When you want a good smoke, buy the "Uriah Heep" cigar. For sale by all dealers.
Just arrived. A fine line of spectacles at Chas Rizes the Jeweler's. Call and see his prices.
This is the season of the year to cut cordwood, grub trees and do your pruning. Get your cross-cut saws, mattocks, axes, wedges, pruning shears and saws at Savage's.
E. E. Savage has been appointed agent for Hood River and vicinity for the S. L. Allen & Co.'s Planet Jr. goods, and will carry a full line of these celebrated tools, and extra parts for the same.
Dr. F. C. Brosius has removed to his new residence at the west end of Oak street, midway between the school house and armory, and can be found in his offices over Williams & Brosius' drug store between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.
Eureka Market will have on hand Saturday "Green" chickens, Belgian hares, Easto's oysters, salmon, smelt, crab, sweet potatoes, celery, cabbage, pure home made pork sausage, link pork sausage, Frankfort sausage, Hamburg steak, pickled pig's feet and tripe, fine stock of fresh and cured meats. We employ no hired help. We do all of our own work. Thus we are able to compete with the other fellow. Free delivery; phone 35.

Al Roberts and family of Portland moved up last Friday.
Mrs. Wm. Evans arrived from Skagway Saturday on a visit to her relatives here.
John Leland Henderson last week sold one lot in Barrett-Sigma addition for $60.
Miss Hirstel returned to Portland last Saturday after a visit of five weeks in Hood River.
Letters remained in the post office, Jan. 28th: for H. Bernhard, Joe Leiby and Frank E. Young.

Quality and not quantity makes De Witt's Little Early Risers such valuable little liver pills. Chas. N. Clarke.
Mr. Niel has finished his house sufficiently to be occupied. He is doing quite a little carpenter work to be done yet.
The wife of Rev. J. G. Alford, at Belmont, who has been dangerously sick for the past month, is now in a fair way to recover.
Miss Nellie Erwin is quite sick with congestion of the lungs. The attending physician was called in three times last Saturday.
E. L. Smith is getting his small tract of land on the hill pretty well cleared up. He intends planting strawberries on it in the spring.

T. R. Gooch has sold six acres of his country place, including his dwelling house, and has moved to town, occupying his dwelling on the heights.
Mrs. W. Udel was taken sick last Thursday night with chills and fever. She was confined to her bed for several days, but is now somewhat better.
Mrs. M. H. Nickelson, who is visiting her son at Hepper, will probably be obliged to stay for some time, as the small-pox is prevalent at that place.
The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. W. E. Sherrill. All members are requested to be present.
E. H. Pickard has been on the sick list for some time and passed through a siege of pneumonia and a complication of other diseases. He is on the streets again.
Miss Nellie Leuberg, who has been working for Davenport's for the past two months, is now at home. She expects to go to Portland to work in the near future.
H. Hennig of the East Side, Friday night of last week, gave an order supper for the benefit of the Pine Grove church. It was well attended and about $10 realized.
Mrs. Hutton was taken to a Portland hospital last week. She has been suffering with rheumatism in the head for some time, and acting on the advice of her physician, she went there for treatment.
C. R. Bone is pushing the work on the East Side ditch. He is camped on the ground, and with a force of ten men and teams, will make a strong endeavor to give the East Side ranchers water for their crops in the year 1901.

According to our correspondence in another column, written by an old fisherman, the fish caught in Hood River at this season of the year are not fit to eat. The surest way to stop the Indians from fishing during the closed season is to quit buying the fish from them.
The officers of the Sunday school of the Valley Christian church and Christian Endeavor society met at Mr. Lockman's last Friday evening. After attending to some business, the rest of the evening was spent in a very pleasant social time.
E. E. Savage has purchased a lot 50 x 100 feet on the E. L. Smith block. This lot fronts on Third street between Oak and State, adjoining Reciprocity Corner. Mr. Savage will commence at once the erection of a two story building with a 36 foot on Oak street by his hardware store.
The O. R. & N. send out a letter each week to dealers in farm produce, fruit, live stock, wood or any other commodity placed on the market. In this letter the names of all persons known to the company as having anything to sell are given. It would be well for our farmers and others who have anything to market to take note of this free advertisement and give their names to Mr. J. Bagley, the company's agent at Hood River, who will forward them to headquarters.
Richard T. Mills, whose arm was broken and who received other severe injuries while attempting to dislodge a jam in the flame at Davenport's planer, is getting along nicely towards recovery. He gets medical attendance free and is looked after by his wife and daughter and the good people of the planer community. Mr. Mills is an old soldier, having served during the civil war in Co. B, 86th Illinois. He was struck at Nashville, Tenn., in 1863, and at Chickamauga he was overhauled during the hard marching of the army and fell between the union and confederate lines, where he lay for three days without food or water. He is of strong constitution, but he never fully recovered from the effects of his war hardships.

