to date fruitgrower believes that he is master of the situation, and has taken new contracts. Other orchardists have contributed to this revival of interest and rapid expansion of our fruit industry. The Oregon horticulturalist has not been slow to discern that he could not be more happily situated for the distribution of his products, and that this North Pacific country commands the best markets of the world. He is easy to reach by five transcontinental roads, ready to deliver his harvests to every important transportation line in North America, and he rejoices in the near advent of a trans-Pacific line that will introduce him to the subjects of the Mikado, or to his Muscovite neighbors, on the north, now rapidly peopling that vast country. Since the man who plants an orchard today will be able to reach markets that supply half the world with his first crop.

In a recent visit to the Rogue River Valley I found a grower packing a large order for New Orleans, and more recently a neighboring orchardist exchanged the product of 15 acres in apples for $7000, British gold, for export to Liverpool. Spitzenbergs and Baldwin's shipped from an O. R. & N. station to the Middle Columbia district are now being enjoyed in Los Angeles, New York, Honolulu, Cape Nome, Manila, Shanghai, Nagasaki and elsewhere. Our apples, pines, cherries and small fruits, already become the standard of excellence wherever introduced, and recent quotations were invited for thousands barrel lots of apples for export to Japan. With direct and rapid transit to this wide-awake people and especially to the East, we are assured of a rapidly increasing market for the products of our orchards.

The state board of horticulture during the past year endeavored to make a particular survey of the state and to approximate the land available for fruit growing and the amount now in fruit. The value of our orchards runs into millions of dollars and the fruit gathered from them in 1900 exceeded $2,000,000. Yet only about 100,000 acres of land adapted to orcharding is now appropriated to that purpose. Oregon invites thousands of horticulturists to enhance many fold the value of her lands, and, paradoxical as it may seem, the more the more the money comes to us, and the greater the demand. It is indeed true that many errors have been committed in the past through want of knowledge of physical conditions, and there are yet doubting and hesitating at modern scientific methods, but they are fast dropping to the rear, in an age where the fittest only survive. The new horticulture demands men of adaptation and who will combine science with field work, and who believe in the nobility and gather from the miracle of growth and fruitage other values than those of the markets.

Copple-Young Nuptials.

The marriage of Miss Flora Young to C. E. Copple of Hood River was celebrated at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young, north of Eugene, at 8:30 A. M. Young's day, the wedding of the two of Oregon's most popular young people united for wed or woe. The wedding was one of the most brilliant events in local society of the winter season. The parlors were profusely embellished with vines of Oregon grape, sprigs of holly, mistletoe and lovers' knots. A star and crescent artistically fashioned from chrysanthemums formed a beautiful canopy under which the contracting parties stood while the magic words which linked their lives were being spoken. Miss Ada Hanson presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march in an ideal manner. Rev. Morton L. Rose, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated. Forty-five invited guests, including Misses Cora and Carrie Copple of Hood River, were in attendance. Misses Bessie Day and Fannie Young were maids of honor. The bride was beamingly crowned in white organdie and lace, the only ornament being a snub of diamonds on her pearls, the gift of her mother. The groom wore the conventional suit of black. A reception after breakfast followed the ceremony, and the health and future well of bride and groom were pledged in happily-voiced toasts. The newly wedded were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. Mr. and Mrs. Copple took the afternoon overland for a short sojourn in Portland. They will reside at Hood River, at which place Mr. Copple has extensive lumbering interests.

Neola Notes.

Ed. Hardy and the young folks of this place have had great fun casting. The Kloss Tillium literary society that was organized here some time ago, is progressing nicely.

Mr. Nicola's new house is about finished. The mill has shut down here until the snow goes off.

We are getting two mails daily here. Miss Howell's school is still progressing in spite of the bad weather.

They are putting a new pump in the room west of his place, so there will be no danger of her swamping hereafter. Mr. Olson, the captain is over at Underwood's on a vacation.

A. L. Phelps was down to see his son Rowley last Monday.

Robert Leasure came up from Hood River last night on business, and this morning he was followed by a telephone message announcing that his wife had taken suddenly ill and was believed to be dying, and asked for his immediate return.—Dalles Chronicle Jan. 8th.

A supper and social given to the U. B. orchestra at Woolworth's Tuesday evening, thirty three were present. An enjoyable time is reported. Early went out in sleighs.