Grenville Goddard was severely injured Friday of last week. He was riding on the reach of A. C. Staten's wagon when, in going down hill, the team started to run. He was jolted off the wagon and the hind wheel struck him on the hip and passed over his abdomen. Although considerably bruised, Mr. Goddard will be all right again in a few days.
Mrs. J. W. Ingles last week received word of the death of her father, James A. Balch, who died at Evansville, Ind., Jan. 18, 1901. Deceased was a pioneer of Oregon, coming here in 1851. He was a veteran of the civil war, having served as second lieutenant in Co. F, 1st Ore. volunteers. He at one time served as county judge of Klickitat county, Wash. His age was 76.
Riverside lodge, A. O. U. W., has purchased the lot on the corner of Oak and Irving streets, opposite the U. B. church, on which the lodge will erect a hall for the use of different fraternal societies and for public use. At the next meeting of the lodge, Feb. 24, the plans for the building will be presented, and if adopted, work on the building will soon commence.
The World Almanac for 1901 is for sale at E. R. Bradley's, price 25 cents. It is a book of over 600 pages, a cyclopedia, a statistical volume of facts and figures crowded into less space than any other book. It is regarded as a standard authority by writers and statesmen.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins, who has been holding a meeting at Athena, will return this week and occupy the pulpit in the Valley Christian church Sunday. His meeting at Athena has been quite successful, fifteen persons having obeyed the gospel during the meeting.
Hon. E. L. Smith, H. F. Davidson, J. H. Hubbard and G. J. Gessling will attend the meeting of the Northwestern Fruit Grower's Association in Portland next week. It will be a good time for all interested in fruit growing to go.
Recorder Nickelson on Wednesday received from the county clerk the assessed valuation of all property in the town of Hood River, amounting to $65,965. This is $40,000 below what was generally supposed the valuation of our property amounted to.
The friends of Dr. H. K. Hines in Hood River are raising a fund to purchase him a lot in University Park. The Dr. has many friends in Hood River who will be pleased to contribute towards this laudable purpose.
Thomas Chapman has bought 50 acres of the Fendick place, making him 60 acres in his farm. He has a two story house 15x26 nearly completed. Thomas is rapidly becoming one of our substantial farmers.
All who are or have been members of Mrs. Armer's Sunday school class are invited to meet at the home of Miss Clara Blythe on Saturday at 3:30 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a club.
The Sunshine society will meet with Mrs. F. E. Jackson on Saturday, Feb. 2, 1901. Every member is requested to be present as there is special business to come before the meeting.
Mrs. Boyden-Goddard's recital is postponed until the evening of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22d, when an especially good programme is promised.
Hood River Poultry Club meets in the A. O. U. W. hall tomorrow, Feb. 24, at 2 o'clock on important business. Every member should be present.
A. O. U. W. Notice—Important business to be considered at regular meeting Saturday, Feb. 24. All members are requested to be present.
The Sunshine society will give a social on Valentine evening. Every one remembering this and don't make any other appointment.
A boy was seen on the streets of Hood River Tuesday wearing a button hole bouquet of purple iris, the first signs of spring.
The father of the Sprout Bros. of the East Side is building a neat dwelling house between the two new houses of his sons.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Early of Viento started Wednesday for a trip to Kansas City and will stop at Salt Lake on the way.
Hon. J. W. Morton sold a hog to Recorder Corner, Monday, that, when butchered, dressed 335 pounds.
Workmen are engaged planting the poles in the streets for the Hood River Electric Light and Power Co.
Mrs. W. H. Perry has been quite sick for the past week with an attack of the grip and sore throat.
L. Bradley stepped on a nail that ran into his foot, and he was laid up several days last week.
F. W. Coal has purchased 40 acres of partly improved land on the East Side of Robt Rand.
Frank Countryman is building him a house on his 5 acres recently bought of D. G. Hill.
Rev. J. L. Hershner has purchased the Emma G. Robinson 40 acres on the East Side.
The Misses Vera Jackson and Nellie Clark spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.
Miss Lillian Lewis dislocated a finger while hitching up the family horse on Monday.
Miss Emma Jones was the guest of Miss Laura Hill last week.
Uncle John Smith of Belmont is laid up with a bad cold.
Gifford, photographer, of The Dalles is in the city.
S. J. La France of Portland is in the city.
John Sipma is on the sick list.

Old-Timers
Had their day, but their time is past and gone, and the smoker of today buys "Uriah Heep," the best cigar on the market. Try one.

Underwood Notes.
The sun never fails to shine at Underwood.
Tuesday evening a few of the neighbors gathered at the residence of Ed Underwood, it being the 13th birthday of Miss Elsie. Those present were: Ed Underwood and wife, E. Benjamin, T. L. Ennos, Will Lena and Lizzie Kellendonk, Will, Maggie, Elsie, Lottie and Kate Underwood, Mrs. Geo. Tyrell, Mrs. G. Dark, Mrs. N. Brown, Geo. Duvall. Games were played and songs sung. Lunch was served. All report a jolly time.
Anos Underwood went to the Dalles Wednesday, and while there was offered a position as captain on a barge or flatboat on the upper river, but declined the offer on account of his advanced age.
Fred Luthy went to visit his sister in the Willamette valley whom he has not seen for a number of years. On account of the high water he could not get back and stayed longer than he expected.
Nicolas & Cameron have a force of men at work on the White Salmon river repairing their boom which was destroyed by the flood.
Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25c and 50c. Williams & Brosius.

Protect the Fish.
Hood River, Jan. 29, 1901.—Editor Glacier: About the first of September, from time immemorial, there arrive in the waters of Hood river one of the most beautiful, gamiest of all our food fishes, that is, our silver trout. These trout are protected by law, which makes the closed season—commencing Nov. 1st. Trout are being caught now by people of poor taste and judgment, in the fact that the trout are now in the height of their spawning season, and are in the poorest possible condition. Indian Spokane Trout came in town Monday night with 49 trout, and sold them about town. This should not be allowed. These fish should not be caught at this stage of the spawning condition, and no true sportsman would catch them now. At this stage of the game, it is not justice to the fish. Nor to the people who wish to keep these most excellent fish in our waters. Xios.

Necrol Notes.
W. T. Hansberry was seen in town Tuesday.
Samuel Etter moved to Portland Monday.
J. A. Heavener of Hood river valley is working this place.
The W. S. B. I. Co. have been engaged for the past two weeks building another dam in the White Salmon at the mouth of the river for the purpose of raising the water so it will run through a ditch constructed to run logs down.

Harry Hansberry is nursing a boil on his hand.
A. Heavener is laid up with a sprained wrist.
F. R. Smith and family are visiting in Portland.
Miss Hattie Purser is staying with her sister, Mrs. Rowley Phelps. Who.

Aid Society's Teas.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church has planned a series of "teas" to be given monthly, for the purpose of promoting Christian fellowship and culture, as well as to add to the society's funds. The first of these teas will be given at the residence of Mrs. F. C. Brosius on Friday (today) at 2 to 3 p. m., under the auspices of the following ladies: Mrs. J. F. Armer, Mrs. Frank Button, Mrs. L. N. Blowers, Mrs. N. W. Bone and Mrs. F. C. Brosius. An interesting program will be presented, of which part will be as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Clara Blythe; instrumental duet, Mrs. A. B. Canfield and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson; recitation, Mollie White; vocal solo, Mrs. P. S. Davidson, jr. Refreshments will be served. Only charge, 10 cents. The public is invited.

C. E. Anniversary.
The 20th anniversary of the C. E. society will be observed by the local societies of Hood River next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the Congregational church. The Epworth League of the M. E. church will join with the C. E. societies in this service. An appropriate order of service will be presented, including brief addresses by the local pastors, Jenkins, Spaulding, Shaffer and Hershner. The public is invited to attend this service.

Born.
In Hood River, Jan. 25, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wetherell, a son.

Married.
At Belmont, Jan. 29, 1901, at the residence of the bride's parents, George Hunter of Mosier and Miss Eliza Rogers; Rev. J. G. Alford officiating.
The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rogers. The glacier extends congratulations to the happy couple.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested foods they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

In Memory of Daisy Campbell.
One voice is silent around the evening fire,
One form comes not to cheer us with his glad near.
There brothers and sisters mingle with mother
And sisters sit,
But tongues are mute and hearts are chilled
With sadness.
Though they dwell on past communion unforgotten,
One voice is silent, we hear it not.
The loved one is here,
Those lips move with cheering words no more;
Death's hand has thrown a strange light on the brow.
One voice is silent, it pleads not pain,
One voice is silent from the couch of pain
Which she has passed in winter time and spring.
No words of comfort shall come again,
No troublesome thoughts that gentle boom bring.
The abandoned eye hath parted with its tears,
One voice is silent, one we loved so dear.
One voice is silent, one we loved so dear,
Father and mother, brothers, sisters, or our pleasant home is stealing.
Our darling Daisy's life is done and we are alone.
But oh, remember, in this pang of feeling,
How dear the love that led to his loss.
One voice is silent here but wakes in heaven.
In heaven's flower garden, above,
Sweet little Daisy looks and blossoms into an angel of love.
Her angel baby brother meets her at the pearly gates.
And at God's throne together for the loved one they wait.