Two persons united with the Congregational church, last Sunday.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can expect to live long because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the indigestible foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to have indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

Your Face

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out, and do not have a healthy appearance, you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases, where cheap sarsaparillas and so-called purifiers fail; knowing this, we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Williams & Bros.,

In the report of the proceedings of the annual meeting of the Congregational church, given in last week's Glacier, the following resolution and order of the church, D. G. Hill was elected deacon, he being his own assessor. The amount remaining in the church treasury after paying all bills is $60.00 instead of $50.00.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for over twenty years. It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Williams & Bros.,

Ordinance No. 28.

An Ordinance entitled an Ordinance to Provide for the Location and Adoption of Certain Monuments within the Corporate Limits of the Town of Hood River.

Section 1. That, whereas, in pursuance of a resolution of the common council of the town of Hood River, adopted at a meeting thereof on the 18th day of June A. D. 1900, John Lealand Henderson, surveyor, was duly appointed and empowered by said council to make the necessary surveys and plat, and set certain monuments within the corporate limits of the town of Hood River; and

Section 2. That, whereas, at a subsequent meeting of said council, said John Lealand Henderson made his report in writing, as such surveyor, in accordance with the aforesaid resolution, and filed with the common council a plat showing the location of said monuments, which report was duly adopted and approved by said council on the 18th day of July, 1900, and at the same meeting was ordered spread in full on the record of the minutes of the common council, and the street commissioner instructed to prepare an ordinance legalizing said monuments and making the same official; and

Section 3. That, whereas, in pursuance of said resolution, said plat was duly recorded in said minutes at pages 101 of volume 1 thereof, and this ordinance is duly executed.

Section 4. Six (6) stone monuments with metallic centres were set by said surveyor at the place of each monument named, and said stone monuments are hereby adopted as the official monuments of the town of Hood River, to govern and apply to said town as hereinafter set forth:

Section 5. The monuments to be set by the street commissioner at the west line of Front street with centre line of Oak street, known as monument No. 1; intersection of centre line of Oak street and Third street, known as monument No. 2; intersection of west line of Irving street with centre line of Oak street, known as monument No. 3; intersection of centre lines of Bridge street and Waucoma avenue, both of which are otherwise known as State street, with west line of Irving street, known as monument No. 4; intersection of centre line of Waucoma avenue, or State street, with east line of Park avenue, otherwise known as School House street, known as monument No. 5; intersection of centre line of Oak street and Irving street, known as monument No. 6.

Section 6. The monuments numbered 1 and 2, and monuments hereafter to be set in the territory hereinafter described in this section, bounded northerly by the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's railroad right of way; easterly by the stream known as Hood river; southerly by a line running through the centre of section 36 of township 3 north, range 10 east of the Willamette meridian to a point south of and in line through monuments numbers 3 and 4; and westerly by said line running through monuments numbers 3 and 4; and thereafter along the west line of said Irving street to the said railroad right of way—govern that portion of the town so bounded and described in this section. The streets in that portion of the town above described bounded northerly by said railroad, easterly by Front street and claim line of Coe Donation Land Claim, southerly by the claim line of said Coe Donation Land Claim, and westerly by a line through said monuments numbers 3 and 4, and thereafter along the west line of said Irving street, which run east and west at right angles.

Section 7. The monuments numbered 3, 4, 5 and 6, and monuments hereafter to be set within the limits of the territory hereinafter described in this section, bounded easterly by the west line of said Irving street and the line continued through monuments numbers 3 and 4 to the south boundary of the said line through section 36, southerly by said line through the centre of said section 36 to the west corporation line of said town, and northerly by said railroad right of way—govern that portion of the town of Hood River bounded and described in this section.

The streets in that portion of the town above described, included in lines bounded easterly by block 4, Waucoma Addition; easterly by the line through monuments numbers 3 and 4; southerly by the south line of Moatelle and Waucoma Park, thence along north line of Waucoma Park, to the west line of Park avenue, or School House street; and westerly along the west line of said Park avenue or School House street and along that line continued to the north line of said block 4, southerly by the line through monuments numbers 3 and 4, and southerly by the line through monuments numbers 1 and 2, while those running in a westerly and easterly direction, west have the following courses: Those running north and south are parallel to those running north and south in the territory limited to monuments numbers 1 and 2, while those running in a westerly and easterly direction, east have the following courses: Those running north and south are parallel to those running north and south in the
